

Descendants of Samuel Snoddy

Generation No. 1

1. SAMUEL⁴ SNODDY was born Apr 23, 1727 in Ballyrickard, Co Antrim, NI, and died Bet. Jul - Aug 1806 in Iredell Co/Alexander Co, NC. He married ELIZABETH SLOAN 1748 in Co Antrim, NI, daughter of ?GEORGE SLOAN and UNKNOWN. She was born Sep 1725 in Co Antrim, NI, and died Dec 16, 1815 in Iredell Co/Alexander Co, NC.

Notes for SAMUEL SNODDY:

(Twenty years after the Norman conquest, William the Conqueror, ordering a survey of most of the lands outside of London, had these returns set down in the well-known Domesday Book. The name Snode is found in that book as an inhabitant holding land in the year 1086.)

In the book, "Old Families of Larne and District", is a cemetery listing: "SNODDY - [Copied from a Lawrence photograph.] (In) memory (of) Samuel Snoddy who departed this life (July 20th 1806) aged 6(9) years." I think this is a dedication to "our" Samuel.

Below are Snoddys listed in the tax rolls in County Antrim, Northern Ireland in 1669. One of these is the father of Samuel Snoddy to come to America. I believe it to be Joseph.

HEARTH MONEY ROLLS - 1669

Parish of Raloo, townland of Browndod, Thomas Snoddy, 1 hearth

Parish of Raloo, townland of Carnduff, Robert Snoddy, 1 hearth

Parish of Inver, townland of Carnduff, Robert Snoddy

Parish of Larne, townland of Larne, Jo (?Joseph?) Snoddy

(It was a tax paid by the householder to the government of that time depending on how many fireplaces/hearths were in his house.)

I have found a listing for a "? Snoddey", that landed in Pennsylvania between 1720-1750. Don't know if this is Samuel or not. "Scotch Irish Pioneer in Ulster and America", Boston: Bacon and Brown, 1910. Reprint. Heritage Books, Bowie, MD, 1989. p278.

1748 - "Samuel Snoddy and Elizabeth Sloan married in Ireland and sailed for the colonies...", quote from one of his daughters, Margaret Snoddy McCorkle. John Hale Stutesman's book.

January 30, 1748 - London Britain Township, Chester County, PA, Samuel Snoddy witnessed the will of William McColloch and on March 14, 1748 testified to the will. Cannot PROVE that this is "our" Samuel, but the date agrees with information from John Hale Stutesman's book.

1749 & 1751 - Samuel Snoddy was on the tax lists for the same township and county (above), paying "2 shillings, 3 pence" in 1749 and "2 shillings, 6 pence" in 1751. On this same list were George McCleave and James Kennedy. George McCleave was the recipient of William McColloch's wearing apparel in the 1748 will which Samuel Snoddy and James Kennedy were the witnesses. (Information provided by Sharon Haennelt.) This places Samuel Snoddy in Chester County, PA between January and March of 1748, and the years of 1749 and 1751.

1759 - Rowan Co, NC, Samuel Snoddy signed a petition to the King of England, John Earl Granville, Viscount Carteret and Baron Carteret of Hawnes in the county of Bedford, England.

Oct 13, 1764 - Record of Samuel Snoddy in North Carolina of his claim of 4 wolf scalps (bounty) on the Rowan County court. "Minutes of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, North Carolina (1763-1774)."

July 22, 1768 - Rowan Co, NC, Samuel and his son, William, listed in the tax table (p-204). Listed in Col. Morrison's district.

Feb 11, 1775 - Samuel appointed one of the commissioners to lay off a road from the provincial road at Morrison's Mill across the three little rivers, three creeks to the Lime Kilns on the Catta River. "Abstracts of the Minutes of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions", Rowan Co, NC (1775-1789).

Feb 21, 1775 - Bondsman, Margaret Snoddy - Andrew Mitchell; John Mitchell bondsman also.

May 5, 1778 - Samuel Snoddy appointed overseer of road from Kerr's bridge on 3rd Creek through Capt. Purviance's district.

1784 - Tax list, Rowan Co, NC - shows Samuel owning 478 acres in Rowan Co, 320 acres Burke Co.; also in 1784, there is a land grant for 827 acres in Burke Co, NC.

Feb 10, 1787 - Samuel Snoddy appointed juror for the next court session, Rowan Co, NC, superior court.

1787 - Tax list of Rowan Co, NC; Captain Morrison's district. Samuel Snoddy: 1 wm 21-60; 1 wm 16-21; 1 wm 16/60+; 3 wf; 7 blacks.

Aug 9, 1787 - Samuel Snoddy given Land Grant No. 1531, 600 acres of land on big branch of Elk Shoals Creek, next to John Ireland, Andrew Morrison and Allen Alexander.

Oct 4, 1791 - Samuel sold 3 slaves (Primus, Ephraim and Sampson) to his son, Thomas, for 500 pounds.

May 9, 1794 - Samuel made his will. Will Book I, page 215, Iredell Co, NC. (See below)

August 16, 1806 - Thomas Snoddy, executor, made an "Inventory of the good and chattels of Samuel Snoddy, deceased. [In the St. Cedma churchyard, Larne, Northern Ireland, there is a tombstone erected in the memory of Samuel Snoddy who departed this life (July 20, 1806, aged 6(9) years. Dates are awfully close...so possibly this is our Samuel.]

From Heritage Book of Iredell County, North Carolina - Volume II, page 131. Item #136 - "Some Descendants of Allen Ulysses Alexander and Nancy Murdock"

Their son James Leander Alexander, married Jenny Lewis and one of their son's, John Ivey Quinton Alexander, inherits the Samuel Snoddy place.

"John Ivey Quinton Alexander was given the old Samuel Snoddy place which was at the crossroads of the present county line and Sharon School Road. The land is in both Iredell and Alexander counties.

Many stories abound about the Snoddy house. A brick, dated 1751 and supposedly chiseled with the Snoddy name, was discovered by relatives who were repairing the old chimney. Legend indicates that it was built on the plan of a ship, and that was the reason one had to walk out on the porch to get to the kitchen. Whether the legend is true or not, it is a true tragedy that this structure no longer stands. One of the most commanding views can be seen from this old homestead. On a clear day you can see Grandfather Mountain.

George Erskine Alexander's widow, Ruth, and their son, Richard, still live on the property. The old chimney was eventually taken to the Lewis Alexander farm, formerly the Festus Alexander place, to cover a smoke house."

Notes for FERGUS SNODDY:

Fergus never married. He was commissioned a Lieutenant of Light Dragoons in Col. Wade Hampton's Cavalry Regiment on the South Carolina muster in 1781, when that State was desperately offering pay in captured negroes. Fergus received "1 grown Negro (and) 1 small Negro" for his service. He made his will in South Carolina in 1784 appointing as Executor his "friend David Ramsay," the noted physician, patriot and historian...of the Revolution of South Carolina. His estate was left to his younger brothers (Samuel, Jr. and Thomas) for their education.

WILL OF FERGUS SNODDY - WRITTEN AUGUST 9, 1784; PROVEN APRIL 5, 1785

In the name of God amen. I, Fergus Snowdy, ordain this my last will. After my debts are paid I bequeath to my two youngest brothers, Samuel and Thomas, the whole of my estate both real and personel in North and South Carolina. As I choose it to be expended in their education I hereby authorize my executors herein after named or any one of them to sell my lands if they shall think proper so to do. And to make good and sufficient titles to the same. Proved before Charles Lining Equire O C T D April 5, 1785. At same time qualified David Ramsey as executor. Recorded in Will Book A, 1783 -1786, page 503, Charleston County, South Carolina.

Information on David Ramsay:

RAMSAY, David (brother of Nathaniel Ramsay), a Delegate from South Carolina; born in Dunmore, Lancaster County, Pa., April 2, 1749; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) in 1765; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1773 and began practice in Cecil County, Md.; settled in Charleston, S.C., in 1773; member of the State house of representatives 1776-1783; served in the Revolutionary Army as surgeon of the Charleston Battalion of Artillery, State militia; captured at the fall of Charleston in May 1780 and imprisoned at St. Augustine, Fla., for eleven months; Member of the Continental Congress 1782-1786 and served as President pro tempore during the last term; unsuccessfully contested the election of William L. Smith to the First Congress (the first contested-election case); State historian and author of several historical works; member of the State senate of South Carolina and served as president of that body for seven years; shot by a maniac on May 6, 1815, in Charleston, Charleston County, S.C., and died in that city May 8, 1815.

David Ramsay (1749-1815) was a second-line political figure of the American Revolution but a first-rate and most important contemporary historian of that epoch.

David Ramsay was born in Pennsylvania on April 2, 1749, of substantial landowning parents. He graduated from the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) and, after teaching for a while, took a medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1772.

Ramsay settled in Charleston, S.C., and made it his home for the remainder of his life. The beginning of his political career coincided with the outbreak of the American Revolution. Much of that career was spent in the legislature of his adopted state, but he also served for 2 years in the 1780s in the Continental Congress, where he emerged as an early supporter of a strong federal government. After the ratification of the Constitution, Ramsay served in the upper house of South Carolina and on three occasions was named president of that body.

May 06, 1815 -- Noted physician & historian Dr. David Ramsay shot by a man he had diagnosed as insane. The Doctor dies two days later claiming "the perpetrator a lunatic & free from guilt."

Divorce proceedings provided by Marvin D. Snoddy

State of Tennessee, Sumner County, July 28, 1803 - DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Whereas heretofore, that is to say, on the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and three, Betsy Snoddy by her next friend and brother John Orr, exhibited her petition to the Honorable Andrew Jackson, one of the Judges of the Superior Court of law and equity for the State of Tennessee aforesaid against William Snoddy defendant, which said petition follows in these words.

To the Honorable Judges of the Superior Court of law and equity for the State of Tennessee, the petition of Betsy Snoddy of the County of Sumner and district of Mero, wife of William Snoddy of the county and district aforesaid, by her next friend and brother, John Orr, humbly sheweth to your honors that on the ?th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and one, your petitioner was lawfully married to the said William Snoddy in the county aforesaid and that she has ever since endeavored to behave and conduct herself towards the said William Snoddy as became a virtuous dutiful and affectionate wife that in a short time after your petitioner was married to said William Snoddy, he (said William) beat your petitioner in a cruel manner and ordered your petitioner out of his house in the dead hours of the night; in violation of his marriage covenant and that afterwards the said William Snoddy out of contempt and derision to your petitioner and in order to make her condition the more intolerable; maliciously did cut with a pair of scissors the wearing apparel which your petitioner then had on her; and while it was on her, that at the time your petitioner was delivered of a child and while in child bed, the said William Snoddy locked up all the nourishment from your petitioner which it was absolutely necessary a woman should have in that situation; that a neighbor had to supply your petitioner with the necessaries of life that the said William Snoddy kicked your petitioner out of the bed in the night and kicked and bit with his teeth and beat your petitioner in a cruel and unmerciful manner - and that afterwards the said William Snoddy fastened your petitioner up in a room with the avowed intent, as your petitioner believes, to murder her or to do her some great bodily harm with a knife which the said William Snoddy then had in his hand as your petitioner believes but was prevented by the intervention of a neighbor man all which things are contrary to the intent of the marriage contract and in violation of the matrimonial vow that notwithstanding the many overtures and entreaties of your petitioner to the said William Snoddy to reform his conduct toward her and treat her as becomes a good and virtuous husband; yet the said William Snoddy proves enorable; your petitioner therefore states that she must inevitably ware out her existence in a miserable manner; that his conduct towards her has become insupportable, your petitioner therefore, prays that on the foregoing statement being substantiated, your honors would dissolve the bonds of matrimony between your petitioner and the said William Snoddy according to act of assembly in such made and provided and also allow your petitioner such further redress as your honors in your description may think proper, and your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

Her Mark X Betsy Snoddy

Affidavit: Personally appeared before me, Andrew Jackson, one of the judges of the Superior Court of law and equity for the State of Tennessee, the within named Betsy Snoddy and made oath the contents of the within petition are just and true to the best of her knowledge and belief that the said complaint is not made out of levity or collusion between her and her husband and for the mere purpose of being freed and separated from each other but in sincerity and truth for the causes mentioned in said petition, sworn to and subscribed this 28th day of July 1803, before me, Andrew Jackson.

And process of subpoena having been granted, and the defendant therewith duly served, he appeared and answered the said petition as follows:

The answer of William Snoddy to the petition for a divorce filed in the Superior Court of law and equity for the district of Mero, and State of Tennessee by Betsy Snoddy and John Orr her next friend. The respondent saving and reserving all benefit of exceptions to the many uncertainties and insufficiencies in the said petition contained for answer thereto or to so much thereof as he is advised is material for him to make answer unto answers and says. That, true it is that he the said William Snoddy was married to the said Betsy in the month of October in the year 1801, as in the said petition stated; but your respondent denies that the said Betsy has conducted herself as became a dutiful or virtuous wife, and avers that the said Betsy was frequently intoxicated with ardent spirits at home and abroad, that she was unfaithful to this respondents bed, and guilty of misconduct degrading to herself, injurious and destructive to this respondents peace and happiness, that this respondent being anxious to reform her and to restrain her from these vicious practices sometimes reasoned with her upon the impropriety of such conduct, sometimes he may have chided her and perhaps scolded her; but he positively denies that he ever beat or threatened her life - that his remonstrances had no effect but to increase her passion - that once in particular, as well as your respondent recollects, it was in the month of September 1802, he reasoned with her requesting her not to indulge herself in such excessive drinking and other improprieties, she got angry at him and deserted his house for the space of about six weeks, that during her absence your respondent requested her to return, she after some refusals did return knowing (as your respondent presumes) what was really the fact that he was desirous to live in peace and harmony with her - this respondent denies that he ever did cut her clothes with scissors, as stated in the said petition, he further denies that he locked up the provisions so that she had not the necessary nourishment for a woman in her situation, on the contrary, he avers that he uniformly administered to her every comfort and convenience in his power, that her neighbors never furnished her with any necessaries to his knowledge, if they did it was because her wants were unknown to this respondent.

Your respondent denies that he ever kicked the said petitioner out of bed or bit her, as stated in the said petition, he also denies that he ever locked or fastened her up in the house, as stated in the petition; that on the contrary, he avers that at the time he supposes alluded to, which was in May 1803, to the best of your respondents recollection - the said Betsy had been visiting at the house of a certain Pleasant Chitwood and returned some hours after dark, your respondent was gone to bed and hearing a knocking at the door together with the sound of more voices than one, he asked the said Betsy who was with her, upon her answering, Mr. Chitwood and his wife, this Chitwood being a man with whom your respondent had that day had a quarrel and in the presence of said Betsy, your respondent told the said Betsy that he would open the door to her, but not to Chitwood and his wife, she said her company would come in and that she would not come in without them, but would break open the door if not opened and thereupon called for an axe and said Chitwood or her broke open a window in the room where this respondent lay and said Chitwood came in, the other part of the house was not shut, to wit, the other room, and your respondent in truth says that during the whole time he had not a knife in his hand, or any other offensive weapon, and that if any person was imprisoned it was himself and not the said Betsy, as stated in said petition. Your respondent further shows that he has frequently requested the said Betsy to return and live with him, that he has always had a sensitive affection for her, that he had no other motive for marrying her as she brought him no property, that all the chiding and remonstrance that he ever made use of towards her was with the design to reform her improprieties which your respondent is in hope time will cure, he therefore, prays that for as much as the cause of unhappiness has proceeded from the said Betsy and he having been always willing to live with her in peace and being still willing to do so and treat her well, that the marriage may not be dissolved but that the respondent may be hence dismissed with his costs, etc.

William Snoddy

And the cause was continued from term to term until this term, to wit, the first above mentioned, at which day came the parties, and by their consent it is ordered that this suit be dismissed and that each party pay their own witnesses and half the other costs.

(Cape Girardeau County Deed Book A & B, p.103). In 1806, "James Morroson of the District of Cape Girardeau" bought from Thomas Ballew another 16 acres "South of Morroson's improvement." Clearly, this James Morrison had settled at Cape Girardeau. In light of the flat statement by Mrs. Hars (from John Hale Stutesman's book), that her Aunt Eleanor (Snoddy) Morrison left North Carolina for a new home on the Mississippi River.

(Cape Girardeau is a turn on the west bank of the Mississippi River. A port and small settlement developed there when the Louisiana Purchase opened to American migration to the west of that great river. In 1812, it was included in the Missouri Territory. In August 1823, following the "Missouri Compromise" of tragic consequences, the State of Missouri was formed, including Cape Girardeau County.)

Oct 12, 1816 - No other evidence of the death of Eleanor has been found, but a notice in the Missouri Gazette of October 12, 1816, gave a clue to her husband's death, "Died, James Morrison of Cape Girardeau County. Samuel Morrison Administrator." No will was recorded.

4. SARAH⁵ SNODDY (*SAMUEL*⁴, ?*JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born May 15, 1753 in NC, and died Bet. 1822 - 1828 in Iredell Co, NC. She married ANDREW MITCHELL Feb 21, 1775 in Rowan Co, NC, son of JOHN MITCHELL and CYNTHIA MORTON. He was born 1756 in ?NC, and died Bef. 1805 in ?Iredell Co, NC.

Notes for SARAH SNODDY:

1. Sarah took the place of her sister, Margaret, who eloped with Joseph McCorkle after a license was issued in Rowan Co, NC for Margaret to marry Andrew Mitchell.

2. In Aug 1828, Andrew Mitchell of Lawrence Co, AL, sold land in Iredell Co, NC, which had been originally granted to Andrew Mitchell, dec'd and willed to Samuel Mitchell, late dec'd. The sale of the old family homestead suggests that Sarah had died.

Fact 1: Feb 21, 1775, Married Andrew Mitchell in Rowan Co, NC

Notes for ANDREW MITCHELL:

1768 - Rowan Co, NC - John Murdock appointed guardian to Moses Mitchell; Samuel Mitchell appointed guardian to John Mitchell; Andrew Mitchell as security.

October 18, 1768 - Rowan Co, NC - Power of attorney from Andrew Mitchell to Samuel Mitchell to authorize him to sell land in Pennsylvania.

1778 - Rowan Co, NC - tax list of Capt. Reed's District: Andrew Mitchell, 1252.10 acres; Moses Mitchell, 820 acres.

The following information is from John Hale Stutesman's book "Samuel and Elizabeth (Sloan) Snoddy".

On February 21, 1775, Andrew Mitchell made bond in Rowan County, North Carolina, for his marriage to "Margret Snoddy", a daughter of Samuel Snoddy who was co-bondsman (Rowan Co, NC Marriage Book). That young woman had another thought. On the night before the proposed wedding, perhaps with the connivance of her mother, she ran off with another man [Joseph McCorkle]. Their daughter told her daughter, Mrs. Hars, that "there was no interruption in the wedding festivities. Another sister filled Margaret's place." That bride was the "daughter Sarah Mitchel" named in her father's will.

Andrew Mitchell was the son of John and Liliias (Morton) Mitchell who were married in Scotland and migrated to Pennsylvania where the father died in 1760. The widow brought her children south to the North Carolina piedmont where she was remarried. Rowan County court allowed Andrew Mitchell in October 1768 to be the "surety" on a guardianship bond for his brothers (Rowan County Court Minutes). This indicates that Andrew was born before 1748.

In 1778 Andrew Mitchell entered a claim in the North Carolina Land Office for 630 acres in Rowan County "on Both Sides of Hunting Creek." That land lies today in the northeast corner of Iredell County, North Carolina. In subsequent years, Mitchell added to that acreage.

The War for American Independence drew out the men of Rowan County, with few exceptions fighting for the rebels. The man who married Sally Snoddy may have been the "Andrew Mitchell" who was paid for service in the Rowan County militia during that conflict (NC Rev. War payments, Salisbury District, NC Archives, Raleigh).

In 1788 "Andrew Mitchel & wife Sarah" sold some of their land. That was the year that Iredell County was formed from part of Rowan, including the Mitchell homestead. The 1790 census counted "Andrew Mitchell" there at the head of a household of five females, two males under 16, a male over 15, and nine slaves. The 1800 census also found him in Iredell County, NC.

On May 29, 1803, Andrew Mitchell signed his will there, naming as heirs his "wife Sarah", sons Samuel and Andrew, and daughters "Sally Wright" with unmarried "Lillis, Martha, Mary, Cinthey". He disposed of land in Iredell County, NC and in "Kentucky", with fourteen slaves. That will was probated in November 1805, which strongly suggests that Andrew Mitchell died in 1805.

The widow stayed on the land left to her by her husband. Apparently, her widowed mother came to live with her. On December 16, 1815, that woman made her will in Iredell County, bequeathing "to my Daughter Sarah Mitchel all the property that I now possess."

Mrs. Hars recorded, "Sarah Snoddy died in North Carolina". She probably was the elderly female in her son Samuel's household in the 1820 census of Iredell County, NC. On November 20, 1822, the Administrator of the estate of that son Samuel, published his intent to sell the personal property of the deceased in a few weeks "on Hunting Creek where the widow Mitchell now lives.

In August 1828, "Andrew Mitchell of Lawrence County, Alabama" sold the land in Iredell County, NC, which had been "originally granted to Andrew Mitchell, deceased, and willed to Samuel Mitchell, late deceased, and myself." That sale of land of the old homestead suggests, but does not prove, that Sarah had died.

The will of Andrew Mitchell named seven children: (1) Lillis (2) Samuel (3) Andrew (4) Sarah (5) Martha (6) Mary, and (7) Cynthia.

5. ELIZABETH⁵ SNODDY (*SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?1) was born Feb 01, 1755 in NC, and died Abt. 1818 in Preble Co, OH. She married SAMUEL MITCHELL Feb 21, 1775 in Rowan Co, NC, son of JOHN MITCHELL and CYNTHIA MORTON. He was born Bef. 1748, and died Aug 1813 in Eaton, Preble Co, OH.

Notes for ELIZABETH SNODDY:

Mrs. Hars recorded, "Elizabeth Snoddy born Feb. 1, 1775. Died in Preble County, Ohio."

Elizabeth's father added a married name to that report. In 1794 he named, along with his heirs, "My daughter Elisabeth Mitchel." No official record of her marriage has survived, but there is evidence that she married Samuel Mitchell, a neighbor in North Carolina whose brother, Andrew, had married one of her sisters, Sarah.

On December 3, 1816, "Elizabeth Mitchell of the County of Preble, Ohio", making her mark, sold some land in that county which had been granted in 1809 by the U.S. government to "Samuel Mitchell Senior of Butler County, Ohio." In September 1820 six children of Samuel Mitchell, confirmed that sale by "our deceased mother, Elizabeth Mitchell." These records place the death of that "Elizabeth Mitchell" in Preble County circa 1818.

Notes for SAMUEL MITCHELL:

Information below obtained from book by John Hale Stutesman.

"Samuel Mitchell, brother of Andrew, was born before 1748 to John and Lillias (Morton) Mitchell. He came to manhood on the North Carolina Piedmont where, in 1768, he was appointed by the Rowan County Court to be the Guardian of his younger brother. He made a report to that Court on his guardianship in 1771, and he was taxed there in 1772, living in the area now Iredell County.

He would have been of ripe age to fight in the American Revolution with his kin and neighbors on the rebel side. He would naturally have joined them after that conflict in the surge of settlers to the west. In 1793, "Samuel Mitchell" was taxed in Bourbon County, Kentucky, in the midst of other North Carolina emigrants with four slaves, 9 horses and 21 cattle. In November 1795 he bought 370 acres in Bourbon County "on Harrod's Lick Creek" near Paris. His brother, Andrew, bought at the same time from the same grantor 400 acres in Bourbon County. In 1796, "Samuel Mitchell" was taxed on 770 acres there. Apparently, he was tending his brother's land with his own.

1805 was the last tax record there of Samuel Mitchell. Like so many of his kindred in that area he had been strongly influenced by the frontier parson Barton Stone, who was the minister for the marriage of one of Mitchell's children (Samuel, Jr.) in 1800 in Bourbon County. That congregation detested slavery and moved almost en masse out of Kentucky north into the free Northwest Territory.

The Mitchell's settled first in Butler County, Ohio, where son Fergus - a name much used in the Snoddy/Sloan lines - was married in 1808. In January 1809, a U.S. Grant was made to "Samuel Mitchell Senior of Butler County, Ohio" for 156 acres in Preble County, Ohio (NE 1/4 section 29 T-5 R3E). That is the land which Samuel's widow, Elizabeth, would sell in December 1816."

6. MARGARET⁵ SNODDY (*SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born Aug 18, 1756 in Rowan Co, NC, and died Oct 23, 1833 in Logansport, Cass Co, IN. She married JOSEPH "JOE" MCCORKLE Feb 28, 1775 in Rowan Co, NC, son of ALEXANDER MCCORKLE and NANCY/AGNES MONTGOMERY. He was born May 04, 1753 in Paxton Lancaster Co, PA, and died Jan 21, 1828 in Piqua, Miami Co, OH.

Notes for MARGARET SNODDY:

Margaret Snoddy McCorkle is buried at the Mt. Hope Cemetery, Logansport, Cass County, Indiana.

The following is an excerpt from John Hale Stutesman's book on Samuel Snoddy (p 37-38): Margaret's daughter (Mary McCorkle Hars) made a record of the names and dates of birth of the children of Samuel and Elizabeth (Sloan) Snoddy, including her mother who, she reported, was "born August 18, 1756." Margaret's parents were probably living in Rowan County, NC at this time.

"She was raised on a frontier farm in what is now the southeast corner of Alexander County, North Carolina. At the time of her birth, the Cherokees were burning out the settlers on that frontier. A stockaded fort near her father's homestead was the center of white protection and resistance. The Indians were driven back into their mountains; the white farmers resumed their peaceful toil. The Snoddy farm on Elk Shoals Creek was swarmed by children, and Margaret was about the middle one.

On February 21, 1775, Andrew Mitchell, a neighbor, made his bond in Rowan County Court for his marriage to Margaret Snoddy. And on February 28, Joseph McCorkle also made bond there for his marriage to that same woman. The first bond was co-signed by Margaret's elder brother. A stormy scene lay behind those bonds.

One of her granddaughters, Harriet (Brandon) Judah, wrote a "memoranda" in 1882 in which she recounted those dramatic, romantic events:

Joseph McCorkle married Margaret Snoddy contrary to the wishes of her parents. The night before the day fixed for the marriage she made her exit from a bedroom window, and married our grandfather. There was no interruption in the wedding festivities; another sister filled Margaret's place." That substitute bride was Margaret's sister, Sarah.

Another granddaughter, Alice (Hars) Dodd, added: "Tradition has it that Joseph McCorkle and Margaret Snoddy married in defiance of paternal will, although the maternal blessing and connivance was not lacking.

In 1828, Margaret Snoddy McCorkle, after the death of her husband, Joseph, moved near her widowed daughter, Mary (McCorkle) Hars, in Logansport, Indiana."

Quotes from John Mantle Judah:

(1) "The well-known story of the elopement and marriage of my grandparents is that Joseph was one morning at work, roofing a house. His father came and said, 'Joe, that old fool Snoddy is going to marry his girl Margaret to so-and-so tomorrow. Maybe you'd better go and see about it.' Whereup, Joe hastily clambered down, put on his coat and galloped off several miles to the Snoddy place. That night after the stern old father was asleep, Margaret handed out her bridle and saddle through a window and herself followed. She never saw her parents again, for old Snoddy never forgave her, leaving her a shilling* in his will. The story goes on to say that a younger sister was willing to supply Margaret's place to the bereaved groom [Andrew Mitchell], so that a wedding took place nevertheless." *(Samuel's will actually left his daughter Margaret five shillings, the same amount he left his other six children.)

(2) "That old Snoddy was an old tyrant is evident enough, and probably our great-great-grandpa was right in calling him an old fool, but we cannot deny that we have some of his blood. In as much as he disinherited our great-grandmother and all of us, we may fairly disinherit him. However, it all happened a long time ago, and we may as well let bygones be bygones."

Oct 16, 1832 - "Revolutionary War Pensions", Snoddy, John - State of Indiana, County of Owen
John's application for a pension as a veteran of the Revolutionary War described in dramatic detail his rough service in the N.C. militia as a mounted rifleman, against pro- British guerrillas. See below.

"On the 16th of October 1832, came John SNODDY, resident of Montgomery township in said county of Owen, aged 74 years and 7 months on the 23rd September last, who makes the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832. That he entered the service of the U.S. early in 1775 in the militia of North Carolina as a volunteer under General Rutherford in Rowan County, North Carolina where he then resided; also under Captain James Purviance and Lt. John Purviance, for a term of 3 months. In the month of April 1775 he finished this tour of service. He also served other tours of duty which he cannot recollect, but in 1778 he volunteered for a continued series of services until one or two months after the taking of Cornwallis at Yorktown in 1782. This service was under Major Micajah Lewis, who was after-wards killed in the lower part of North Carolina. Also under the command of Colonel Cleveland and Moses Guess, as service of about two years, were called "Lewis Minutemen". His residence was starting this service in Wilkes County. The service here spoken of was performed in counties of Burke, Lincoln, Rutherford, Wilkes, Rowan and Micklenburg and part of the time in South Carolina. He again entered the service under Major Joseph Dickson and Captain William Stuart for ca three or four months serving principally in North Carolina in Rowan and Micklenburg counties. Some of the names of the Continental officers who were occasionally united with troops in the corps to which he belonged were: Colonel Martin, Captain Knox, Captain George Davidson, Captain Lenoir, and Colonel Isaacs. He was in Surry County for about 3 months. He has long since been disconnected with his old companions in arms, having emigrated to Kentucky in 1782. He brought with him his certificate of his fidelity to his country herein enclosed - s/William Sharpe. This declarant further states that he lived 41 years in Kentucky, migrating there in 1782 after his little property had been destroyed by the Tories. Has lived in Owen County, Indiana for 9 years. He was born in 1758 in Rowan County, North Carolina. s/John Snoddy."

...can you give me a clue to the identity of an Isabell Snoddy who married a pioneer by the name of Henry Houndeshell (Howdysshell) on Oct 9, 1787, in Sumner Co, TN, with Peter Looney as bondsman? According to various histories, Henry Houndeshell was killed by Indians on April 14, 1793. Isabell Houndeshell then married a man named John Hamilton on March 13, 1794, and he later adopted her child. Sumner County records were searched and showed that the legal heirs of Henry Houndeshell were his three brothers. Isabell's second husband was referred to in court records as John, Jr. A search in Legislative Acts of 1805, page 5, chapter 3, item that "At the request of the Hon. John Hamilton, the name of James Snody was altered to be James Hamilton, with all of the privileges and rights of a natural child," etc. In the will of John Hamilton, dated Jan 5, 1830, and proved in May 1832, he mentions his adopted son, James Hamilton, daughter Celia Walker, son Franklin Hamilton and son Colney Hamilton. A very old family record in the possession of a member of the family at Castilian Springs shows the birthdate of James Hamilton as Jan. 21, 1786.

The following information is from Maudetta Zielinski, Rt 2, Box 25, DeSoto, KS 66018

James Houndshell (b: Jan 21, 1786), his mother was Isabell Snoddy. James was adopted by Isabell's second husband (John Hamilton). John came to Tennessee from Virginia with William Snoddy. William was killed by Indians shortly after coming to Tennessee, where he lived in lower Sumner County, near the Davidson County line.

October 1793 - Inventory of late Henry Houdeshell exhibited.

January 7, 1794 - Inventory of part of estate of Henry Houdeshell rendered by extrix.

Notes from Jerry Byers (Sreyb@aol.com) and Joyce Hetrick (joyce@mev.net) via e-mail:

Isabell Snoddy Houdeshell only had one child by Henry Houdeshell and it died young. Her second husband, John Hamilton, was a lawyer and he managed to get the 640 acres of land left by Henry into his own hands. Henry's land was to go to his next of kin which were his brothers Adam, John and Isaac in Virginia. I'm not sure of all the reasons but somehow Hamilton sued them and got possession of the lands. Henry, therefore, left no descendants except that one child who died as an infant. The Sumner County Houdeshells were all descended from Jacob Houdeshell, a cousin of Henry's, from whom Joyce Hetrick is descended.

Notes for JOHN C. HAMILTON, JR.:

J. C. and Isabell Hamilton were deeded 100 acres from William Snoddy on Station Camp Creek. This was in payment for legal work performed by Hamilton for Snoddy.

"The Mexican War of 1846-1848, Lincoln County Volunteers - As listed in the Fayetteville Observer
Dec. 24, 1914"

William C. Snoddy is listed as a volunteer from Lincoln County, Tennessee in the Mexican War of 1846-48. Under Captain Pryor Buchanan. He died in Mexico. He left Fayetteville for Mexico on March 31, 1846.

From: <http://freepages.history.rootsweb.com/~pearidger/lists/mexvols.htm> (Goodspeed's History)
"In the spring of 1846 a company of eighty-three men, known as the Lincoln Guards, was raised at Fayetteville for the Mexican war. It was officered as follows: Captain, Pryor Buchanan; first lieutenant, A. S. Fulton; second lieutenant, John V. Moyers; third lieutenant, C. A. McDaniel; orderly sergeant, William T. Slater. The company left Fayetteville March 31, 1846, and participated in the battle of Monterey, where several members were killed."

Note from Marvin D. Snoddy: ("I understand that William's brother, John, went to Mexico after William's death and picked up a money belt that was very heavy with gold, and brought it back to Lincoln County to his father, David. No one every told me why William had all that gold with him. I also understand that it took John several months to go get the gold and had to dodge all kinds of highwaymen on his trip.")

<http://www.dmwv.org/mexwar/history/texmex.htm> - Mexican War Information

During the summer of 1846 the war entered a brief lull while thousands of volunteers, authorized by Congress for twelve-months service, arrived in the lower Rio Grande Valley. At the same time, volunteers initially mustered in for three and six months had to be let go. Taylor, frustrated with the Quartermaster's Department at New Orleans, was unable to move further into Mexico for lack of transportation and supplies. As a result, he and the thousands under his command had to sit and wait until the end of July before they could begin moving upriver to the next staging point, a little Mexican town called Camargo.

By September, although it was necessary to leave a number of troops behind in Camargo, Taylor managed to march a large force to Monterey and lay siege to that city. The fighting was fierce. In the end, it came down to hand-to-hand combat in the city streets. But again, the American army was victorious after the Mexican forces agreed to a capitulation, the terms of which were criticized in the U.S.

During August and September 1846, a second force, made up largely of volunteers, was assembled at San Antonio de Bexar, Texas, under command of General John E. Wool. By the beginning of October, they were on the march into Mexico, to link up with Taylor in Chihuahua.

"Disease killed more men than bullets. This was due mainly to unsanitary camp conditions, the result of the ignorance of men who had no idea how disease was spread. At the U.S. army encampment at Camargo, in northern Mexico, conditions were especially bad. Camped in a dry, dusty valley along the banks of the San Juan River - the same source of water the men used for drinking, cooking, and bathing, illness ran rampant with dysentery, measles and other assorted ailments taking hundreds of young men to early graves in the chaparral, buried in shallow graves, shrouded in their blankets."

"Niles' National Register for July 11, 1846 listed the garments volunteers required for service in the army:

1 Dress Cap	2 Flannel Shirts
1 Forage Cap(glazed silk)	2 Pair drawers
1 Uniform Coat	4 Pairs Bootees
1 Woolen Jacket	4 Pairs socks
3 Pr. Woolen Overalls	1 Leather or Silk stock.
1 Cotton Jacket	1 Fatigue Frock (Lin.)
1 Pr. Cotton Overalls	1 Blanket

9th ALABAMA CAVALRY REGIMENT

The Ninth Alabama Cavalry Regiment (designated Seventh Alabama Cavalry Regiment until 5 September 1864) was formed near Tullahoma, Tennessee in May 1863, by consolidating John C. Malone's Fourteenth and Zachariah Thomason's Nineteenth cavalry battalions, partisan rangers. The men and officers of the regiment were recruited from the counties of Cherokee, DeKalb, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Limestone, Madison, and Morgan. The former had organized in September 1862 and served in the brigades successively of Generals John T. Morgan and J. A. Wharton, fighting at Murfreesboro. The regiment was in Wheeler's corps during the entire war. It first served in Wharton's Brigade until December 1863, and was in many skirmishes. It was brigaded with the First, Third, Fourth, and Fifty-first Alabama cavalry regiments, first under Gen'l J. T. Morgan, Russell, W. W. Allen and Hagan, and was constantly engaged in skirmishing. It suffered severely at Shelbyville, and it was involved in the Tennessee campaign, protecting Longstreet's corps. It was in pursuit of Union General William T. Sherman, with other portions of Wheeler's cavalry, during 1864 and 1865, and a remnant, about 100, finally surrendered in North Carolina with the Army of Tennessee. The 9th Regiment, Alabama Cavalry was formed near Tullahoma, in May 1863 by consolidating Malone's Twelfth and Thomason's Fourteenth battalions. The former had organized in September 1862, and served in the brigades successively of Gen'l's J. T. Morgan and J. A. Wharton, fighting at Murfreesboro. The regiment served with Wharton's brigade till December 1863, operating in the vicinity of the Army of Tennessee, and taking part, with some loss, in numerous skirmishes. Brigaded with the First, Third, Fourth, and Fifty-first Alabama cavalry, first under Gen. J. T. Morgan, afterwards under Generals Allen and Hagan, the Ninth was in the battle of Shelbyville with much loss, in the severe and bloody campaign in Tennessee with Longstreet's corps, and in many conflicts in front of the main army. During the Dalton-Atlanta campaign, the Ninth was continually at the exposed points, losing severely in a number of instances. With other portions of Wheeler's cavalry, the regiment followed Sherman eastward, and a remnant surrendered in North Carolina.

"Manoah Bostick Hampton was born 25 June 1799 in Stokes County, NC. He married Cynthia Mitchell (24 Jun 1795-21 May 1853) on 28 February 1822 in Stokes County, daughter of Andrew Mitchell and Sarah "Sally" Snoddy. Manoah and Cynthia followed in the footsteps of many of our Scots/Irish families. They moved from the Carolinas into lower Tennessee and North Alabama, together or following each other. It surely had to do with the Indians being removed. In 1830, Congress passed the Indian Removal Act. During this time, the US government constructed forts all through North Alabama and Southern TN, and there is a Hampton Fort in north AL. In 1835, the Indians agreed to move beyond the Mississippi River. By 1840, all of the Eastern tribes had been subdued... as in the "Trial of Tears." By 1835 Manoah and Cynthia are in Huntsville, AL, where he acquires at least 200 acres of land and was a farmer. Manoah died 16 February 1858, and Cynthia died 21 May 1853.

Cousin Betty Bostwick, who has the portraits of Manoah and Cynthia Mitchell Hampton, visited their graves and obtained affidavits regarding the inscriptions on their tombstones: "

"Dr. John Placebo Hampton (1825-1907) was a physician in Madison County, AL He married 3 times, and lived a long and useful life. I have been in contact with a descendant of Dr. Hampton, who provided some wonderful family stories and photos (one of John P. Hampton provided below).

From "The Confederate Veteran" Dr. John P. Hampton, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Huntsville, Alabama, fell asleep on June 8, 1907. Dr. Hampton was born in Lawrence County, AL, January 22, 1825. He graduated from LaGrange Military Academy. He moved to Monroe (now Clay) County, Miss, and while engaged in farming there he studied medicine under Dr. Clapp, graduating from the Pennsylvania Medical College in 1850.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he entered the Confederate army as a private. He organized a company of infantry and was elected its captain. This became Company F, of the 43rd Mississippi Regiment, under Col. William H. Moore. He was in all of the battles fought by that regiment up until Franklin, Tenn., November 30, 1864, where he was severely wounded, losing his right foot, and he was made a prisoner. He was kindly cared for by Mrs. John McGavock, and while there, wounded and a prisoner, a lady cousin of his came, prepared to help him escape; but he refused to accept his freedom because his escape would have caused the removal of the other prisoners, many of whom were in such a critical condition that moving them would have been certain death.

From the McGavock home he was carried to Nashville (where he received many kindnesses from Father Ryan), and from there to Camp Chase, Ohio, where he was still imprisoned when the war closed. He was made major just before the battle of Franklin, but was wounded and taken prisoner before receiving his commission. He was acting as lieutenant colonel in that desperate charge between the railroad and the pike.

After the war Dr. Hampton with several others contributed several hundred dollars toward the expense of conveying and removing the Confederate dead from the battlefield to the McGavock Cemetery. In 1872 he removed with his family to Madison County, Ala., where he continued to reside until his death. He first married Miss Amanda Evans of Monroe County, Miss., who lived only a few years. His second wife was Mrs. Susan A. Burt, of Lowndes County, Miss., who died in 1856, leaving three children: John M. and William Burt Hampton and Madison County, Ala., and P.H. Hampton, now residing in Lincoln County, TN. In 1868 he married Miss Mary T. Battle (a cousin) of Madison County, Ala, who died in May 1884, leaving no children.

Dr. Hampton's grandfather, Samuel Hampton, who fought for American Independence, and Gen. Wade Hampton, of Revolutionary fame, were descendants of Sir John Hampton, from whom Hampton Roads receives its name. Dr. Hampton had in his possession several bonds of the State of North Carolina issued in 1780, which were given to his grandfather for services in the Continental army and which were never redeemed.

His was a life as full of useful deeds and active good as it was of honorable years. He was a man who in all the relations of life gave his fellow-man an example of the ideal citizen. He always promptly answered the call of duty, bravely met the responsibilities of life and faithfully discharged them. He was not only a man of convictions but courage, yet was ever considerate of the opinions of those who differed from him. He was loyal to his Church, faithful to his country, true to his friends, obliging to his neighbors, devoted and tenderly affectionate in his family, and had lived, as he died, a consistent Christian. For fifty years he was deacon in the Baptist Church, and for twenty-one years he was Moderator of the Liberty Baptist Association. Twice he represented Madison County in the Legislature. He was a zealous Mason, for years serving his lodge as Worshipful Master. He was also interested in agriculture, and was President of the old Farmers' Club of Madison County, and under his wise leadership his county for many ears won the first prize in the State fairs.

The last seventeen years of his life were devoted almost exclusively to the service of his Church and the people of his county and State. He was intensely interested in the cause of education, and accomplished much in that line. He was a devoted Confederate and a member of the Egbert Jones Camp at Huntsville, and a faithful friend and subscriber to the Confederate Veteran from its infancy."

She married BENJAMIN LEAVELL Jul 14, 1807 in Miami Co, OH. He was born Jul 17, 1781 in Culpepper Co, VA, and died 1860 in Piqua, Miami Co, OH.

Notes for BENJAMIN LEAVELL:

Copied from Harbaugh's 1909 History of Miami County Ohio, Chapter 22

"As early as 1805 Benjamin Leavell, a millwright, came to Piqua and engaged in his business. It was the first milling done in this part of the country. The first manufacture of linseed oil, a business which has given Piqua a name everywhere, was engaged in by John McCorkle of that city in 1824. The McCorkle mill was run by water power, and the crusher was a large circular block of limestone. Notwithstanding Mr. McCorkle's industry his primitive machinery proved a serious drawback and there was but a limited demand for his output, owing no doubt to this handicaps an other parts of the county little flour mills sprang up and proved a great benefit to the inhabitants. As most of these were operated by water power they were to be found along streams. Their machinery was of the simplest description, built by the hands that had erected the pioneer cabins or guided the first emigrant teams over the mountains."

Ben was a merchant in early Piqua and the first millwright in the county; by 1808 his was one of seven long houses in Miami County on Water Street east of the canal. A "B. Level" laid out Defiance, the county seat of Defiance Co. OH, in 1822. He took out a license to marry Martha McCorkle in Dayton, Ohio. The McCorkles came to Miami Co. in 1806. He married MARTHA MCCORKLE July 14, 1807 in Miami County, Ohio, daughter of JOSEPH MCCORKLE and MARGARET SNODDY. Their marriage was one of the first in the county. She was born February 22, 1788 in Fayette County, Kentucky, and died March 13, 1868 in Miami County, Ohio.

Defiance, Ohio, was laid out in November of 1822 by Benjamin Leavell and Horatio G. Phillips. Ben became a resident and was its innkeeper; he also kept the first store for white settlers, located on the banks of the Maumee, at the foot of Jefferson Street. His home was the first frame building in the village, a 1 1/2 story built in December 1822 on the NW corner of Jefferson & Water St. It was opposite the fort grounds. He was elected commissioner in 1824. The court granted him license to vend merchandise at his home in Defiance for one year on 8 May 1824 for $10 fee. He resigned by October 1825, and returned with his family to Piqua, Ohio. --from HISTORY OF DEFIANCE COUNTY, OHIO, containing a history of the county; its townships, towns, etc.; military record; portraits of early settlers and prominent men; farm view; personal reminiscences, etc. (1883) Chicago: Warner, Beers

Their marriage was celebrated as the first in the county. He was the first millwright in Miami County. By 1808, his was one of seven log houses in Miami County on Water Street, east of the canal. A "B. Level" laid out Defiance, the county seat of Defiance County, in 1822.

"Benjamin Leavell was a carpenter by trade, and did most of the building of the log cabins of the new town. He was born July 17, 1781, in Culpepper County, Virginia, and came to Piqua in 1805 where he built a cabin on what is now the south-west corner of Main and Water streets. In the fall of 1807, he married Martha McCorkle, whose father and family had located just below town in 1805. This is said to have been the first wedding in Miami County. He was the first treasurer of Washington Township, and also served as Quartermaster in the war of 1812. In 1825 he moved to Williams County, where in connection with H. G. Philips, of Dayton, established the town of Defiance. He was one of the Associate Judges of Williams County for several years, and also laid out the town of Napoleon. In 1831 he came back to Piqua and built a tavern on the east side of Main street, between Greene and North. After several years of this business he retired and built a fine residence on Wayne street afterward owned by Dr. W. S. Parker. Here he died in 1860, honored and loved by the citizens of the whole town."--THE FIRST CENTURY OF PIQUA, OHIO, page 16

"Leavell's Inn was on the east side of Main, about half way between Greene and North, and was built by Benj. Leavell in 1831."--THE FIRST CENTURY OF PIQUA, OHIO, page 220.

Notes for JANE ?:

Obit: The Brookville Democrat, dated: Thursday, September 3, 1903. At about four o'clock Friday morning, August 7, 1903, just as another day was beginning for the living, at the wee small hour when natural sleep seems so restful, there came the Death Angel to this home and kissed away the dear mother so sweetly and so calmly that those who were at her side hardly knew the moment the last breath was drawn. Mary J. Snoddy, daughter of Ephriam and Catharine Bennett, was born in Lebanon, Ohio, August 28, 1832, and died at her home near Whitcomb, August 7, 1903, aged 70 years, 11 months and 21 days. She was married to John Snoddy, Sept. 2, 1857. To them were born seven children, two of whom are dead. Three daughters, two sons and eleven grand-children are left to mourn the loss of mother and grandmother. When two and one-half years old she moved with her parents to the farm where she died. With the exception of a few years her entire life was spent in this community. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church, joining a number of years ago. She learned then of the sweet promises of Jesus and ever confided in his mercies and has been faithful and true in her devotion unto him. She was bereft of her husband on March 24, 1902, since which time she has been cared for by her children. She has been in poor health for nearly four years, but was able to attend to her household duties until her husband's death, when her afflictions gradually grew worse and her family realized she would soon be called away. She bore her sufferings patiently to the end, and would often say she was ready to go. Pluming her wings as it were for the final flight to that blessed country where sickness and sorrow never come, God gave the call and she entered into rest forever. Mrs. Snoddy was a good neighbor, a loving mother and leaves a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The home circle is broken, mother's chair is vacant, mother's song is hushed, but her example and works are with us today. [Obit provided by Marvin D. Snoddy, Nashville, TN]

He married ELIZABETH ANN STEELE Jan 25, 1838 in IN, daughter of JAMES STEELE and ANNA JOHNSTON. She was born Aug 09, 1816 in Knox Co, IN, and died Oct 26, 1889 in Davis, IA.

Notes for MARTIN ARMSTRONG SNODDY:

Obit: From Bloomfield Democrat newspaper, Bloomfield, Iowa, Davis County - Martin Snoddy died Wednesday, September 30, 1896 at the advanced age of 87 years, 11 months and 2 days. He had been in feeble health for some time and his death was due to old age. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. F. Laidley at the residence of John Snoddy, Thursday, October 1, and the remains were interred in the south cemetery. Mr. Snoddy was one of the pioneer settlers of Bloomfield and Davis county, and had lived here during all the growth and progress of the community, and we believe he was mayor of the city, in its early history. He was a respected citizen and his absence will be felt and mourned by those who knew the many good qualities of his character. His quiet life precluded an enlarged acquaintance, but one who conversed with him could not fail to discern his rugged sense of right and justice. (Obituary provided by Marvin D. Jane Shields was a sister to "my" Joseph Shields, his son was James Madison Shields and his son was my grandfather, Grover Cleveland Shields. Jane's parents were: Willam Shields b. (1760-70) d. August 4 or 5, 1839 m. abt. 1790-92 to Nancy Elizabeth Nash. William is listed for the first time on Bourbon Co. KY tax records in 1793 with one mare horse and one cow. They lived in Paris, KY from about 1790s to 1826. They left Paris due to a problem they had with one of their sons being found not guilty of murder and later being murdered. I guess they felt uneasy in that town after that.

The land that James Hamilton lived on nearly all of his life came from his step-father Henry Houdeshell who received that land by a land grant from North Carolina on 17-APR-1786. Persons who had arrived in that area of what was then North Carolina prior to 1783 and who had helped defend against Indians could receive a land grant of 640 acres. Notes for RUFUS SNODDY:

"History of Craighead County, Arkansas"

Page 174 - "Deed records show that William Lamb of Lawrence County, entered 160 acres which ran south of the present Matthews Avenue to the present Nettleton Avenue, and west from Culberhouse street to the line dividing the Love property where the Children's Playground is now located. Lamb acquired title to the land from the government sometime between 1825 and 1830, the record being lost in the fire of 1869. This land was conveyed from Lamb to Rufus Snoddy at an early date, and was the old homeplace of the Snoddy's for many years, Rufus having settled there in 1830, when the Indians were living in the woods around him. When the record was destroyed by fire, Captain M. A. Adair made affidavit, which is of record, that he was here in 1856, and knew that Snoddy had purchased the land from Lamb prior to that time. Rufus Snoddy died in the spring of 1858 or fall of 1857, according to the affidavit, and Fergus Snoddy secured deed for the property from his sisters, Mrs. John Nicholas and Mrs. Mary Holden in May 1859, after his father died. Hence, Fergus Snoddy, about the time Jonesboro was created, owned 480 acres of the finest property in what is now the present heart of Jonesboro."

Page 375 - "The second settlement in what is now Craighead County, was started when Rufus Snoddy settled in what in now West Jonesboro in 1830. His hunting partner, Daniel O'Guinn, arried in 1836 and settled a few miles north of Snoddy. The Snoddy family remained in this locality for many years, and 29 years after Rufus settled, his son Fergus donated fifteen acres for the town site of Jonesboro. The first sale of town lots for the town of Jonesboro took place September 5, 1859."

Page 382 - The First Families of Craighead: "Rufus Snoddy, a native of Tennessee, came to what is now Craighead County in 1830 and bought eighty acres of land between the present Matthews and Nettleton and Culberhouse and Floyd Street from a soldier of the War of 1812, who secured the land by bounty warrant. The Snoddy home stood at a point between Cherry and Nettleton and Culberhouse and Walnut Streets. At the time he settled there, Indians lived in the woods to the south and west of his farm, and he often hunted with them, being away for long intervals with hunting bands in the fall and winter months. Rufus died during the latter part of 1857 or early in 1858, leaving three children, his wife having died sometime prior to his death. Prior to coming into the county Rufus and his brother, Alanson ("Latt") Snoddy, had resided in what is now Poinsett County as early as 1823. "

Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Northeast Arkansas, compiled by Mrs. Leister Presley Searcy, Arkansas:

Page 312 - "Entrance into the territory composing Craighead County began about the year 1830, and among the first settlers was a Mr. Martin, who chose a location some five miles south of the present site of Jonesboro. He was probably the first permanent resident. Other very early settlers were Rufus SNODDY, Daniel O'Guinne, Yancey Broadaway and Joshua Gringer."

1834 - Was in Lawrence County, AR

1839 - Was in Poinsett County, AR

1840 Arkansas Census shows Rufus Snoddy in Poinsett County, Maumelle Township. There is an "A. Snoddy" also listed, this is probably Rufus' half-brother, Alanson Snoddy.

The wonderful forest section of primitive days thrilled her as it had her brothers, and she decided to remain here and carry on, even though her husband was dead. At that time Indians were in the section, and all the Indian hunters were friends of her brother, Rufus, the noted hunter. She remained for sometime at the place where her husband first located, but later went to Maumelle Prairie and settled near her brother, Alanson (Latt) Snoddy." Martha (Bates) Snoddy	2

Information below from Wanda (Family68@aol.com) on July 25, 2003:

"In 1860 census, William and J.W. whose last name is Holt but Susan showed them as Snoddy. Also in the household is 2 Snoddy children, Mary Emily Salome, and M. Susan who is 2 years old. Also in the household is a 20 year-old hired hand, Perry Bates.

In 1870 Sarah and several children are still living in White Oak Township. One is James 15y old who is a Holt, 2 Snoddy Girls, Mary Emily Salome and Susan and 3 children Richard 8y old, Emeline 5y and Martha who is 2y old. The last 3 have the Snoddy name on the census record.

A couple of years ago a great great grandson of Salome Snoddy communicated with me and he sorted out the children for me. He said that his Great Grandmother lived to be 97y old. She said that Sarah Snoddy had 3 children by Perry Bates the hired hand. He said those children went by the Bates names but when Martha married she used the Snoddy name. Sarah never married Perry Bates. I have not found him after the 1860 census.

Susan Snoddy and James Bass had 3 children:

1. Mary Ellen Bass b. Sept 17, 1878 d. July 02, 1976
2. Robert Elmer Bass b. Sept 07, 1880 d. October 13, 1968 married Mary Ellender Stutchman April 23, 1905 in Franklin.
3. Dinah Bass b. Feb. 16, 1883 d. July 15, 1966 married William Virgil Hogan Feb. 26, 1905 in Franklin.

Arlene comes from the Mary Ellen Bass line. Arlene's Father was Arley Bass. Most likely the Father of Arley was William Virgil Hogan, but Mary did not marry him, her Sister Dinah married him. Researching has been very hard not knowing for sure the Father of Arley. Arlene is beginning to ask people in Ozark if they know anything about this, and maybe we will eventually get the information we need. Mary Ellen Bass married Robert Greeson, March 20, 1905 and had a daughter Grace who married Elbert Staton.

Dear Cousins

It is fearful to acknowledge that I am unable to be on the battlefield today, but having been wounded by a shell, I think sufficient apologies _____. Our brigade suffered considerable and our regiment perhaps more than any others, we taken 530 men in the fight and have only 120 for duty, from this you may conclude that our killed and wounded was numerous, especially our wounded and skedadless, but I was proud there was but few others could not only admitting the fact that it was serious enough = early Wednesday morning _____ Hardee's division engaged them in the left and after driving them almost out of hearing, it became necessary for the _____ to try their hand. So Withers Division composing the first line, they of course stepped in with Cheatham to support them. Chalmers brag Mississippi brigade said that Tennesseans should have nothing to do with the fight, that they were going to whip them _____ they made the attack but did not fight more than 15 minutes before they run, in fact, the 21st regiment everyone skidadled or mostly so. It seemed they charged the enemy but did not move them from their first position. Our brigade taken their place and suffered considerable, but we made them get farther, I was just in the act of shooting when a shell tumbled _____ my _____ of course I did not go any farther _____ we then chased on the Yanks and their batteries. We drove them some two miles taking several batteries and the victory was ours, but the thing is not decided yet. I hope that we will satisfy = the boy's wounds are mostly slight but few _____. I have a great deal to tell you but as we have to move in a few minutes, I will have to close, give my love to all and write soon. I think I will be able to go to the battlefield before long, although my wound is very sore, my hip is hurt considerable, but I can walk about some.

Truly yours

Cousin David S. George

Note from Marvin D. Snoddy: ("I understand that John went to Mexico after his brother, William's, death and picked up a money belt that was very heavy with gold, and brought it back to Lincoln County to his father, David. No one every told me why William had all that gold with him. I also understand that it took John several months to go get the gold and had to dodge all kinds of highwaymen on his trip.")

Here are a couple statements by Walter Gardner SNODDY that were sent to Mrs. Margrethe D. WATSON and in turn were sent to me in the early sixties. (Marvin D. Snoddy)

1. John A. Snoddy was not in the Civil War, he was drafted to make shoes for the Army, and that is the way he spent his time.

2. Spent his entire life in Lincoln County, except for two trips, one was to Texas, and one to Mexico. The trip to Mexico was for the purpose of seeing after his brother's (William) estate. William died in Mexico. I have heard my father tell of his return to the United States with two thousand dollars (in gold) in a belt about his waist.

"Carol,

Are you aware of the lawsuit where Thomas White sued John Snody over two hogs in November 1870, in Lincoln County, Tennessee?

I am not quite sure what happened, but I think Thomas borrowed some money from John, and when the loan was not paid in a timely fashion, John took the hogs.

In order to cover the court costs, Thomas mortgaged the land left him and his wife by his mother-in-law, Lucinda White, yes, Thomas White married Matilda White. When Thomas was unable to repay the mortgage, the land was lost. Lucinda was one of the early settlers of Lincoln County. She and her husband, who was killed in 1814, cleared the land and Lucinda raised her children there, by herself, and lived on the land until her death in 1859.

Lucinda was my gggg-grandmother, and I have always felt sad that her land was lost in a fight over two hogs."

William's son David was born in Tennessee in 1786. I think Samuel moved there with his family a short time after William was born. My brother could tell you more about that. He may have record of William's brothers and sisters if there were any. Below is a letter from Jesse to Pleasant Snoddy, dated Dec 20, 1858.

December 20th, 1858 - Tennessee, Lincoln County

Dear Brothers and Sister -

I sit myself this morning to write you a few lines to let you know how we are getting along. We are all tolerably well at present. I was over at your Ma's this week, they were all about them. I suppose you have heard of the death of your Father. He died the 18th of November. He had been lingering ever since you left. It was the Lord's will to take him away. He is done with his trials and crosses of this world. He has gone to reap the reward that our kind and all-wise Father has promised for them that serve him. We all must go sooner or later, and if we can be prepared for death, all will be well with us. We feel satisfied that he is gone to rest; he said that the Lord put him here and would take him away and take care of him. Brothers, live humble and try to meet him again when parting is no more, your father made a will, he wanted you _____ to stay there on the place as _____ and Price to stay with her and the negroes to be hired out. We have gotten several letters from you. Pleas [Pleasant] wrote that he was going to California. I do not like to advise anybody, but I do not want you to go and not only me, but all the rest of yours is not satisfied, we want you to come back. Your Pa's land will have to be rented out and I think you would make as much here as anywhere. Every-thing that we make here is a good price. Pork $____ and 5 ½ everything is high and people say that there is more money in this county now than there has ever been. Pleas [Pleasant], your Ma, I think wants you to come back very bad and I think you ought to come, she is so lonesome. I am settled for a while. I have bought land, we all tried to sell ours together, but we could not. And the girls and Milton is gone to Texas. I must soon come to a close. I never wrote what was the matter with your Father. It was his liver, enlargement of the liver. So the doctors say he suffered a great deal. I want you to write as soon as this comes to hand. I hope these few lines will find you in good health. Blessings of our heavenly, nothing more at the present.

Respectfully,

Jesse W. Parks

Notes for ADELIA "DELIA" FRANCIS CRAWFORD:

Delia F. Snoddy, widow of Pleasant Snoddy: In 1915, Delia resided near Kelso, TN (P.O. Box, Kelso, Rt 1). She had lived in the state all her life (born: Oct. of 1848 in Lincoln Co, TN. Her first husband was John Ashworth. They had three children: (1) John Edward Ashworth born May 12, 1869, (2) Talitah Elizabeth Ashworth born April 26, 1870, and (3) Clark Ashworth, born January 07, 1872. Her second husband, Pleasant, was also born in Lincoln Co. They were married on Oct. 2, 1879 by Esquire Isaac Hancock. Pleasant enlisted in Company H, Turney's First Tennessee Infantry in April of 1861. He served four years and after his company surrendered at Appomatox, VA on April 9, 1865, he was paroled from prison in March 1865. Pleasant died on June 10, 1900 in Lincoln Co, TN. They had six children, but only three survived -- two sons and a daughter. In 1915 Delia listed their ages as 31 (Henry), 28 (Jennie), and 24 (Almer). Pleasant and Delia had a 47-acre farm (worth around $1,000), 1 horse, and cattle (worth about $150), which according to Delia, did not provide a "fair" living. After Pleasant's death, Delia continued to live on the farm with her youngest son, who she stated "has been unable to work for the past five years."

Obit: Fayetteville Observer, Fayetteville, TN, April 22, 1926 - Last Thursday morning near Kelso, David Elmer Snoddy, aged 37 years, committed suicide. He and his mother, who has been bed-ridden for four years, lived together. As was his custom, he arose about 4:30 a.m. to feed his stock and went a half-mile out to Smithland Road taking along his double-barrel shotgun. He removed the shoe from his right foot, tied a fish line to the big toe and to the trigger of the gun; he then placed the muzzle in his mouth and fired the gun. It was loaded with No. 5 shot and a hole was blown in the right temple. He was found about 6:30. He was in the service during the world war for 11 months and went over the ocean. He has never received compensation from the government and his mother certainly needs it at this time. Funeral services were conducted at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Kelso by Rev. D. B. Smith, burial at the Snoddy graveyard.

Notes for PRICE MONTGOMERY SNODDY:

In the 1860 census of Lincoln Co, TN, Price is shown as a boarder and student living with his brother-in-law, David A. George. Price's sister, Julia, married David A. George in 1839 and they had a son, David S. George ca 1840-41. David A. George remarried ca 1848 and Price's father had also remarried; this suggests he didn't choose to live with his father and his new wife. (???)

RUSK STATE HOSPITAL. Rusk State Hospital for the mentally ill was opened in 1919 by the conversion of the Rusk Penitentiary building into a hospital for the care of the "Negro insane." During the first year of operation, some of the old penitentiary buildings were renovated, reconstructed, and converted into wards and hospital buildings, and 600 patients were admitted. Early in its history the institution included a general hospital for the care of the acutely sick, an infirmary for aged and decrepit cases, a tubercular hospital for the care of white men and women, and a tubercular hospital for black men and women. A chapel and recreational hall were later added. The institution operated its own garden, farms, hog ranch, and poultry farm, which supplied much of its needs. With a capacity of 2,426, the Rusk Hospital had an enrollment in 1946 of 2,308 patients. The average daily census of patients at Rusk State Hospital in 1964 was 1,942; by 1967, 1,886 patients were housed there, and a maximum-security unit for the criminally insane was a part of the facility. In 1970 Rusk State Hospital received accreditation by the Joint Commission on Hospital Accreditation and approval to receive Medicare and Medicaid benefits from the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. More and better-trained professional workers were added, and a student practicum program was instituted with Stephen F. Austin State University and North Texas State University. In 1970 the hospital served thirty counties in the East Texas-Gulf Coast area through eight units. The average daily census for 1970 was 1,796. Since 1972-73, when the hospital had a population of 1,950 patients, different methods of treating the mentally ill, which emphasize outpatient programs and deinstitutionalization, have resulted in reduced populations. In 1982-83 the hospital had 952 patients; in 1992, only 442. See also TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION.

Notes for ELIZABETH MARGARET SNODDY:

"Here is a note that I received over 40 years ago. The note was sent to me by Mrs. Jordan F. WATSON. This was probably 25 years before I found her marriage record in Bexar Co., TX.

"Elizabeth Margaret SNODDY moved to Texas with a bachelor uncle while a small child, married twice, first husband killed by Indians. Unknown what became of her after her second marriage." per William M. Snoddy of Rogersville, AL" Since then, we've found that it was her uncle Edwin Alexander.

(This information provided to me by Marvin D. Snoddy)

Margaret's bachelor uncle* is supposed to have come to Alabama and carried her back to Tennessee. Family stories say that she went to Texas with her uncle. There is an Eliza M. Snoddy who married an E. W. Bull in Bexar County, Texas on October 2, 1837. This is the right age to be William's daughter. The bachelor uncle was probably Edwin Alexander, her mother's youngest brother.

"Dear Carol,

I am interested in Wm Snoddy and Elizabeth Alexander's daughter Margaret. I believe she might be Pleasant Duke Alexander's wife. Margaret Alexander was born in 1814. I believe I have found information on her mother's line. I can't find Pleasant in that line. I can't seem to find information about her at all. What I read on your web sight would put her in Texas and might explain why I can't find any marriage between Snoddy and Alexander. Do you have any suggestions as to avenues I might pursue? Your information has certainly be helpful. I am headed to Texas later this week and want to use the resources that are available...if only I knew what I needed to use!!!

Thanks again for the website!

ALEXANDER et al. v. HOUGHTON et al.
Court of Civil Appeals of Texas.
June 13, 1894.

Appeal from district court, Runnels county; W. J. Wingate, Judge.
Trespass to try title by S.[Stephen] Alexander, Elizabeth A. [Alexander] Cawlfild, and John G. Cawlfild against John H. Houghton and John H. Robinson. From a judgment for defendants, plaintiffs appeal. Affirmed.

Action of trespass to try title, brought on the 15th day of February, 1892, by appellants, S. Alexander, Elizabeth A. Cawlfild, and John G. Cawlfild against appellees, John H. Houghton and John H. Robinson, to recover 640 acres of land patented to E. W. Bull on the 28th day of April, 1873, situated in Runnels county. Defendants, on the 7th day of March, 1892, filed a general denial and plea of not guilty; pleaded specially, claiming title to the land by five years' limitation; praying for judgment for the land. On the 22d day of October, 1892, plaintiffs filed their first supplemental petition, demurring to the answer, denying the same, and specially setting up the coverture of their mother, under whom they claim, in reply to the plea of limitation. The court, trying the case without a jury, rendered judgment for defendants, from which plaintiffs have appealed. The facts are as follows: E. W. Bull, the patentee of the land, died in 1838, leaving E. M. Bull, his widow, surviving him, who, six months after his death, gave birth to a child, which died at the age of six months, leaving its mother, E. M. Bull, its sole heir, and sole heir of E. W. Bull. E. M. Bull married again, in 1843, one Pleasant D. Alexander, of which marriage were born plaintiffs S. Alexander and Elizabeth A. Cawlfild. Other children were born of the marriage, but died in early infancy. Pleasant D. Alexander died January 25, 1883, and E. M. Alexander, the owner of the land, never married again, and died

January 16, 1891, leaving plaintiffs S. Alexander and E. A. Cawfield her sole heirs. Defendants read in evidence, over plaintiffs' objections, from the record of deeds of Runnels county, a deed by Sam Maverick to H. and W. H. Paddleford, conveying the E. W. Bull 640-acre survey, of date March 10, 1880, which was filed for record in Runnels county on March 22, 1883. The certificate of acknowledgment to the deed was as follows: "The State of Texas, Runnels County. Before me, Geo. W. Caldwell, a notary public in and for said county, on this day personally appeared Sam Maverick, to me well known to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and acknowledged to me that he executed the same for the purposes and considerations therein expressed. Given under my hand and seal of office this 5th of June, 1882. Geo. W. Caldwell, Notary Public, Bexar Co., Texas." Defendants read in evidence a deed by H. and W. H. Paddleford to A. H. Webb, conveying the land in controversy, of date May 29, 1884, filed for record in Runnels county on June 12, 1884 also, a deed of... Notes for PLEASANT DUKE "PLEAS" ALEXANDER:

Information below from Donnelly Johnson, (olddjohnson@juno.com):

"Pleasant Duke (P.D.) Alexander was born in Lincoln County, TN, 12 Nov 1810. After reaching manhood, P.D. moved to Alabama where he resided with an uncle some three or four years and he learned the trade of carpenter and millwright.

P. D. Alexander came to Texas in 1836 and located in Bastrop County. In 1843 he married Elizabeth M. Snoddy and they had four children.

According to {Annals of Travis County and the City of Austin by Frank Brown, 1898 - chapters 17-19, 1855-1859}, there were two surviving children of their union: Stephen Alexander of Hays County, TX, and Elizabeth A. Cawfield of Austin, TX.

P.D. went from Bastrop to Hays County in Sept. 1855, settling near Dripping Springs where he remained until his death, 25 Jan 1885. His wife Elizabeth died 16 Jan 1891.

In the General Land Office it is recorded that he was in the Republic of Texas prior to 1 Oct 1837. This conditional grant became unconditional 8 Sep 1845.

P.D. served in the Vasquez Campaign in the spring of 1842 under General Burleson."

From "Daughters of the Republic of Texas", page 6

"Pleasant Duke Alexander was born Nov 12, 1810, in Fayetteville, Lincoln Co, TN. Upon reaching manhood, he sojourned with an uncle in Alabama [Edwin Alexander] and learned the trades of carpenter and millwright. Records indicate that he came to Texas in 1836. As a single person, he received a grant of 640 acres of land in Bastrop Co. After three years of responsible citizenship, he received an "Unconditional Certificate" dated July 30, 1839. That certificate was marked "Cancelled" Sept. 8, 1845, by the General Land Office of the Republic of Texas, thus making him a land owner.

P.D. Alexander left no information concerning his family. Researchers in Tennessee failed to ascertain the names of his parents.

Marriages were not recorded in Bastrop in the 1840s. According to ages in the 1850 census, supposition is that P.D. Alexander married Margaret Elizabeth Snoddy (born Dec 3, 1815 in TN) about 1843. Of four children born to that marriage, only two survived; Stephen, about whom little is known; and Elizabeth, who married John Guy Cawfield in 1867. Elizabeth M. Cawfield (born Jan 26, 1849 in Bastrop) was the grandmother of Lucy Cawfield, who wrote this item.

In September 1855, the Alexander family moved to Hays Co, where P.D. Alexander purchased a tract of land near Dripping Springs. There he continued farming and stock raising. A five-room house with corner fireplace, which served three rooms, was built of stone quarried from the banks of the creek on the property.

Both P. D. and Margaret Alexander died in Hays Co. A few yards from their home, two rectangular tombstones in a small cemetery, enclosed by a designed iron fence, marked their graves with inscribed death dates.

Notes for THOMAS ARCHIE SNODDY:

In 1825, Thomas [Archie/Archibald?] was 2 years old (and his brother, David 1 year old) when they were assigned to a guardian, John Donahoo (their Aunt Mary Fuqua Donahoo's husband). Their mother remarried in 1830 to William T./F. Smith and left them with John and Mary Donahoo. They were ages 6 and 7 at that time. Later, when Thomas Archie and David were older, they were overseers for members of the Fuqua family. He is buried in the Ingram-Thornton Cemetery, near Rogersville, Lauderdale County, AL.

Notes for SARAH JOSEPHINE "PUSS" HARAWAY:

Obit: from The Florence Times of Florence, Alabama dated October 11, 1901. Sarah J. SNODDY, nee HARAWAY, was born October 27, 1933; coverted (sic) at Good Springs when young; joined the M. E. C. South, at Ross Chapel; married to Thomas A. SNODDY December 20, 1849. To this union were born eleven children, eight of whom still live.

Sister SNODDY has had the care of a large family since the death of her husband in December, 1878. She was a good woman. I have been her pastor five years. Her home was always open to the preacher. She was a regular attendant at church and Sunday school. She died of congestion, October 5th, 1901. Her sickness was of short duration, though she was ready, and said to Dr. PATE that she did not want to live longer.

The funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by Bro's. FULKS and PACE, and the body was then laid to rest in the Ingram graveyard, in the presence of a host of relatives and friends, to await the resurrection of the just. Children, relatives and friends, let your tears be tears of resignation; strive to meet her where there will be no more separation, disease or death. Her pastor, G. M. RANDLE

Hemphill, Elizabeth Snoddy 10/28/1818 5/26/1873 Wife of Cornelius Hemphill.

Hale County History Quarterly, May 1980

"Elizabeth and her younger brother came to Texas with her rich uncle, Edwin Alexander. He bought many leagues of land where San Antonio is now located. He was robbed and killed by Mexicans. Elizabeth and her brother were taken by friendly Mexicans to Bastrop."

Exerpt from newspaper article in the Bastrop Advertiser (Texas) by Ann Elizabeth Hemphill Burleson:

"My grandfather married after he settled in Texas. His bride was a Miss Elizabeth Snoddy, who had come to Texas from Mississippi. One of the interesting things about her was that she had a deed to the land which is now the site of the city of San Antonio. Somewhere along the way they were pursued by the Mexicans and in the haste and confusion the deed was lost and never recovered. Many years later Mrs. Sarah Jane Orgain told of boarding in their home and teaching school, and she said many times that she had never met a more refined or cultured gentlewoman than my grandmother."

Notes for CORNELIUS WILLIAM HEMPHILL:

Taken from a History of Texas, Lewis publishing Company's 1893 History of Texas: Biographical History of Milam, Williamson, Bastrop, Travis, Lee, and Burleson Counties.

C.W. HEMPHILL, a farmer of Bastrop County, was born on the farm where he still resides, September 28, 1848, a son of C.M. and Elizabeth (Snoddy) Hemphill, the former a native of Georgia, and the latter of Alabama. C.M. Hemphill came to Texas with his father and family in 1835. The latter, Colonel William Hemphill, settled on the Brazos river, and was accidentally killed soon afterward. He had a family of nine children viz: Zeno; M.L.; A.B.; W.A.; Ulysses; Andrew; C.M.; the father of our subject; Ellen, who married Captain Jack Nash; and Elolesa married M.O. Diamond, a merchant of Bastrop. Two of the children died before coming to Texas, and the remainder lived in this county until their death. In 1836 C.M. Hemphill, the father of our subject, located the farm where the latter now resides, was a member of the ranging service, and suffered the privations and hardships of a pioneer life. His farm of 800 acres was well improved, and his death occurred in 1862. He was married in 1845, and his wife survived him until 1874. She came to this state with an uncle, Edwin Alexander, who was robbed and killed by Mexicans. Mr. and Mrs Hemphill had seven children, viz: Margaret, who married W.S. Miller, is now deceased, leaving six children: C.W. our subject; Gillespie, a resident of the old homestead; Prudence, wife of W.B. Bryant, a farmer of Bastrop county; Tony E, still unmarried; Cuba, wife of Wade Hemphill, a distant relative; and R.L., at home. Gillespie, the second son, was married in December, 1873, to Miss Alice Bryant, a daughter of William Bryant, a native of Tennessee. The latter came to Texas in 1836, and, after several changes, located in Bastrop county, where he died about 1884. At one time he was a member of the ranging service with Captain Jack Hays. His five children were all born in this county, viz.: Sally, J.L., Jennie, W.B. and Alice. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie Hemphill have had seven children, six now living: Annie, Cora L., Nora B., Beulah A., Florence G., and Claud. They are members of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Notes for GREENBERRY T. SNODDY:

In 1850, Greenberry was found living with his mother, who had married Asa Moseley. Asa was farming in Williamson Co. IL. Frances had remarried and G.T. was shown to have listed step sister Luisa age 17, step-brother John H. age 16, and Martha H. age 14 years. G.T. Snoddy age was listed as 26. Amanda's family was a neighbor to the Moseley's. Amanda was only 13 or 14 years old when she married G.T. Snoddy. G.T.'s mother divorced Graham Snoddy before 1828, the date she took out a marriage bond to wed Asa Moseley in Wilson County, Tenn. G.T. continued to reside with his mother and the Moseley's continue to reside in TN for 6 years before moving to Owen County, KY. and they were in the 1840 Owen County, KY census prior to moving to Williamson County, Illinois where the remainder of the Moseley family members resided. The Snoddy family lived around the Crab Orchard and Shady Rest areas in Williamson County and they are mostly buried in the Coal Banks Cemetery in Crab Orchard Township. Greenberry was a popular name in the early 1800's. It is said that this given name was in honor of the Revolutionary War hero, General Nathan GREEN who served along with General Washington forces. Dear Cousins

It is fearful to acknowledge that I am unable to be on the battlefield today but having been wounded by a shell, I think sufficient apologies _____. Our brigade suffered considerable and our regiment perhaps more than any others, we taken 530 men in the fight and have only 120 for duty, from this you may conclude that our killed and wounded was numerous, especially our wounded and skedadless, but I was proud there was but few others could not only admitting the fact that it was _____ enough = early Wednesday morning _____ Hardees division engaged _____ and after

It became necessary for the _____ to try their hand. So Withers Division composing the first line, they of course stepped in with Cheatham to support them. Chalmers brag Mississippi brigade said that Tennesseans should have nothing to do with the fight, that they were going to whip them _____ they made the attest but _____ fight more than 15 minutes before they run, in fact, the 21st regiment everyone skidaddled or mostly so. It seemed they charged the enemy but did not move them from their first position. Our brigade taken their palesen? and suffered considerable, but we made them get farther, I was just in the act of shooting when a shell tumbled _____ my _____ of course I did not go any farther _____ and their batteries, we drove them some two miles taking several batteries and the victory was ours, but the thing is not decided yet. I hope that we will satisfy = the boy's wounds are mostly slight but few _____. I have a great deal to tell you but as we have to move in a few minutes, I will have to close, give my love to all and write soon. I think I will be able to go to the battlefield before long, although my wound is very sore, my hip is hurt considerable, but I can walk about some.

Truly yours

Cousin David S. George

79. MARY MITCHELL⁷ HAMPTON (*CYNTHIA "CINTHEY"*⁶ MITCHELL, *SARAH*⁵ SNODDY, *SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born Abt. 1823 in Stokes Co, NC, and died Feb 01, 1899 in Lincoln Co, MO. She married THOMAS FRANKLIN HOUSTON. He was born Jul 30, 1818 in Hunting Creek, Iredell Co, NC, and died Unknown.

Notes for THOMAS FRANKLIN HOUSTON:

The life of Col. Thos. F. Houston is recounted in the 1882 History of Pettis County, MO, portions of which reads:

“He laid out the town of Houstonia. His early youth was spent in acquiring an education, and assisting his father in the duties of the plantation. When about twenty years of age he began the study of law under the tuition of Gen. James Cook, of Mocksville, and afterwards with Hon. R.M. Pearson, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and was licensed to practice by the Supreme Court of the State in June, 1840. In 1845, he located in Leighton, Ala., where he was married that year to Miss Mary M. Hampton, a lady of culture and refinement. She is a native of North Carolina, but was raised in Alabama. In the autumn of 1848, he came west, locating where now stands the village of Bunceton, Cooper County, Mo. Here he continued farming until the spring of 1851, when he came to Pettis County, locating on his present farm. His original purchase was 920 acres, to which he subsequently added until he was in possession of a body of near 5,000 acres. Since his coming to this county Colonel H., has changed the appearance of this locality to a great extent, and in a few years the fruits of his industry were plainly visible. Broad fields of wheat and corn, to the extent of 3,000 acres, large herds of cattle, sheep and swine, could be seen where but a few years previous was barrenness and waste. His improvements were of a substantial as well as an extensive character. At the breaking out of the war, Col. Houston was a strong Union man, but on account of the policy adopted by the Federals, he became an earnest sympathizer with the Southern cause, and early in 1861, joined the Confederate corps under Capt. Robinson. Early in 1862, he was commissioned Lieut.- Colonel, to organize and drill a regiment, which he succeeded in doing, and was captured by the Federals when about ready to depart for the front. He was kept a prisoner, and was indicted by the United States Court, and kept under parole until 1865. When he returned home he again took up the peaceful pursuits of his business. That he has been identified with the development of the county, as well as the organization of society, are facts too widely known to admit of question. He was one of the founders of the Agricultural Society, and was chosen president and director, which offices he filled efficiently for many years. He, in fact, gave liberally of his time and means to its support. He organized and established the first school in this section, and has been an active worker for educational interests since. He was also one of the founders of the Houstonia Christian Church, and has been a liberal contributor since its organization. During the agitation of the railroad project the Colonel was elected a director of the Lexington & St. Louis R.R. Company. He was then elected vice-president, and later, president; which office he held until the road was transferred to the Missouri Pacific Railway Company. In the autumn of 1880, he was unanimously chosen by the Democratic Convention as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature, and was elected by a large majority, although he persistently refused the office. He has made an efficient and honorable Representative, and identified himself with measures which resulted to the advantage of his constituents. He has raised a family of five children: Frank, an attorney of Sedalia; Augustus Y., also a business man of Sedalia; Mary, wife of Jas. S. Napton; Elizabeth, who died in 1875, wife of John Napton; and Emma who resides with her parents.

She graduated from the State Normal School, Warrensburg, MO; Episcopalian; married in White Sulphur Springs, Montana, July 21, 1894, James Theodore Wood (born Quincy, Ill, Feb 4, 1865; son of Daniel Carl Wood and Janet Abernathy. He was a banker in Helena, Montana. This information provided by Dr. Justin Glenn. I find them still in Montana up until Mr. Wood's death in March, 1935. Emma apparently then moved to California, I am assuming to be near her children or her sister Cynthia.

They had two children:

- 1) Mary J. Wood (ca born 1894) married C. A. Linn
- 2) James T. Wood, Jr., (born 3 Aug 1895) married and apparently had a son James T. Wood, III.

There are mentions of them in the Helena Independent, The (Helena, Montana):

August 6, 1928: "Mrs. James T. Wood left for California, called there by the death of her brother-in-law, Arthur Sias."

May 1, 1931: Mrs. James T. Wood and Mrs. C. A. Linn, issued invitations for two joint social gatherings, held Thursday afternoon and Friday evening. Thurs. afternoon was a bridge luncheon and Friday evening a bridge dinner. Both the luncheon and the dinner were served in the tea room of the Public Drug. Mrs. G. K. Spencer assisted at the Thurs afternoon entertainment."

November 15, 1931: "Mrs. James T. Wood and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Linn, are visiting in Helena."

June 16, 1931: "Mr. and Mrs. James T. Wood left Tuesday morning for Butte. Before returning they will also visit Great Falls."

March 30, 1935: "Pioneer Banker of Montana Hears Call" OBITUARY: March 30, 1935: "PIONEER BANKER OF MONTANA HEARS CALL. White Sulphur Springs, March 29. James T. Wood, 70, one of Montana's pioneer bankers died suddenly at his home here. He apparently was the victim of a heart attack. Coming to Montana in 1884 from Quincy, Ill., Mr. Wood had been identified with the First National bank of this place from the year following his arrival until the present time. Most of the period he was its president. At one time he was state senator from Meagher county and always was actively identified with the business and civic life of the region. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. T.M. Hampton of Helena and two children, Mrs. C.A. Linn of White Sulphur Springs and J.T. Wood, Jr. of California.

September 13, 1940: "Mrs. James T. Wood of Pasadena arrived here last week to visit friends and relatives for several weeks. Mrs. Wood was a former resident of White Sulphur Spring."

From John Hale Stutesman's book on the Snoddys: A letter to Samuel B. Judah, November 15, 1901

Mr. Samuel B. Judah
Vincennes, Indiana

Dear Sir:

My sister, Mrs. Stutesman, asked me to copy any articles that might interest you among the fragmentary bits found among Grandmother Hars' belongs (that) escaped the fire that caught most of her papers.

In an old stained notebook of hers I find a few notes in ink almost faded from sight concerning the Snoddy family. These notes have been made evidently on the occasion of Mrs. Hars' visit to relatives in Ohio, late in life.

Very truly yours,

May L. Dodds

Notes for ALEXANDER ABSALOM SNODDY:

Obit: Danville Courier, IN - September 17, 1903, page 8, column 4: Alexander A. Snoddy, son of Absolom and Irene Jones Snoddy, was born December 28, 1844, on a farm in Franklin township owned at the time by his father and still remaining as the property of some of the relatives. He died September 8, 1903, at the age of fifty-eight years, eight months and ten days.

His early life was spent on the farm, taking advantage of the opportunities offered for an education. He was left without a mother when he was three years old. The care of him fell to his sister, Silva. She cared for him as only a sister can when the mother is gone. She ministered to his wants all along his earthly pilgrimage. It was at her home and from her hands that he received the kindest of treatment during the last six months of severe sickness which was borne by him with such great patience the like of which can scarcely be found among the suffering anywhere.

Alexander Snoddy loved his country and in October 1862, before he was eighteen years of age, he enlisted in the Union army - Company B, 54th regiment. His regiment left Indianapolis December 9, for the battlefield without much military discipline. On December 27-29, he was in three days of battle near Vicksburg in which his regiment lost 264 men. On January 11, he was in the battle of Arkansas Post in which the regiment lost no men. On May 1, he was in the battle of Shafer's plantation which occurred without the loss of men to his regiment. During the battle of Jackson, Mississippi, which lasted three days, two of his company were killed. They were marched from Jackson to Vicksburg which was a severe task indeed as food was scarce. They were compelled to subsist largely upon roasting ears and to wade dust shoe-top deep. In the fall of 1863, he marched through Louisiana, 200 miles west of New Orleans and returned in November.

The winter of 1862-63 was spent at Young's Point, Louisiana. This was a distressing time, as many of the soldiers died there. They could be buried in shallow graves because of so much water in the earth. He was sick there and spent a portion of his time in the hospital. Indeed, many of the boys were sick and at times it was difficult to find enough well ones for guard duty. He was mustered out of the service on December 8, 1863, at New Orleans.

After coming home and remaining for a time, he felt constrained to return to the army. In August 1864, he re-enlisted in the 43rd regiment. During this last period, the service was not very severe. Yet, whoever spent time upon the field of war was injured more or less physically. Alexander enjoyed talking upon his army life and why not? Who has rendered his country better service than the one who took his gun upon his shoulder and marched in front of the cannon's mouth.

He was a good citizen -- honorable, upright and honest in all his dealings with men. If he owed a dollar, it was paid with 100 cents and not with 97 or 98 as many seek to do. He was a good neighbor, kind and possessed of jovial disposition. Such a trait of character is calculated to lighten the burden of those who came in contact with it. Thus, a life of nearly fifty-nine years which has been lived in this neighborhood ends.

He leaves a sister, Silva Masten, and a brother, James Snoddy, who lives in the far west, and many other relatives and a host of friends to mourn their loss. Funeral services were held at the residence of Fay and Cyrus Masten, Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. Tincher, of Stilesville, after which he was borne in a beautiful oak casket embanked with flowers to the old Snoddy cemetery, two miles east of Stilesville. [Obituary provided by Marvin D. Snoddy.]

Notes for BENJAMIN FRANKLIN SHATTUCK:

A History of Clay County, Indiana, page 373

Benjamin F. Shattuck was employed in agricultural pursuits in Vigo county until 1847, when he located in Clay county. He at first bought an estate on the National Road in Posey township and embarked in mercantile pursuits, opening a grocery. At that time, and for years after, emigrants going west traveled with teams, many passing over the National Road, and with them he carried on a thriving trade, also building up an extensive local trade. About 1857 he purchased land in Brazil township, and there carried on a prosperous business in general farming, stock raising and trading, continuing it until his death, June 14, 1871. The farm which he improved is now in the heart of the city of Brazil, and one of its school buildings occupies what was his door yard. Four church edifices now stand on land once included in his estate, he having donated the site for the German church and for the Christian church. The maiden name of his first wife, mother of Mrs. Anderson, was Tirzah Snoddy. She was born in Kentucky, a daughter of Fergus and Elizabeth Snoddy, and died June 25, 1851, in Clay county. He married for his second wife Maria James, who was born November 20, 1830, and died January 27, 1888. Of the children born of the first marriage of Mr. Shattuck, six grew to years of maturity and four are now living, as follows: (1) Artemicia, (2) Volney, (3) Mary E. and (4) Tirzah. (5) Elizabeth and (6) Martha have passed to the higher life. By his second marriage five children were born, James Frank, William Scott, Anna, Leila and Charles M.

She married URIAH BALDWIN Sep 04, 1848 in Hardin, OH, son of DANIEL BALDWIN and HANNAH WILLIAMS. He was born May 30, 1824 in Champaign Co, OH, and died Feb 08, 1905 in Champaign Co, OH.

Notes for URIAH BALDWIN:

(Information from Jan Smith, JMSFIJI@cs.com, April 2, 2000.) Daniel Baldwin (father) was born in Tennessee about 1795-1800. He migrated to Ohio as a very young man, (from the book, The History of Hardin Co) and married Hannah Williams 11-6-1817 In Champaign County, Ohio (documented in County files). They gave birth to Uriah Baldwin 5-30-1824, Champaign Co. Hannah died 10-8-1847 in Logan County, Ohio. Daniel and Hannah were living in Logan Co. 1830, and then, in 1835, moved to Hardin Co., Hale Township, onto land that was originally owned by Charles Allen. Daniel was a farmer, justice of the peace, and a judge during his lifetime. In 1840, they continued to live in Hardin Co., and Hannah died 1847. In 1860 Daniel moved to Liberty Township, Logan County and married Miss Unknown Steward. There are many Baldwin's in Ohio. I have run across Nathaniel, Walter, Henry, Enos, Anna, who were living in the immediate area of Mt. Victory, Ridgeway, Ohio, and Logan County. I have not been able to link them. I have not been able to find Daniel's birthdate, parents names, siblings names, birthplace in Tennessee, what year he migrated to Ohio, who was with him, or the specific route he took. I am still searching. Uriah Baldwin was born 6-30-1824, Champaign Co. I do not know if he had siblings. He was a pioneer in Hale Township and owned 122 acres of land which he farmed all of his life. The land was 2 miles west of Mt. Victory and he lived there for 64 years. I THINK he received the land as his pay for fighting in the Confederacy, 135th Regiment, O.V.I., in the Civil War. He married Hannah L. Snoddy 9-5-1848 in Hale Township. Apparently, Uriah was a very wealthy farmer. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. According to his newspaper obituary, which I have, he built the first house in the town of Ridgeway, and lived there 6 years before moving to the farm. This fact is disputed, as another man receives credit for the first house in the book, The History of Hardin Co. Uriah is buried in Hale Cemetery and his tombstone still stands. Uriah and Hannah had 7 children: Abner who married Mariah Richardson 5-24-1879, and were divorced at some time later. According to family history, Abner was an irresponsible man who couldn't care less about his wife and children (a real black sheep!). I do not have any information about the siblings except that 4 were still living at the time of Uriah's death 2-8-1905. At some point, Abner migrated across the US and settled in California. I do not know if other siblings or relatives were with him. Mariah was with him. They had several children: Lena Marie, Bd. 12-2-1882, D. 12-8-1960; Parker Pope, Bd. 7-18-1880, D. about 1943; Lulu, Bd. 4-17-1885; J. Clark Washington, Bd. 8-8-1890; George Washington, Bd. 1-31-1893, D. about 1972. There is also an Inez Baldwin and I have not been able to determine if she is a child of Uriah's or a sister. I have a letter from her to the family in California, 1905, notifying them of Uriah's death. All of Uriah's children were born in Ohio. Abner's migration was after his marriage to Mariah. Uriah's children scattered to California, Chicago, Hawaii, Louisiana, and Chile during their lifetimes.

Information from web site: <http://heritagepursuit.com/HarHale.htm>

URIAH BALDWIN, farmer, P. O. Mount Victory, was born in Champaign County, Ohio, May 30, 1824, and is a son of Daniel and Hannah Baldwin. His father, a farmer by occupation, was born in Tennessee, and his mother in Ohio, in which State they were married, settling in Champaign County, thence coming to Hardin County in 1835. Mrs. Baldwin died here October 8, 1847, and her husband subsequently married a Miss Steward and moved to Logan County, Ohio, where he died March 6, 1866, his widow following him January 17, 1883. The subject of this sketch chose farming for his occupation, and some years ago bought 122 acres of land, to which he has since added forty acres, and is now living on the farm. He was married, September 5, 1848 to Hannah L., daughter of Abner and Hannah Snoddy. She was born in Logan County, Ohio, December 5, 1827. This union has resulted in seven children, of whom five are living, viz., Joan (wife of A. T. Sponsler), Daniel, Abner, Dora Inez, Beulah and an infant (deceased). Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin also raised and educated an adopted daughter, who goes by the name of Nettie B. Baldwin. During the late war, Mr. Baldwin was in the 100 day service, in the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and was in several skirmishes. He lived for six years in Ridgeway, and built the first house in the place, but since then has resided on his farm. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Church. He has filled the offices of Assessor and Trustee of Hale Township for three years each.

Obit: Uriah Baldwin, whose serious illness was reported up to press time last Wednesday, yielded to that inevitable that evening (2/8/1905). By his death, Hale township and Hardin County lose one of their foremost pioneers. He was a man who came here before his teens and "has truly grown up with the county". History credits him with being the builder of the first house in Ridgeway. That house stood where the James Eaton residence now stands, on the west side of Main St. Mr. Baldwin and his family lived there for six years and then purchased a farm of 122 acres, two miles west of Mt. Victory. In later years he erected a fine brick residence on the farm on which he resided for 64 years. At times he added to his estate and lived to become one of the wealthiest farmers of the country. He was the son of Daniel and Hannah (Williams) Baldwin and was born in Champaign Co. 5/30/1824. In 1935, he moved with his parents to Hale Township, Hardin Co., where he resided until his death. He was united in marriage to Hannah L. SNODDY 9/5/1848. His wife died 1/13/1902. They had several children: Abner, Lena, Parker, Inez, George, Clark, Joan, Nettie, Daniel, Blanche, Beulah. Mr. Baldwin served in the Civil War (135th O.V.I.). He was a charter member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He will be buried in Hale Cemetery. (Obit provided by Jan Smith and Marvin D. Snoddy.)

Notes for IRA SNODDY:

Obit: from The Terre Haute Tribune of Terre Haute, Indiana dated Saturday, December 7, 1912, page 7. "IRA SNODDY, of Turner, Ends Life in Spectacular Manner at Brazil DRINKS POISON AND TELLS BOYS GOOD-BYE"

BRAZIL, Ind., Dec 7. - Ira SNODDY, aged 24 years, ended his life in a spectacular manner about 5 o'clock last evening, when he emptied the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid and, walking into the lobby of the Sheahan & Woodruff saloon, called to the bartender, Nuck BENNETT, to tell all the boys good-bye.

Patrolman CURETON, who was nearby and heard the remark, took hold of SNODDY, and he was rushed to a drug store near by for medical aid. When Officer CURETON grabbed him SNODDY said, "The world's against me, nobody cares for me. Don't tell my mother." As they walked SNODDY to the drug store he remarked, "They didn't give me the right stuff. It didn't do the work." He had no sooner said this than he began to grow weak and would have fallen to the pavement had he not been supported. Just as he was placed in a chair in the drug store, he expired.

A quarrel with a warm friend of his is said to have been one of the causes which led SNODDY to take his life. Some time ago he was injured in an accident at the Rosebud mine and had recently received several hundred dollars in settlement of his injuries. He is said to have squandered this money and remorse caused him to end his life. Several months ago SNODDY tried to commit suicide by taking laudanum. A brother tried suicide about a year ago by the carbolic acid route. The body was taken to the Daugherty & Leavitt morgue and prepared for burial and then taken to his home at Turner.

He is survived by a mother, two sisters and three brothers. The funeral will be held at the home Sunday afternoon. Interment at Williamstown cemetery. He was a member of the Brazil aerie of Eagles, and this order will have charge of the funeral. (Obituary provided by Marvin D. Snoddy)

Joseph W. Snoddy, who has lived in Montrose county, this state, since 1886, and on a ranch of forty acres on California mesa, eight and one-half miles from the town of Delta, since 1899, when he bought it, is a native of Indiana born on February 18, 1858. His parents were Burton and Elizabeth (Petit) Snoddy, the former born in Tennessee and the latter in Ohio. The father was a farmer and moved to Iowa in 1858, and to Coffey county, Kansas, in 1864. He continued his farming operations in all these places, dying in Kansas in 1869. The mother survived him two years and passed away in 1871, when her son Joseph was thirteen years old. Thereafter he made his home with a neighbor until he reached the age of twenty-eight years. He attended the public schools and acquired habits of useful industry and frugality on the farm. In 1886 he left Kansas and came to Montrose county, this state, where he has since had his home. He bought the place on which he lives in 1899 and at once settled on it and began to improve it. It comprises forty acres and in addition he farms some rented land, and is also working in the employ of a large sheep company. Although engaged in the cattle industry on his own account he has only a small herd of cattle, being too busy with other interests to give due attention to a large number. On his place he has a small orchard, but it is not extensive enough to bring him in much revenue. On August 6, 1889, he was united in marriage with Miss Stella Chrisman, who was born at Burlington, Kansas, on June 13, 1868, and is the daughter of John S. and Zelah (Ferguson) Chrisman, the father a native of Indiana and the mother of Ohio. The mother died about thirty years ago and the father in 1894, both passing away at Burlington, Kansas. Mr. Snoddy had four sisters and two brothers. All are dead but one brother. In the Snoddy family three children have been born, Ethel M., Zelah E. and Stella R. They are all living at home. While not an active partisan, or in any sense an aspirant for public office, Mr. Snoddy faithfully supports the Republicans in political affairs. In local matters he considers mainly the best interests of the community and aids materially in promoting them. He is regarded as a useful and valuable citizen and has the regard and good will of the people all around him.

I do remember that she had lived in, at that time, a brand new type of retirement home in Seattle. It was on the shore of Lake Washington and was a high-rise condo building. Notes for JAMES MADISON SNODDY, SR.:

By the time of James' second marriage to Catherine Bower, he was caring for his elderly father, Samuel. Several civil suits that were brought to court by Samuel against James and, later, by Catherine against Samuel's estate, suggest that this living arrangement was not without problems. Catherine sued for divorce in 1894. A few years later, in 1896, a suit was brought against John Francis Snoddy so he and two of his brothers, Daniel and Charles, moved to Illinois. James, Jr. eventually ended up in Bloomfield, Indiana. The divorce was never finalized, but James was living alone at the time the census was taken in 1900. In 1909, James applied for a military pension as a veteran of the Civil War. The pension was denied in 1910 because the information that James provided about his military experience could not be confirmed, and following the denial, James moved to Illinois to join his sons. He died there on March 5, 1922. His body was returned to Bloomington, Indiana, and buried in the Shields Cemetery beside his wife and three of his sons.

JAMES MADISON SNODDY was born in Monroe County, Indiana, on August 8, 1844. He was the youngest of several children born to Samuel and Jane (Shields) Snoddy, and he spent the majority of his life living in the Snoddy Schoolhouse District on what is now known as Snoddy Road.

On November 5, 1865, James married Margaret L. Payne. Together they had seven children: Samuel, 1866; John Francis, 1868; James Madison, 1870; Daniel W., 1871; Charles Robert, 1873; Sarah A., 1876; and Cora I., 1878.

The two youngest children, Sarah and Cora, died within a year or two of their birth, in 1877 and 1880, respectively. Margaret also died in 1880. Her cause of death was consumption.

Raising five young boys was no easy job. Consequently, James married again just a few months later in 1881. His new bride was Catherine Bower, the widow of Dominic Bower.

By the time of his second marriage, James was already caring for Samuel, his elderly father. Several civil suits that were brought to court by Samuel against James and, later, by Catherine against Samuel's estate, suggest that this living arrangement was not without problems.

Samuel, James' oldest son, died in 1890. Catherine in 1895. By 1896 three of the boys, John Francis, Daniel and Charles were living in Illinois. James, Jr. eventually ended up in Bloomfield, Indiana. At the time the census was taken in 1900, James was living alone.

In 1909 James applied for a military pension as a veteran of the Civil War. That pension was denied in 1910 because the information that James provided about his military experience could not be confirmed. And, following the denial, James moved to Illinois to join his sons.

He died there on March 5, 1922. His body was returned to Bloomington, and he was buried in the Shields Cemetery beside his wife and three of his children.

Page 385 - "Came here in 1837, as an Indian trader and spent many years on the waters of the St. Francis trafficking with the Indians, before settling in North Jonesboro, where he owned 160 acres of land many years before Jonesboro was laid out."

Page 382 - "John Nicholas, rugged character of the backwoods, was at that time an Indian trader on the St. Francis River. Nicholas left the Indian Village of Chillicataw (Kennett) in a pirogue heavily laden with goods to traffic with the aborigines. After passing Oldtown (Lake City) he proceeded down river to trade with the Indians of Maumelle. When his boat landed at Deep Landing at the edge of the prairie, and while he was opening his goods to show to the redmen, his eye fell upon a beautiful white maiden, who shyly observed him from a distance. It was a case of love at first sight. John Nicholas lost no time in meeting Amanda Snoddy at the home of her uncle (Rufus), and there he wooed her, and ultimately married her."

146. FERGUS/FURGUSON M.⁷ SNODDY (*RUFUS*⁶, *SAMUEL*⁵, *SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born 1827 in TN, and died Jul 15, 1887 in Craighead Co, AR. He married MARY JANE MATTIX Abt. 1848 in AR, daughter of EDWARD MATTIX and CHARITY ROBERTSON. She was born 1831 in Greene Co, AR, and died Unknown in Craighead Co, AR.

Notes for FERGUS/FURGUSON M. SNODDY:
"History of Craighead County, Arkansas":

Chapter 19, page 117: ..."Fergus Snoddy, who proposed giving fifteen acres to the County for said site, ... hence, it was through the generosity of Fergus Snoddy, son of the old pioneer Rufus Snoddy, that the county in its infancy was able to secure a town site as a free gift, and sufficient territory in the site was available for lot sale to secure funds with which to build the first court house."

Page 173 - "Fergus Snoddy, son of the pioneer Rufus Snoddy, had quite an acreage of land in and around what is now Jonesboro at the time the county was created. He had acquired most of it through the purchase of bounty warrants from soldiers who had served in the war of 1812. In December, 1853, he secured eighty acres in this manner. The land secured at that time began at the present Monroe street and ran north to the present railroad tracks. The eastern and western boundaries were from Church street to the present Culberhouse street. In Deed Record 8, page 82, the conveyance to Snoddy is outlined as follows: A deed from President Franklin Pierce of the United States was granted to Snoddy under a proclamation setting forth the fact that due to an Act passed by Congress September 28, 1850, granting land to certain officers and soldiers who had been engaged in military service of the United States, Warrant No. 24,792 for this eighty acres was issued in favor of Robert Strother, corporal in Captain Neely's Regiment, Second Tennessee Mounted Volunteers, in the War of 1812. This was assigned by Strothers to Fergus Snoddy in consideration of a cash payment, and, this fact being acknowledged, the president grant the land to Snoddy.

In 1858, Snoddy secured the land by bounty warrant purchased from another soldier of the War of 1812. This last named eighty was involved in litigation about thirty years later. This second eighty ran from Monroe to Matthews street to the south, and from Church street west of Culberhouse. In July, 1859, Soddy secured from the State of Arkansas, under the Swamp Land Grant of 1850, title to the north half of se qr, 13-14-3. Both these parcels of land joined his previous acreage, running parallel with same from Matthews street to the present railroad tracks, and west from Culberhouse to the present Floyd street."

Page 174 - "Fergus Snoddy, about the time Jonesboro was created, owned 480 acres of the finest property in what is now the present heart of Jonesboro."

Page 342 - "In 1858, Elizabeth Lane conveyed to Fergus Snoddy land that she had received in patent (War of 1812 payment) on June 15, 1856. This transaction is detailed in Deed Record 8, page 133 of Jonesboro District: south half of the southwest quarter of Section 18-14-4, containing eighty acres. The property began at Matthews Avenue on the south and then proceeded north to Monroe Avenue; on the east it began at Church street and continued west to what is now Culberhouse street. The original fifteen acres in the town site as laid out by the Commissioners in the year 1859, was included, with the court house property, as well as hundreds of lots on which residences had been built by citizens of the town who had made purchase of land and erected homes. The above land was conveyed in consideration for a yoke of oxen. Snoddy had deed recorded at the court house, but in the year 1869 the court house was destroyed by fire. The original deed was in the home of Captain W. W. Nisbett, and a short time later the Nisbett home burned, hence all record of the transaction was destroyed.

Judge Carson had purchased quite a lot of property in the district embraced. In the September term, 1892, Carson brought suit to re-establish the deed from Elizabeth Lane to Fergus Snoddy, in order to quiet his title to two lots back of the old Methodist Church on the west side of Church street. Carson won his case in court and the conveyance was entered of record.

A short time after the case was heard, L. C. Bailey et. al., heirs of Elizabeth Lane, brought suit to set aside the order reinstating the deed of Lane to Snoddy, and the court ordered the previous order set aside.

Carson then filed a suit again to revive the old conveyance from Lane to Snoddy, in the name of C. N. Carson et. al., vs Heirs of Elizabeth Lane. In the meantime, the heirs of Elizabeth Lane who resided in this county, Poinsett County, Missouri and Texas, brought a counter suit in the name of "W. Higginbotham, et. al. Brookfield, Carson and all other citizens interested in the property set up the contention that the land was entered in 1852 for Elizabeth Lane, who sold it to Fergus Snoddy in 1858. That Elizabeth Lane died in the year 1863 without children. The heirs of the woman alleged that the deed, if one was given to Snoddy, was bogus, inasmuch as she was married and her husband did not join in the conveyance. Judge Brookfield, who in his younger days had been a sweetheart of Elizabeth Lane, testified that she was not married at the time the conveyance was made. D. H. and A. S. Thorn, who worked with the Lane woman in the field, and were associated with Joe Smith, the man she was said to have married in 1857 or 1858, testified that she was not married at the time of the conveyance. Uncle Solomon McDaniel was an important witness for the citizens. It was on his place that Smith made a crop the year he was supposed to have married the Lane woman. He testified Smith was still single and visiting "Lizzie" Lane. The affidavit of M. A. Adair follows:

I am a resident of Craighead County, Arkansas and I have lived here since 1856, before Craighead County was organized. I was well acquainted with Fergus Snoddy during his lifetime, and know of my own knowledge that he made a donation of 15 acres of land in the sw qr., of Sec. 18, Twp. 14, North Range 4 east, for a town site for the town of Jonesboro, Arkansas.

After hearing the evidence and arguments, the jury held that Elizabeth Lane did made a deed to Fergus Snoddy, and at the time of conveyance was not married. A Jonesboro paper in February 1893, carried a full account of the trial - headlined: Lizzie Lane Loses; Heirs Lost Suit in Snoddy Case.

Notes for ALBERT FRANKLIN TAYLOR:
 "The History of Craighead County, Arkansas", by Harry Lee Williams:

Page 385 - "Albert Franklin Taylor was the stepson of Alanson "Latt" Snoddy. His father, Abner Taylor, was a large slaveholder and planter. He spent four years in the forest on Maumelle, then returned to Jackson, TN, where he attended school four years. At the age of 21 he returned to Maumelle township. He raised at home all that he needed for his own maintenance and had livestock for sale which drove to Memphis. He had a vast herd of cattle on the range and in the overflow of 1882 lost over a thousand head. He brought the first registered short horn bull into Craighead County, AR. He served in the Confederate army. He met his future wife while she was visiting her uncle, Alanson Snoddy. They owned ten thousand acres of fine sandy loam land for many years in the Lunsford district and built a town whose citizenship loves and reveres the name of Taylor. He served in the Confederate army and at the close of the war headed the Ku Klux in restoring order in the country. He married Elizabeth Jane Snoddy, who also was born in Tennessee. Her father was Forge Snoddy and her mother's maiden name was Sally Hamilton. Mr. Taylor met her while she was visiting her uncle Alanson Snoddy." "The History of Craighead County, Arkansas", by Harry Lee Williams:

 From the Commercial Appeal, Memphis, TN - Sunday, September 23, 1973, by Paul R. Coppock

"Taylor was born, Dec 13, 1824, near Perryville, Tenn. He was only 14 when he went into the wilderness of Arkansas with his mother. They settled in the Lunsford community before there was a Jonesboro, or even a Craighead County. He returned to Tennessee for three years of school at Jackson and was back in Arkansas at 21.

He was an early livestock man, contrary to the common story of cotton and more cotton. Eventually he had so many cattle that in one season of high water he lost 1,000 head. He bought the first thoroughbred in the region, a registered short-horn bull. He also raised some cotton for cash at the end of the year when it was customary to settle running accounts.

The nearest market for beef and the closest source of supplies was Memphis, 60 miles away across the swampy land. Each Fall he made a trip to town, herding his surplus cattle down the road and hauling his cotton by wagon to the bank of the unbridged river across from Memphis.

That he was able to manage his affairs on only one trip a year to town was due to old methods of growing everything possible at home and making most of what he needed. Clothes were homespun. Light came from candles molded in the kitchen. Soap was made in the back yard. In place of sugar, he probably used honey and sorghum and he must have had an orchard and a big garden, and selected seed from his own crops.

Such living at home was only possible with the hard work of his wife. She was Elizabeth Jane Snoddy. She was living with her well-to-do uncle, Alanson Trigue Snoddy, nearby. There was an extra touch of romance when they found that she also had been born near Perryville. But they never knew each other until they met in Arkansas. That they were strangers in Tennessee was probably due to her having been born on June 23, 1832, when her future husband was almost 8 years old. They had a June wedding in 1852.

Taylor took time out from farming to fight in the Confederate Army and was local head of the Ku Klux Klan in suppressing postwar disorders.

Mrs. Taylor bore eight children, four of whom died before she did on August 26, 1899. He lived until October 5, 1901. They were both gone before the building of the drainage ditches that have made large populations and big cotton crops possible in East Arkansas.

But when the book about builders of the Mid-South was put together, almost 20 years after Mr. and Mrs. Taylor had died, their sons were able to tell of having 'some 10,000 acres of the finest sandy loam land to be found in the world...'

There were four sons living in 1920; Forge W., Albert F., John Pervines, and Thomas Sloan Snoddy, all living in the Lunsford area.

The sons were just as right as they could be in arranging to have their mother's picture, and their father's, among the founders of the Mid-South."

Service was conducted from the sister's home, with Rev. A. C. SMITH, pastor of the Ozark First Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial was made in the Houston Cemetery, with the Arkansas Funeral Home of this city in charge of arrangements. In addition to one sister, Mr. SNODDY is survived by five other sisters; Mrs. N. E. Notes from Claudie Hallie Rose Prim:

"Mamma's oldest brother, Elec [sic] Snoddy, had epilepsy. Mamma, her brother Henry, and sister Nancy Karr, took turns keeping him. When Elec was at our house he had to have the East bedroom downstairs. Aunt Mollie bought clothes for him. When none of Mamma's brothers and sisters would take care of him, he stayed at our house all the time. This caused friction between my Mother and Dad, but Mamma had promised her Mother than she would always take care of him. She did. He died at our house and is buried at Houston Cemetery."

Notes for M. SUSAN SNODDY:

Information from Wanda (Family68@aol.com) on July 25, 2003, email below:

Alexander Snoddy died May 1860 in Franklin County. When the census was taken that year, Sarah is living in White Oak Township with her children. In her household are 2 sons, William and J.W. whose last name is Holt but Susan showed them as Snoddy. Also in the household is 2 Snoddy children, Mary Emily Salome, and M. Susan who is 2y old. Also in the household is a 20y old hired hand, Perry Bates. In 1870 Sarah and several children are still living in White Oak Township. One is James 15y old who is a Holt, 2 Snoddy Girls, Mary Emily Salone and Susan and 3 children Richard 8y old, Emeline 5y and Martha who is 2y old. The last 3 have the Snoddy name on the census record.

A couple of years ago a great great grandson of Salome Snoddy communited with me and he sorted out the children for me. He said that his Great Grandmother lived to be 97y old. She said that Sarah Snoddy had 3 children by Perry Bates the hired hand. He said those children went by the Bates names but when Martha married she used the Snoddy name. Sarah never married Perry Bates. I have not found him after the 1860 census. I have wondered if he died in the Civil War.

Susan Snoddy and James Bass had 3 children:

1. Mary Ellen Bass b. Sept 17, 1878 d. July 02, 1976
2. Robert Elmer Bass b. Sept 07, 1880 d. October 13, 1968 married Mary Ellender Stutchman April 23, 1905 in Franklin.
3. Dinah Bass b. Feb. 16, 1883 d. July 15, 1966 married William Virgil Hogan Feb. 26, 1905 in Franklin.

Arlene Bass Thompson comes from the Mary Ellen Bass line. Arlene's Father was Arley Bass. Most likely the Father of Arley was William Virgil Hogan, but Mary did not marry him, her Sister Dinah married him. Researching has been very hard not knowing for sure the Father of Arley. Arlene is beginning to ask people in Ozark if they know anything about this, and maybe we will eventually get the information we need. Mary Ellen Bass married Robert Greeson , March 20, 1905 and had a daughter Grace who married Elbert Staton.

Notes for TEMPLE VANBUREN RENEGAR:

Article from Memphis Newspaper provided by Sandie Simmons and Marvin D. Snoddy.

"Of course, they didn't know the pistol was loaded, but that doesn't affect the fact that T. V. Renegar, 43, 165 Elm St., is fighting for his life at city hospital, while his family, almost destitute, sobbingly awaits news of his condition, or that E. L. Riggsby, 1028 Barton Ave., will have the memory of the accident to carry with him through life.

It happened at 7:30 this morning, at the residence of J. O. Norris, 174 Gailse Ave., while Renegar and Riggsby were sitting around the fire tampering with the latter's powerful .30 Luger automatic pistol. Riggsby pointed it at Renegar and snapped it, just as Renegar opened his mouth to remonstrate with him, and the bullet ploughed its way through his throat and came out the back of his neck. Renegar fell to the floor and looked sorrowfully at his best friend. He cannot talk.

Renegar and Riggsby met at Norris' house early this morning for a hunt across the river. They were cleaning the guns to have them in readiness, when the accident occurred. Riggsby is night watchman for the Darnell Lumber Co., and, therefore, carries a high-powered pistol.

"I never want to see another pistol," he declared -- after it was too late. The wounded man was carried out on the porch, to await the arrival of the city ambulance, and there his wife and three daughters gathered around him, while the red blood flowed from the ugly wound. Riggsby paced up and down in the background, muttering over and over. "I have shot my best friend! What did I mean by snapping that gun? What did I mean?"

The victim was placed in the ambulance, while Riggsby was taken to police headquarters. Riggsby was released on his own recognizance, after he had explained the circumstances to Captain Couch.

"We had all been snapping the pistol," he said, "And I must have loaded it unthinkingly; that is the only way I can account for it."

Renegar was formerly a track foreman for the Frisco, but was laid off some weeks ago. He has been unsuccessfully hunting for a position for some time."

166. ROBERT MONTGOMERY⁸ SNODDY (JOHN ALBERT⁷, DAVID⁶, WILLIAM⁵, SAMUEL⁴, ?JOSEPH³, WILLIAM², ?¹) was born Mar 31, 1866 in Kelso, Lincoln Co, TN, and died Dec 14, 1940 in Gatesville, Coryell Co, TX. He married NANNIE JANE "ANNIE" CRYER Abt. 1898, daughter of ALFRED CRYER and NANCY DONALDSON. She was born Feb 12, 1876 in Madison Co, AL, and died Jun 18, 1964 in Coryell Co, TX.

Notes for ROBERT MONTGOMERY SNODDY:

Robert Snoddy claimed land in the September 16, 1893 Cherokee Strip Run in the Oklahoma Territory.

Detailed information on Robert Montgomery Snoddy was provided by Frank Snoddy, Lavita, TX.

Obit: December 1940 - Robert Montgomery Snoddy was born in Lincoln County, TN, March 31, 1866, and spent his boyhood there. He came to Texas in 1894 and in 1895 was married to Miss Nannie Cyer, and to this union six children were born. Their first child, the only daughter, died at the age of ten months. The first nine years of their married life was spent in what is now Oklahoma and from there they moved to Texas, where they bought the farm near Levita in Coryell County, where he was residing at the time of this death, which came December 14, 1940 at 6:00 p.m. He was baptized into the Church of Christ in 1905, and remained a faithful member as long as his health would permit. Mr. Snoddy was a man with a pioneer spirit, having worked hard, enduring hardships, denying himself, ever looking into the future at what he might accomplish and working to that end. He was a great lover of home, unassuming, never meddling into other people's affairs, and was a good citizen in every respect. Mr. Snoddy was known as a man of honesty, which he taught to his boys from their youth up and his great desire in life was for them to be noble, fine men, and to have comfortable homes. Those surviving to miss the companionship and influence of such a life are his good wife and five sons; John A. Snoddy of Levita, Robert O. Snoddy of San Antonio, Buford A. Snoddy of Levita, Houston A. Snoddy of Gatesville, and Cledia A. Snoddy of San Antonio; also thirteen grandchildren." Written by his daughter-in-law, Sarah Mayhew Snoddy and provided by Frank Snoddy, Lavita, Texas.

W. M. SNODDY

DEALER IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES
AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Rogersville, Ala., October 3, 1910

Mr. John Snoddy:

Dear sir, I intended writing you as soon as got home from Nashville but was sick for several days and had my arrangements made to move so I have neglected it until now. My family and self are getting a long very well at present - I did not get to see Mr. W. E. Parham in Nashville as I expected to do so did not learn any more of the family after I left your mothers. I had a letter from Mr. Parham stating that he was in bad health and could not get to Nashville as I expected him to do so. I did not learn any more of the family record after I left your mothers and I have written to Mr. W. E. Parham and gave him your address and told him that I thought you would answer his letter if he would write you. He seems to be very anxious to learn what relation we are to him, so I will give this in to you as I understand it.

My father was Thomas A. Snoddy a son of William Snoddy and William S. and David Snoddy and Graham Snoddy was brothers and I think had a brother named Thomas, but doant know where he settled at, so if your father was a son of David Snoddy, he and my father was first cousins so if you know who your great grandfather was or who your great grandmother was, kindly tell Mr. Parham all you know about it.

I think or was told by my mother that the first of the Snoddys that my father knew of was John Snoddy an emigrant from Ireland and married a Scotch girl and that we were of that decent of people so if this is write we are the people he is trying to find and if not he wants to no it for some reason, I can't tell just what, so if you can tell him wheather I am write or not I would be glad that you would do so tell him all about the old land warrant that your ant Dealia has of William Snoddy's whare he entered a piece of land in south carlina or north carlina which ever it was he think that will help him in locating each generation and of which family each belongs I never did write to your ant Betsy Faning so if she is living and you have hird from her kindly write and tell me how she is getting along.

We have began to pick cotton here though it is very short but corn is fin, cotton is selling at 13.5 cts per # and cotton seed at 40 c per bushel at the gin. I am sending 4 of my children to school where we hav a very good school with 3 teachers and our little town has 7 dry god stores 2 groserse stores one drug store and one bank and 3 nice churches on saw mill and one cotton gin, 2 black smith shops, so I will close by asking you to give my best wishes and love to all the family and asking you to writ to me.

Your cousin,

W. M. Snoddy

"Archie John and Ethel farmed south of Mt. Bethel Church in Lauderdale County on County Road 53 (Old Red Lane). He also had a general merchandise store at Toonersville. Their marriage was short lived, with his death in a freak accident at a cotton gin east of Toonersville. Ethel was grief stricken, but soon adjusted and began working to support her children. She worked on the farm, took in quilting, sewing, and did washing and ironing at night. Archie's sister, Julia A. Snoddy, was living with them when he died and continued to live with Ethel and the children until they were grown. After a few years, Ethel bought a farm near Anderson where she and the children continued to farm. She met and married Meredith Gentry "Bud" Moore. He is buried in the Romine Cemetery by his first wife, Lucy A. Romine."

Two Men Meet Sudden Death in East Lauderdale Boiler Explosion Kills Archie Snoddy and Ed Weather and Destroys Gin - from The Florence Times of Florence, Alabama dated Friday, November 22, 1907. (Provided by Marvin D. Snoddy).

On Friday afternoon last a disastrous accident occurred at the gin of Patrick WHITE, between Whitehead and Rogersville, which resulted in the death of two men, Archie SNODDY, engineer, and Ed WEATHERS, fireman. The boiler was torn into fragments, and its pieces almost disappeared from the fateful scene, A large cut stone, evidently a part of the foundation, cut Mr. SNODDY's body in two and his death was instantaneous. Mr. WEATHERS, who was badly injured on the head, lived until three o'clock Saturday morning, when death came to his release. Mr. WHITE was in the second story of the gin house, and besides a severe shock, was otherwise uninjured. Several other persons were standing around the house, and their escape was almost a miracle. The plant was made a complete wreck, and presented a scene of desolation. The two men killed were well and favorably known, and their sudden death cast a gloom over that entire community. My SNODDY was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. Mr. WEATHERS was about 18 or 20, and was unmarried.

Wade Charles Hemphill, known as W. C. or Wade, settled in southeast Coleman County in 1891. He was born January 29, 1849, in Clarke County, Mississippi, died December 31, 1897 at Santa Anna. He was the youngest child of Samuel and Nancy (Granberry) Hemphill. W. C. Hemphill was married first to Marian M. Cleveland and they had one child, a daughter, Zelma Irene, called "Birdie," who married July 31, 1890 in Bastrop County, Texas, David C. Godby. Marian M. (Cleveland) Hemphill died about 1879. On May 5, 1880, in Bastrop County, W. C. Hemphill married Cuba Hemphill, his second cousin, who was born February 8, 1843, at Hemphill's Prairie, died February 5, 1943, at Abilene, both W. C. and Cuba are interred at Santa Anna. Cuba was the daughter of Cornelius Murphy and Elizabeth (Snoddy) Hemphill.

Prior to settling in Coleman County, W. C. Hemphill was a Lieutenant in Company G of the Fourth Cavalry, U.S. Army, stationed at Fort Concho in what is now Tom Green County. W. C. Hemphill was serving during 1871 when depredations by the Kickapoo Indians were particularly bad in the area that is now Coleman County. Following his army service, W. C. settled in Elgin, where he was a school teacher and carpenter. Elgin was only a few miles from the home of his oldest sister, Martha Elizabeth (Hemphill) Hemphill, who had married their first cousin once removed, Cornelius Ambrose Hemphill. In Bastrop County two sons and three daughters were born to W. C. and Cuba. The children were Charles Wade, Tonie, Lenna, Leonard Lee, and Ethal. In 1891, W. C. Hemphill moved his family to southeast Coleman County at Trickham where he operated a grocery store and engaged in ranching. Two sons and a daughter were born into the family in Coleman County. They were Cornelius Gillespie, Jesse Lester, and Gladiaes.

W. graduated from Baylor University, in 1903, and became superintendent of county schools in Coleman County (see Coursey). In 1918 he became a teacher at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, later Dean, and in 1923 became President of Wayland, retired in 1946. Before her marriage to G. W., Tonie was a school teacher.

Lenna Hemphill was born January 4, 1886, died August 21, 1886.

Leonard Lee Hemphill was born June 13, 1887, died September 17, 1959. He married Alma Baker and they had a daughter, Burta Lee.

Ethal Hemphill was born November 16, 1889, died at Abilene. She was educated at Santa Anna High School and Baylor University. She taught school before her marriage on September 22, 1919, at Waco, to Clarence L.

Prichard, M. D. They had no children.

Cornelius Gillespie Hemphill was born March 5, 1892, died March 18, 1894.

Jesse Lester Hemphill was born December 17, 1894, married Runie Rasco. They had two children, Jesse Lester, Jr., and William Thomas. Jesse Lester was educated at Santa Anna High School. He was in the automobile business in Port Arthur for many years.

1880 - Dewitt is found married to Martha J. GOLD/GOULD and list a son named Marion S. SNODDY and looks like 6 mos old being possibly born about Nov 1879.. Dewitt is listed as a farm laborer and look like he may have been working for one of the WINTERS relations as they {Winters} were neighbors of Dewitt's.. Ed H. Winters may have been able to afford to have a farm hand at the age of 48 and appears to have his own farm in 1880.

Date of birth was from tombstone

May have died in Arkansas around the Corning area.. where the Blacks lived.. but no certain area has been found for his burial place as 1998.

Autobiography of William Howard Snoddy, Sr. (1861 - 1935)

I was born January 13th in Shelbyville, Lincoln County, Tennessee (this is an error, Shelbyville is in Bedford Co., TN mds) just before the Civil War, which started in April 1861. My grandfather was Graham Snoddy 1797 - 1851. My father was Francis Marion Snoddy 1834 - 1901.

The first thing I can remember was the last year of the war, at the age of four years. I can remember seeing the Yankees (as we called the Northern Troops) coming up the long hill to our home from the main road. I remember they rode up to the fence, opened the yard gate, led their horses up to the house, came in the house when mother was in bed sick. They ransacked every drawer in the house, leaving everything scattered on the floor. On leaving, they took with them the old colored daddy, mammy and nurse girl. Driving away in the family carriage, pulled by a pair of fine black horses. After the war was over, we heard that this colored family was in Corinth, Mississippi and wanted to come home, but my father said no. This farm of 600 acres was my Grandfather Howard's estate. My father was guardian of the estate which owned 75 slaves. They were all taken away the first year of the war.

At five years of age, just after the war, we visited mother's uncle Billy Carter, also her uncle Newt Cooplin some miles from our home. On our way I saw my first railroad which had been torn up during the war. It was built from Nashville southwest and the rails were wood, covered with sheet - iron. Uncle William Carter had a son of my age and we ate our fill of persimmons which made me deathly sick. That same year we buried my sister, Molly, age three.

The next thing I can remember, was getting a strapping from father for cutting me a whip from the leather line of his six-mule-team harness. These mules were used in freighting to Nashville, 60 miles north. On this estate was a large government distillery and these three six-mule-teams were used to draw the old schooner blue bed wagons filled with whiskey in barrels, corn, wheat, bacon, hogs and calves and anything else raised on the farm for the Nashville market, and for bringing back such groceries and other things for our home and neighbors.

My great-grandfather Howard left South Carolina for Tennessee. He was such a large man (450 lbs). He rode in an Ox cart of two wheels and shafts for one ox. His son, Benjamin Howard, my grandfather, was a large man weighing 350 pounds. Buying this 600 acre farm, they built a large two-story log house with rock chimneys, 8 rooms. My father married the second of four girls-Mary, Martha, Julia and Hester Howard. These four girls had two brothers, William S. Howard and James Fulton Howard. They all lived at the old home until 1868 when father sold the farm for $36,000.00 and gave each heir $6,000.00. In this year Aunt Mary Howard married Don P. Shaffner and Julia married Richard Neil with Clafflin Dry Goods Co. of New York, Hester and Fulton still lived with us, William going to New York. In the fall of 1868 we, with Aunt Mary and her husband, Don P. Shaffner, loaded our wagons with all the household goods and driving our cows, hogs and horses moved to West Tennessee (Union City) where my father and my uncle, Don Shaffner started up saw mills and later opened up a furniture factory in Union City. Aunt Hester married the Railroad Agent, Henry Moffett, who joined in the lumber and furniture business with his brother-in-laws. When we started on the road for West Tennessee, I was seven years old and Oh! boy I thought I was a man, could ride a horse or mule and pop a whip and I had the time of my life helping my Uncle Fulton drive the livestock. He was then about 19 years old.

The fall of 1869 my father sold out to a Mr. Beck and the firm was then, Shaffner, Moffett and Beck. Father had a sister Mrs. Robert Thornton and a brother James K. P. Snoddy living 25 miles south of Union City at Dyer on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. So Father bought a farm from Dr. Medling, 3 miles east of Dyer and one mile from his sister Mrs. Thornton. He also bought half interest in a big flour mill on the river two miles east. We lived on this farm until 1873 and sold out going west of Dyer three miles. Father bought a farm of 210 acres from Joe Wyatt and in 1876 he sold this farm and bought half interest in a store at Dyer. He also bought a house with one acre of ground for our home and here my Mother died. It was my father's last home. When I was not in school, I was behind the counter, learning to sell goods at the age of 16 and in 1877 father sent me to school at Lebanon, Ohio (Holbrooks Normal), with his head clerk, Thomas Atkins from January to 1st of June.

When I was back home father opened two branch stores; one at Yorkville with me as manager and one at ? ? with Thomas Atkins as manager. I was very saving with my money and every dollar I could save bought calves and put them in father's pastures until 1883. By this time I had quite a bunch of cattle. Father sold the two branch stores in 1879. He and his brother J. P. Snoddy moved from Dyer to Union City taking their stock with them. There Atkins and I were their salesmen. They sold this stock 1st of January 1880 and I went to Nashville with my uncle William Howard Wholesale Groceries. In the summer of 1882 I was back in Dyer shipping fruit to Nashville in one-third-bushel boxes and made good money.

In the fall of 1882 I was selling drugs for my uncle J. P. Snoddy at Dyer until March 1883. In February 1883 I went with others to Mobile, Alabama and sold my cattle. I felt that I wanted to go west and in March I bought me a ticket for St. Louis and thought of Seattle but had a friend, Joe Wyatt, at West Las Animas, Colorado, so I bought a ticket to West Las Animas, Colorado and landed three March 27, 1883.

In leaving my old Tennessee home I failed to mention many things in my young life which I would love to live over again. I loved good horses and always had the best and the fastest and I was a good trader but did get the worst of it once. Our trading place was the County Seat on every first Monday. My last swap was an old, long-legged, gray horse but finely gaited and fast. I started home on a fine, four-year old filly pretty as a peach, but blind as a bat but I got her home, so the next 1st Monday I fooled the other fellow. (That was lawful).

Another incident that I will never forget on my return home from school while walking on the sidewalk with a bunch of boys. We were all smoking a long Cheroot (Cigar). My father slipped up behind us putting his fingers around my cigar and walked on ahead of us with my cigar between his fingers. That was the first time he ever caught me smoking and I was 17. He always called me his good boy and he was a good father but I had been away to school, which gave me a little start. Now for the big county dances at which I always had such a fine time. My father's only objection was for his riding horses to be tied up all night at those dances. One night there was to be one big dance across the river some distance and father rather objected, anyway this clerk of his, Tom Atkins, who roomed with me, wanted to go. After all were in bed we threw our shoes out in the cedar trees from the up-stairs and we slid down the post of the porch, put on our shoes, got out horses and went to that bug dance. Got back before daylight. While living on our farm west of Dyer there was an old three-story Tob (sic) barn. We used to shuck and shell corn and at each gathering we would clean away space enough to dance. With two or three big buck Negroes with their fiddles and banjos who would play what we called very fine music and did we have a good time. Yes, that was the life and much happiness. Those were real Barn Dances with boys and girls, young men and women, old men and women, all joined hands for lots of fun. Now for Log-rolling days. Stout men and stout boys were there to show their strength and have a good time. At noon the women put-up the best of everything to eat with a drink of the best before meal time. And for supper the same good meal and drinks. At about eight the big dance started which lasted most of the night, with lunch at midnight. In those days it was not all work and no play. We went to church and Sunday School too, and life was really worth living.

Back again to the farm west of Dyer. I will never forget our school days, walking three miles through the woods. It was one mile to the double bridges. My brother Ransom and myself and sister Lou Ella Blanche, would leave home early in the morning with our lunches and dog following us. We would stop at the double bridges and meet my dear friend and chum, Joe Wyatt and his two sisters, Lizzie and Lula with their lunches, also their dogs. Joe and I were then 13 years old, brothers and sisters younger. From the double bridges, it was two miles to the country church with school house near by. This particular morning we got to school a little early so we had time for a dog fight. Ike Mitchel bantered a fight with Joe's dog. Ike was a bully and said, "My dog can lick yours and I can lick you". No dog fight this time but a real boy fight. Ike threw Joe but Joe turned him with mouth hold on his ear and growled like a dog, so Ike said he would give up. The dog fight was held later. While going to this school, I planted what I called, (My Lazy Potato Patch) and with the proceeds, I bought my first store suit of clothes and had Christmas money left. Speaking of Christmas, my first memory of Christmas was when I jumped out of bed to see Sanny Clause, there was tied to my big toe a pair of red top boots and a Jewsharp in my stocking.

I well remember my arrival at West Las Animas, Colorado in the morning of March 27th 1883 over the Santa Fe Railroad from St. Louis. At that time, the coaches were very small, only about 30 or 35 feet long and the engine was the old fashioned type with very large smoke stack on a small engine. Going from the train up town it was quite a long walk with my worldly possessions in a fine leather suitcase, which my Uncle William Howard gave me. He had bought it in London while buying silks for H. B. Chaffin and Co. of New York. When I arrived up town with this heavy load, I found only one hotel, an old adobe (Frontier Hotel) which was run by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mixon. I introduced myself as a friend of Joe Wyatt. I had a good "hot biscuit" breakfast. Then I was directed to Jim Jones' Bank, Jones an uncle of Joe Wyatt and found Joe behind the counter. This was on Friday. Joe went with me into the adjoining room, the store of Jacob Weil. I was introduced and shown over the store as there was where I would start with my new position as salesman on April 1st. And I was not fooled, I found Mr. Weil one of the finest men I had ever met. On Saturday morning Joe and I went up to La Junta where his Uncle Jim Jones had another bank and Mr. Dameron, cashier. Mr. Simpson was cashier of the Las Animas bank.

On Sunday morning the town bunch of boys and girls started out horse back riding. Joe and I went to his uncle's fine horse barn and saddled up Old John and Glass Eye, "two fine saddle horses". We started out to overtake and surprise the bunch, which we did at Boggsville. One couple had stopped; the girl's girth of her saddle had broken. Her partner was Bill Hillyer and Joe then introduced me to the couple, Bill Hillyer and Miss Fanny Jones. I can't remember all of the crowd but I do remember all of the Moore boys and girls. The Prowers boys and girls, Inez Lambert, Addie Peck and Stella Carson, (Kit's daughter). I was introduced to all of them while the saddle girth was being fixed. Then we all started out for a long ride to Old Town and Fort Lyon and back home for church. Two churches, a Union Church for all denominations and the Roman Catholic. I was very happy after meeting such a fine, lively bunch of young people and as I was Joe's friend just out of Tennessee, they were all very nice to me. Now I felt that I could go to work in a new job and a new country with a lot of new friends, who have remained good friends all through life.

During he year of 1883 and 1884, I had saved my money, bought several bunches of cattle range delivery that Joe would tell me about and in the fall of 1884, I sold out and what I had made on cattle and by buying saddles and bedding from homesick boys who would sell cheap, I was ready to take a commercial course so I took a six months lay-off to go to Valporaiso, Indiana to take a commercial course which I did and when I returned in May 1885, I accepted a position with William Haws (The Old Prowers Store).

In October 1888, I was married to Miss Fanny Jones, the girl I first met on our horse back ride, (My first Sunday in Colorado). While clerking for William A. Haws from 1885 to 1889, the boys and girls of town had a wonderful good time at dances in the old Bradford Hall. Every time a big bunch of cowboys came to town, our first duty to them was to have a dance with George Mason and Frank Redman "with their violins", John Jay with his guitar made very fine dance music. And we would always have a good time and usually would stay late, two or three o'clock in the morning. In 1886, W. E. Culver built a skating-rink floor in the old dance hall and of all the good times young people ever had, we had it, skating and dancing. In this same year we organized a Brass Band with John Jay and Kit Jones, Hubert Reynolds and John Davidson, (Cornetts); W. E. Culver and P. G. Scott, First Alto; W. H. Snoddy and Anthony Delaglise, Second Alto; George Mason and Mr. Graham, (Base Horns); Gaston Dobbins and Oscar Smith, Trombones; and two Drummers, Snare and Base Drums. Mr. Haws built a Band Stand for us on the roof of his warehouse and there we would practice and soon made a very good music for the public. Jim Jones took a very active part with the band. He chartered a car from the railroad company for a trip to La Junta to compete with the La Junta Band. We all remember coming home some time that night but that was all. Soon we were playing for the Skating Rink and dances and this band was a success and a joy for the community. From 1885 to 1888 I was proving up on my ranch with a bunch of others - John Davidson, H. Reynolds, Jim Reed, Jack Donlan, Joe Kimball, Frank Kreybill, Black Dick and Fatty Klett.

On December 9th 1889 we were made very happy with the arrival of a dear little baby girl who we named after her two grandmothers, Martha Boone Snoddy. Martha was mother's first name and Boone was her grandmother Jones' Ancestral name, a near descendant of Daniel Boone.

1st of September 1889 I went into business for myself with the consent of my employer (Mr. Haws), who was a close friend of mine and was willing for me to make a start for myself in a business way. This little business was opened up by "The Klowinger Bros."; groceries and all kinds of fruits and vegetables and the boys had a good business started and I thought this was my chance. So I took hold and as I was acquainted with every man, woman and child and started the first delivery wagon in town of about two thousand people and drawing good trade from Fort Lyon five miles east. Every morning the Fort's four mule team would drive up in front of this store to fill orders for such fancy groceries that could not be had from the three big stores; Jacob Weil, W. A. Haws and James Cassidy. I would express from Jacob Dale and Company of Kansas City, all kinds of fresh meats packed in ice box, once every week (Friday) and on Holidays would have dressed turkeys, ducks, chickens and opossum from Missouri, I had a very successful business for two years when the Fort was abandoned. That being my best business, I thought best to sell out when the McCauley Bros. wanted to buy me out. I added dry goods and shoes to this little business and had a nice stock to sell.

Now for a move to New Mexico, 1st of Jan 1891. We owned our home in Las Animas and a 160 acre Homestead claim that I had proved up on by riding out horse back ten miles at night and back in the morning in time to open the store while working for W. A. Haws. I also spent my Sundays on this claim which I commuted to a cash entry, paying $1.25 per acre and trading 80 acres of the 160 to the Ditch Company for water for the remaining 80 acres. That gave me 80 acres with full paid up water right. Loading a car with furniture and store goods, shipped to Pueblo and transferred to a D & RG car for Amargo, N.M. The car caught fire at Florence and was run under a water tank and everything was very much damaged with water. In taking my own risk to save freight rates, I only received a few hundred dollars for the damage to $1,000 worth in the car. The few months in Amargo was enough for us. So I sold out to my partner, George Kootz and found a position through a drummer at Del Norte, Colorado. Only stayed in Del Norte a few months and moved to Denver in the late fall of 1891. I was given a position in the shoe department of Apple and Company, Frank Seymore, "manager". While working for this firm Ed. V. Price, traveling salesman for Shuster Clothing Company of St. Joseph, MO who had sold me clothing for several years, found me at Apple and Company and said he had been looking for me as he was opening two stores, one in La Junta, Colorado and one at Raton, N.M. and wanted me for his La Junta store and would pay me better salary than I was getting and I would be back among my old customers and friends. So I went to La Junta with the Price-Draper Shoe and Clothing Company Mr. Draper had charge of the clothing Department and I had charge of the Shoe Department. Ed Leeman was book-keeper. We had a fine trade and everything and all of us were so congenial.

On December 22, 1894 a new visitor came to our home. A big fine 9 pound boy and like all Dads, I was a very happy young man, with a son and his little sister now five years old.

Leaving Price-Draper, I went with Bergerman Brothers who had moved a stock of shoes and clothing down from Pueblo and was with this firm until April 11th 1898 when I bought out the old Prowers Store from A. Pitts, who had bought it from W. A. Haws, son-in-law of the late John W. Prowers of Las Animas, Colorado. This being the store I had clerked in for W. A. Haws from 1885 to 1889. Now I was in possession of a big store and a good trade of old time customers, a business of my own. A home of my own and a happy little family. A daughter ten and a son five and all in good health, I felt my fortune was made. Again our future was brightened with the arrival of another little girl on January 2, 1899 and this little girl was so much loved by us all but our joy turned to sorrow for we lost little Zeralda June 2, 1901 and we buried her in Fairmont Cemetery in Denver, Colorado.

Turning back to the city of West Las Animas, I failed to mention many things beginning with 1883. As I remember the town sight of L. A. of 160 acres, was in litigation with Dave Moffett of Denver, who claimed the land but in the suit, the city won out as the city could only give the property owners of lots a Quit Claim Deed, now that they had won their suit, every one was given a Warrantee Deed. In the fall 1883, I purchased 6 lots in the very center of the town sight on the street running west from the business section, claimed by Mose Wright, brother of Stanfield Wright (colored) and got a Quit Claim Deed. I paid him $80.00 and when the city won their suit, I was given a Warrantee Deed from the city. Now Las Animas had a boom and soon the town was filled with real estate agents, young lawyers and many people to buy property. This was when Lubers, Kunkle and Lambright and many others put up their signs for their particular line of business. I sold my 6 lots, west of W. A. Haws' brick house, at what I thought a fair profit ($500). I took this money and bought a dwelling house with 6 lots just south of W. A. Haws home for $1,000 from Gill Woodworth and by improving this place, I had a very nice home until 1901 and sold it for $1,000.00.[Brøderbund Family Archive #17, Ed. 1, Birth Records: United States/Europe, Birth Records AAI Birth Records Extraction, Date of Import: Oct 4, 1999, Internal Ref. #1.17.1.30773.22]

Notes for JOHN MANTLE JUDAH:

HISTORICAL SKETCH

This collection concerns the family of John Mantle Judah (1848-1936) and his wife Mary Jameson Judah (1851-1930).

John M. Judah was descended from a family of Spanish Jews. His ancestors came to Canada in 1750, to New York in 1765, and to the Midwest in 1818. His father, Samuel Judah (1798-1869) graduated from Rutgers University in 1816 and moved to Vincennes shortly thereafter. He served in the Indiana House of Representatives from 1827 to 1829 and from 1837 to 1841, acting as Speaker in 1840-1841. From 1829 to 1833 he was U. S. Attorney in Indiana. In 1825 he married Harriet Brandon, and they had eleven children. About 1860 they were divorced.

Born in Vincennes, John Mantle Judah prepared for college at Vincennes University, graduated from Brown University in 1867, and went to Indianapolis as Clerk of the Supreme Court. In 1872 he married Mary Jameson, the daughter of Dr. Patrick H. Jameson (d. 1911) and Maria Butler Jameson (d. 1910). Mrs. Jameson was the daughter of Ovid Butler (1801-1881) and the sister of Scot Butler (1844-1931). Two other of Dr. and Mrs. Jameson's children were Ovid Butler Jameson, who married Haute Tarkington, and a daughter Catherine, who married Orville Peckham of Chicago.

John M. and Mary Jameson Judah (she was always referred to as Mamie) had two sons, Henry and John Victor. Dr. and Mrs. Jameson suggested changing their grandsons' last name to Brandon (after Mr. Judah's mother), promising each boy a bequest of $20,000 if the suggestions was followed. The change was made.

John M. Judah pursued a legal career until 1887, when he moved to Memphis and formed a partnership in the cotton business, Caldwell and Judah (Caldwell is referred to in the correspondence as Sloo). This partnership ended in 1894, and the Judahs returned to Indianapolis, residing at 949 North Pennsylvania Street. He retired, and they did a good deal of European travel, spending much of their time being sick. Meanwhile during the 1890s Mrs. Judah was cutting a social and literary swath. She was an accomplished hostess, giving dinners with monumental menus in both Memphis and Indianapolis. She was also a successful writer, and had stories published in Harpers and other magazines. Among her literary and artistic friends were Hamlin Garland, Henry James, William Dean Howells, Albert Kinross, Israel Zangwill (The Melting Pot), Meredith Nicholson, and T. C. Steele.

The Judahs had a family cottage at Lake Maxinkuckee where they spent part of every summer. In 1928 they moved to 3128 North Meridian Street. The correspondence indicates that Mr. Judah believed he had the gift of extra-sensory perception; also that Mrs. Judah was interested in mesmerism and was a strong believer in Christian Science.

Henry Judah Brandon (b. 1873), usually called Harry, the son who was the center of most of the correspondence in this collection, had a rather picaresque career. Educated to begin with in Indianapolis and Memphis, he spent a senior year at Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts. There and during his two years at Yale (1892-1894) he developed expensive tastes and a habit of self-justification which led to intense correspondence with his father. He then studied law in Chicago with his uncle, Orville Peckham, and at Northwestern University. After passing his bar exam and working briefly at Peckham and Brown, he was let go, and took a position in Indianapolis with another uncle, Ovid B. Jameson, at Jameson & Joss. This position again lasted only a few years, during which he married his first wife, Helen, and had two daughters, Mary and Constance.

The end of this first marriage in 1911 led to an extended period of depression ("giraffes"), during which he was nursed by his mother both in Europe and in New Mexico. By 1916 he was sufficiently recovered to take a job with the Naval Consulting Board in New York City, and to marry the actress Grace Walton. He then lived in Haiti, first working for the Hayti-American Sugar Company and then in his own concern to produce honey. Neither position worked out. Though he was still receiving a regular allowance from his parents, he took several months to tell them about his second marriage. In 1923 he returned to New York, and took on the development of Coldstream Country Club, on Long Island on the former estate of Oliver H. P. Belmont. This club failed during the depression in 1933.

Meanwhile Harry's daughter, Mary Brandon, who had spent her childhood with her mother, showed up in New York and was reconciled with her father. She obtained a stage role in 1920, and two years later married Robert E. Sherwood (1896-1955), who was beginning his career as a successful playwright (The Road to Rome, Idiot's Delight, Abe Lincoln in Illinois) and biographer (Roosevelt and Hopkins).

Harry Brandon's younger brother, John Judah Brandon (1882-1931), also called Victor and Tony, graduated from St.

Paul's School and spent two years at Yale (1901-1903). He married Muriel Hitt in 1909, and they had two children, Barbara and John. During the 1920s he considered going into the coffee business, wrote stories, and worked for General Advertising Company.

"This indenture [deed] witnesseth that, Margrett Snoddy [mother], Loyd Snoddy [son] and Elizabeth Snoddy [daughter-in-law] of Clay County in the State of Indiana convey and warrant to Conrad Huffman of Clay Couty in the State of Indiana for the sum of four thousand dollars the following real estate in Clay Couty State of Indiana to wit the Northwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of section 15 in Township 11 North of Range 7 West - containing forty acres more or less and the West half of the Northwest quarter of Section 15 in Township 11 North of Range 7 West except one fourth of an acre of the above described eighty acre lot that is now used as a burying ground or grave yard. In witness whereof the said Margrett Snoddy, Loyd Snoddy and Elizabeth Snoddy his wife have hereunto set their hands and seals this nineteenth day of November, 1872.

As you will note, only Margrett, Loyd, and Elizabeth are noted in the body of this deed, and they are identified in Clay County, Indiana. The others seem to be witnesses. I found no more entries for Margaret Snoddy, so one might assume that this is the approximate point in time when she left Indiana to reside elsewhere. There is/was a Snoddy cemetery in Clay County. I wonder if this is on the land identified in the above deed. "

HISTORY OF HICKORY, POLK, CEDAR, DADE AND BARTON COUNTIES, MISSOURI, 1889 Pg. 841

"Fergus C. Snoddy, stock-raiser and farmer, of Rock Prairie Township, was born in Clay County, Ind., in 1847, the son of Josiah and Margaret (Clough) Snoddy, born in Kentucky, in 1801, and Virginia, in 1809, respectively. The parents, in an early day, settled in Clay County, Ind., where the father died in 1848 or 1849; the mother is still living in Greene County, Mo. The subject of this sketch, the youngest of seven children, attended the country schools about nine months, and, when fifteen years of age, joined Company D, One Hundred and Fifteenth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and was for six months in the Army of the Cumberland. After the close of the war he joined Company G, Eighteenth United States Infantry, and served three years on the Western frontier, having been with Gen. Carrington's expedition against the Sioux Indians, as soldier and teamster, and traveling over Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, and nearly all the Rocky Mountain country, experiencing many hardships.

Coming to Dade County in 1869, in 1872 he married Martha, daughter of William B. and Nancy Landers, a native of Dade County, where her parents have lived for many years, her father having been in the Federal Army, and having served as justice of the peace for some years. They have six children, four sons and two daughters.

He has lived on his farm of 312 acres about nine years. When a young man he learned the harness trade, which he followed for five years, at Dadeville, just before removing to the farm. In politics he is a Republican, is a member of Everton Lodge No. 405, A. F. & A. M., and of Everton Post No. 369, G. A. R. Mrs. Snoddy is a Cumberland Presbyterian. Mr. Snoddy spares no pains to educate his children, and is a successful farmer and stock-raiser. Found this on Rootsweb - Dade Co., MO Biographies, Dean Snoddy (grnacres@net66.com), Feb 28, 2000."

216. CAROLINA⁸ SNODDY (JAMES⁷, FERGUS⁶, JOHN⁵, SAMUEL⁴, ?JOSEPH³, WILLIAM², ?¹) was born Abt. 1846 in Clay Co, IN, and died Unknown. She married JOHN A. DAVIS Abt. 1862 in IA, son of WILLOUGHBY DAVIS and MARY ORMAN. He was born Nov 17, 1839 in Owen Co, KY, and died 1907.

Notes for JOHN A. DAVIS:

Information below provided by Marvin D. Snoddy:

At the time of his death John A Davis was in excellent financial circumstances and was recognized as a prominent farmer of Walla Walla county but during the early days of his residence here he endured many hardships and privations, the conditions being then those of a frontier region. He was born in Owen county, Indiana, November 17, 1839, and was a son of Willoughby and Mary (Orman) Davis, both natives of Tennessee. However, they removed to Indiana at an early day and remained there until 1848, when they went to Wapello county, Iowa, where the father continued to follow agricultural pursuits until his death. There the mother also passed away. It was in Iowa that John A. Davis received his education and grew to manhood. In 1863, following his marriage, he and his wife made the seemingly never ending journey across the great plains to the Pacific northwest by ox team. They settled on a homestead on Mill creek in Walla Walla county, and their first residence was a log cabin covered with a clapboard roof and with a stick chimney. At that time there were but few settlers in this region and there were many inconveniences to be endured, but the rich soil indicated that in time the country would be well settled and highly developed, and the pioneers labored with confidence in the future. After residing upon his homestead for a time Mr. Davis purchased 550 acres of excellent land on the Oregon state line and there made his home until his death. He made excellent improvements upon the place and followed up-to-date methods in his work with the result that his resources steadily increased.

Mr. Davis was married in Iowa to Miss Carolina Snoddy, a native of Clay county, Indiana, and a daughter of James and Anna (Kendall) Snoddy, the former native of Kentucky and the latter of Tennessee. The father died in Indiana and the mother removed with her children to Iowa and there spent her last years.

Obit: Bellefontaine Republican, Tuesday, August 10, 1902 - Mrs. Orrie (SNODDY) Guthrie, wife of Mr. Elmer Guthrie, died Monday morning of peritonitis, leaving a two-week old babe. She was a faithful member of the Christian Church and her funeral services will be conducted by Rev. W. T. Groom, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The young couple had been married but two years, and the husband has the sympathy of all who know him, in this great bereavement. (Provided by Tammy Mansfield, Bellefontaine, Ohio.)

Tammy Mansfield (zcc@bright.net) wrote on December 30, 2001:

Greetings, Is the Abner Snoddy you list the father of Orrie Snoddy b. 1862 in Ohio and d. 1903 in Bellefontaine, Ohio? If so, he is my g.g. grandfather. If this is the same Abner, I would appreciate any information you could send me. I have had a lot of trouble tracing this side of my family as Orrie died 2 wks after giving birth to my grandfather. Thank you, Tammy (Henry) Mansfieldzcc@bright.net .

Carol,

After I emailed you I found your familytreemaker page. I was thrilled!! Yes this is the correct line.

Orrie and Elmer Guthrie were my great grandparents. They had one child, Earl Harbert Guthrie, my grandfather. Orrie died Aug., 1902, 2 weeks after Earl was born. Elmer died in 1908. My mother said her father, Earl, was raised by a family named Costin. Must be Eldorado, maybe.

I can send you what information I have from Earl down. It is mostly just personal knowledge and some photographs. I am new to genealogy, just started this past summer, so I don't have any software yet. I can mail you copies of my papers if you want to send me your address. Mine is: 3854 S. Co. Rd. 5, Bellefontaine, Ohio 43311.

My mother will be thrilled when I tell her I found this information as Orrie was her grandmother and the family was never sure about her life or that of her father's after his parent's died. He was orphaned at age 6.

Your new cousin,
Tammy

Notes for ABNER SNODDY:

548 - HISTORY OF LOGAN COUNTY, OHIO - CHAPTER XXIV - LIBERTY TOWNSHIP was sliced from Union in 1831, Mad River enters it near the southeast corner and traverses the southern portion, skirting along the eastern and southern portion of West Liberty, down into Champaign County. McKee's Creek starts in at the northeast corner, taking a zigzag course, entering Union on the farm of A. R. Harner.

In this township may be found several miniature lakes-the largest, covering ten acre, on the farm of M. Eddy. The stream, including Mad River, running through this township, are McKee's Creek-named from Col. McKee, a military man, and a British Indian Agent and Muddy Run. The timber consists of burr oak, hickory and white oak. Among the first officers of this township were Peter Stipp, Judge Wm. McBeth, David Williams and Charles Hildebrand. Wm. Henry is probably the first man who assessed the township, there being at that period but one assessor for the County. Mr. Henry is now dead. Among the first settlers were Thomas Baird and two sons, the Newall family-Samuel Newall coming from Kentucky in about 1808,-the Shields, Henry Fulton, James Walds and three son, the Hayes family, Samuel Blair, Col: John Walds, Abner Snoddy, William Gray and family, William McBeth and family, Vachal Blaylock, John Dunn, the Grindles, William Burkhardt, Gerton Broughton, a cooper by trade, now residing in Bellefontaine twine; William Creviston, John Creviston, Judge Shelby, Henry Secrist, Sr., Lynx Wiler John K. Little Rock - An informal duel with fatal results

Little Rock, June 19. -- Saturday night Wheatly, a little village on the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad, was the theater of a frightful double tragedy. The victims were SNODDY and WALKER, a firm who had been engaged in the milling business at that place, who differed concerning the final settlement of the partnership accounts, WALKER claiming that SNODDY was withholding money belonging to him.

Hearing that the latter intended leaving town, WALKER armed himself and met SNODDY in front of his dwelling. A virtual duel ensued. SNODDY shot WALKER in the stomach and was himself shot through the heart. He dropped dead in his tracks. WALKER died last night. Both men were respected citizens.

A strange fatality has followed the family of WALKER. Two of his sons were murdered in Mississippi three months ago. A brother was killed a year since in Colorado, and WALKER himself adds another to the members of the family who have met violent deaths. (Information provided by Marvin D. Snoddy)

253. JAMES MADISON⁸ SNODDY, SR. (JOHN MOSES⁷, SAMUEL⁶, JOHN⁵, SAMUEL⁴, ?JOSEPH³, WILLIAM², ?¹) was born Aug 14, 1870 in Gainsville, TX, and died Nov 21, 1923 in Warner, OK. He married SUSANNAH BARBARA FRANK Sep 22, 1891 in Hunt Co, TX. She was born Aug 14, 1870 in MO, and died Unknown in OK.

Notes for JAMES MADISON SNODDY, SR.:

Obit - Mr. James Madison SNODDY, was born in Gainsville, Texas, August 14, 1870, and died very suddenly while at work November 21, 1923. Age 53 years 3 months and 7 days. He was converted August 8, 1891, and united with the Methodist Church. He was always delighted to worship at the alter of the church, and to serve it, because of his fondness for it. He has always felt he was a part of its machinery, and taken special delight in its operations. He was married to Miss Susannah Barbara Frank, September 22, 1891. To this union 8 children were born 7 which are still living. The oldest son Rev. G. E. B. Snoddy is in second year as pastor of our church at Pittsburg, Oklahoma. James M. Snoddy, Jr., is an active layman in Phillips Memorial, church North McAlester, Anna Mary Snoddy, teacher in the public schools in Coalgate, Mattie Lee Snoddy, teacher in the public schools at Healtou, Oklahoma, Nettie Fay Snoddy, teacher in the public schools at Centrahoma, Olive Dale and Bertha May Snoddy, attending the public schools at Coalgate, where the family is now living. He and his beloved companion were both the same age, having been born the same night. They were both baptized by the same preacher, and he also married them. They came to Indian Territory 22 years ago and settled at Phillips, they returned to Texas and stayed for 6 years, then returning to Coalgate. He received an injury in the coal pit that resulted in total blindness for several months. He has served on the Official Board of the Methodist Church for 19 years. He has an enlarged picture of the children taken while they were babies, of which he was very proud, the first one the writer has ever seen. He leaves his children, brothers, sisters, three grandchildren and his life companion to mourn their loss. The family circle is broken here, but in due time it shall be complete over there. Though they are bereaved, yet it is a delight to be taken into the family circle, and talk of heavenly things, of which they all delight. [Obit provided by Mavin Delano Snoddy, Nashville, TN.]

"I have Nancy Jane SNODDY STRADER remarrying to a John C. STOOPS about 1910. I do not remember if Nelita sent me this or not. She probably did. After our house burned I am lucky that I have any records at all.

I also have her birth as 26 May 1881 in Kinney Co., TX and her death as 11 Jul 1913 in Coal Co., OK. I guess this is the reason her children were living with her brother, Charles SNODDY, on the 1920 census."

Samuel William "Bill" Snoddy was born on April 24, 1859, in Monroe Co, IN. He was the oldest of two sons born to William H. Snoddy and his first wife, Louisa Dale, who died soon after the birth of her second child. When Bill was five years old, his father married again. William's second wife was Susan (Woodward) Adams, a young widow with a daughter by her previous marriage. Five children were born to their union.

Bill was raised in Perry Township on a farm near Salt Creek. Some people considered him to be a little wild. While in his twenties he was arrested three separate times in Monroe County. The charges filed against him included assault and battery, carrying a concealed weapon, and assault with intent to commit murder.

On June 2, 1891, at the age of 32, he married Ellen Elizabeth Knight, the daughter of a neighboring farmer. She was about 39. With age, or perhaps marriage, Bill settled down and began farming on a piece of property near that of his father. Although no children were born to Bill and Ellen, they were not without a child. In 1890, Ellen's teenage nephew, John Butcher, came to live with them and stayed there many years. Undoubtedly, he was a big help around the farm. The next few years were uneventful. Then in 1911, Bill was accused, along with his half-brother, Tobe, and several others of whitecapping Harvey McFarland. Altogether, eight men were charged with the crime.

There were two trials. The first trial, in which the accused were tried jointly, resulted in a hung jury. A second trial was ordered in which the men would be tried separately. As a consequence, Tobe and one other man were found guilty, a third man tried with the same evidence was found "not guilty," and Bill's trial ended with another hung jury. Interest in the case, at that point, dwindled. The remaining four men were never tried.

Three years later, in 1914, cancer claimed Ellen's life. She was buried in Clear Creek Cemetery near her home.

In 1917, Bill married again. His second wife was Kate (Sexton) Hoffman, a much younger woman who was so recently divorced that the ink was barely dry on her papers. Her relationship with Bill seemed rocky from the start. After only two years, Kate filed for divorce. Her complaints against Bill were much like those she had made against her first husband. She claimed Bill cursed her, kicked her, called her names, and made her fear for her life.

Noting that Bill was a man of "large means" and she was "practically without any means at all," she asked the court for alimony in the sum of $5000. While Kate waited for the court to act, she left for Illinois in the company of John Butcher (Bill's nephew and the young man with whom he had shared his home). She returned to Monroe County in 1920 and married John there on the very day her divorce became final. One disappointing aspect to marr her wedding day was the amount of her divorce settlement --- only $250.

None the worse for wear, Bill married again later that same year. His third wife was Sarah M. (Chandler) Night. Sarah, like Kate, had been divorced. Her ex-husband, George L. Knight, was serving time in prison for burning down a building to collect the insurance money. A few years previously, her daughter, May, took her own life by drinking poison rather than deal with the complexities of divorce and single parenting. Sarah was raising May's small daughter, Margaret, and Margaret joined Sarah in Bill's home.

The next year, sometime during the summer, Bill hurt his foot. He hardly gave it a thought, but the foot wouldn't heal. Weeks, then months, dragged by. There were days when he couldn't get out of bed. In 1922, a visiting doctor was brought in to consult. It was his opinion that the foot had become gangrene and amputation could restore Bill's health. Bill was, however, not as optimistic. The next day he travelled to the courthouse and made out his will. On the morning of the next day, July 14, 1922, Sarah got up and fixed Bill's breakfast as usual. Then she took Margaret to the barn where they milked the cows. When two pails were full, Margaret was sent to the house with them. She entered through the back door and afterwards walked onto the front porch. That's where she found Bill, rifle in his hand - a hole through his heart.

Bill was buried in Clear Creek Cemetery next to his first wife. When Sarah died many years later in 1946, she was buried next to her first husband and daughter, May Vint, in Rose Lawn Cemetery. Margaret married twice. Her first husband was James R. Morris; her second was Robert Reveal whom she married in 1941.

William Snoddy's Farm to be Sold

Bloomington (Indiana) Evening World, August 2, 1922, p. 3.

PUBLIC SALE ON THE FARM OF SNODDY

Attorney Sare and Attorney Miller, acting as executor and attorney of the estate of William Snoddy who committed suicide a short time ago at his home seven miles southeast of the city, have completed the inventory and the appraisal of the personal property and have advertised it for a public sale on August 9 at the old home.

This will probably be one of the largest sales held in Monroe County for some time. Mr. Snoddy has accumulated a large amount of farm tools and equipment of all kinds, as well as livestock. He had horses, cattle and hogs, a Jack, a stallion, and a great variety of tools as well as a blacksmith shop, a house-moving outfit and a hay press.

The appraisers found a large lot poplar weather boarding and lumber that has been stored for several years and the like of which could probably not now be bought at any price.

It is intended that all this property be sold and the sale will no doubt attract a large crowd on account of the great variety of stuff to be sold. (Information provided by Randi Richardson)

260. TOBIAS "TOBE" PETER⁸ SNODDY (*WILLIAM H.*⁷, *SAMUEL*⁶, *JOHN*⁵, *SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born Jun 29, 1867 in Monroe Co, IN, and died Apr 27, 1928 in Bloomington, Monroe Co, IN. He married (1) IDA C. MCGEE Dec 25, 1892 in Monroe Co, IN, daughter of GEORGE MCGEE and LAURA BUTCHER. She was born Jul 12, 1875, and died Dec 02, 1897. He married (2) DELLA P. HENDERSON Oct 13, 1901 in Monroe Co, IN, daughter of F. ANDERSON and R. STEPHENS. She was born 1883 in IN, and died Unknown. He married (3) IDA L. MAY Mar 10, 1917 in Monroe Co, IN. She was born Aug 04, 1890 in IN, and died Unknown in Monroe Co, IN.

Notes for TOBIAS "TOBE" PETER SNODDY:

TOBE SNODDY was born on June 29, 1867, in Monroe County, Indiana. He was the second of five children born to the union of William H. Snoddy, a native of Owen County, Indiana, and his second wife, Susan (Woodward) Adams.

Tobe grew up in Perry Township. When he was 25 years old he married 15-year-old Ida C. McGee, the daughter of George W. and Laura (Butcher) McGee, on Christmas day, 1892. They had two children together: Laura who was born on October 10, 1894; and Flora Belle on October 22, 1895. In 1897, Ida came down with typhoid fever and died after a brief illness.

In 1901, at the age of 34, Tobe took a second bride, 19-year-old Della Anderson, the daughter of F. and R. (Stephens) Anderson. They had a son, Henry, born on January 26, 1903.

The family seemed to prosper financially. By 1909 Tobe was part owner of the Adams and Snoddy ice business on the west side of the square. He also owned a sawmill and several other tracts of land.

In 1911, he began to feud with Martha, a matriarch of the McFarland family, over the property rights of some land in the Paynetown area. Martha had a brother named Harvey, a rather obnoxious fellow who was not well liked.

One day late that spring, Harvey let his horses into a graveyard to graze. That was a perfect excuse for Tobe and some of his friends to whitecap Harvey by stripping him of his clothes and whipping him severely. A few days later, prodded by Martha, Harvey came into town and charged Toby and seven others with breaking the law.

The men were tried jointly a few months later, and that trial ended in a hung jury. It was then decided that the men should be tried separately. Tobe's case was the first to be heard. Six days later he was convicted of whitecapping. One other man, Silas Adams, was also convicted. Both were sentenced to serve from two to fourteen years in prison.

Tobe came home from prison in 1915 just in time to be sued for a divorce by his wife. About two months later, on December 8, Flora Belle died of TB. While the case was being appealed to a higher court, Tobe and Silas remained active in the community. Laura, Tobe's oldest daughter, married Henry J. Evans in 1912; Flora Belle married Frank Guy in January, 1913. A few days before Flora Belle was married, Tobe received word that the higher court supported the lower court's decision. So, just two days after the wedding, Tobe and Silas met at Bloomington's Monon station to board the train that would take them to Michigan City. They were joined there by many well wishers.

A young divorcee, Ida L. Norris, helped him to take his mind off his troubles. Ida was the daughter of Tillman and Susan (East) May. She married Tobe in Bloomington on March 10, 1917. She was 27; he was 49. Ida had a son, Robert, by her previous marriage and together with Tobe she had three more children: Earl Leon born 1918, Theresa born 1920, and Dortha in 1923.

Early in 1928, Toby's health began to fail as a result of heart trouble. He died on April 27 of that year at the home of his daughter, Laura. He is buried at Clear Creek Cemetary south of Bloomington.

He retired this past year from the Illinois Cereal Mill in Paris, Illinois.

Following his retirement, he continued his home-based business of designing and casting rubber stamps and also plastic engraving. Frank will be remembered in many ways, from the many people, young and old, for whom he made balloon animals and flowers (he always carried a pocket full of balloons); to his fellow motorcyclists who had the pleasure of his humorous company on trips (his and Shirley's love for motorcycling took them to forty-three states, including a ride while vacationing in Hawaii); to those who shared his love for a friendly game of pool; to those he met for the first time and immediately became friends; to his Charleston High School classmates who nicknamed him "Tank", a reference to his size as well as his big heart and outstanding football talent; to his fellow

Jeff Gordon Fans; to fans of other NASCAR drivers he chided when their favorite driver lost; and, to his family whom he dearly loved and treasured. Frank embraced his family and life with passion and many will miss this happy, cheerful man who had the ability to make us laugh, to make us smile and to make our days somewhat brighter. Frank's family requests that memorial gifts in his honor be made to the American Diabetes Association, American Cancer Society or the American Heart Association. Memorial gifts may be made at the Visitation or Services, or mailed to Adams Funeral Chapel, 2330 Shawnee Drive, Charleston, IL 61920. 1900 Census, East Oakland, Coles Co, IL

Notes for DIAL PEARL ESTELLE SNODDY:

Below is information compiled by Dial Snoddy Prim [sent to me by James Greer Lingle of Rogers, AR]:

Notes from Claudie Hallie Rose Prim:

"Mamma had 5 sisters and 5 brothers. Mamma's oldest brother, Elec Snoddy, had epilepsy. Mamma, her brother Henry, and sister Nancy Karr, took turns keeping him. When Elec was at our house he had to have the East bedroom downstairs. Aunt Mollie bought clothes for him. When none of Mamma's brothers and sisters would take care of him, he stayed at our house all the time. This caused friction between my Mother and Dad, but Mamma had promised her Mother than she would always take care of him. She did. He died at our house and is buried at Houston Cemetery.

The tall headstones in Houston Cemetery were her parents and one brother Earnest who was killed by a train. When her parents died Mamma and Earnest made the crops. Uncle Ace and his wife, Effie, lived close to Uncle Henry. I suppose it was all part of the original Snoddy farm of their parents. Uncle Henry had a Dodge touring car. We rode with him a time or two to Decoration at Houston Cemetery. Hallie and Rose were two of Mamma's sisters. I spent lots of time with them. Aunt Rose always bought pretty hats for me. She thought everyone should wear a hat. I never liked to wear one except straw hat in the hot sun sometimes wore a bonnet. Aunt Hallie married Ben Douglass. He worked in the mines and later the bank in Coal Hill. When the bank went broke they went to Poteau, Oklahoma. I think that was a mining area. When they weren't making a living there, their oldest son Jim and Uncle Ben went to Detroit, Michigan to find work. Uncle Ben worked for a stove company, Jim was a bookkeeper and found an excellent job there for a reliable company and I can't remember which one.

Claud L. (Lee) Prim and Dial P. Snoddy were married at Alex, Arkansas on the 6th day of January 1907.

Births:

Dorothy Helen Prim October 11, 1907 (Married Ray Armstrong- One Daughter Dorothy Dial Armstrong Jacobs)

William (Willie) Henry Prim November 8, 1909 (Later called himself Bill) Later my brother Bill (William Henry) went to Detroit and stayed with Aunt Hallie until he found work. He married a girl named Beulah. They had a daughter named Gloria. He then married a Coal Hill girl named Virginia Quail. They married and had two boys, Terry ___ and Jerry Joe Prim. Virginia was a beautician and after brother Bill married her and sold ironing boards for a while, he went to beauty school and became a hair dresser. He and Virginia divorced. He went to Little Rock and met a girl named Edna Louise _____. They had a son named Alfred Joe. She died but Alfred Joe lives in Little Rock

Joe Ralph Prim March 24, 1912 (Wife Minnie - one son Joe Bill)

Claud Hallie Rose Prim July 24, 1917 (My name in the Bible was Claud Hallie Rose Prim. I don't know why because there were two boys before me. By the time I was school age I was Claudie.) – Married Virgil Greer Lingle on October 2, 1936. – had two children-Jim and Myra Helen Lingle Earls).

Grandma Snoddy's maiden name was Dial. Mamma was the youngest of 6 girls in her family. Her parents were dead when she married. Uncle Henry was Jim Snoddy's Dad. Jim Snoddy was a state senator and ran for governor in 1956. Uncle Henry drove a Dodge touring car. He took us in it once or twice to Decoration (First Sunday in May) at Houston Cemetery. The tall tombstones close to Helen and Ray's graves are my mother's parents, Dorothy and Richard Snoddy, a brother Ernest, who died very young, run over by a train because he was drunk, lying on the track, and Uncle Asa (we called him Ace) died of cancer. His wife was named Effie. They didn't have any children. I remember going to his house to pick cherries, he chided me because I couldn't pick cherries very fast. There was another brother, Elmer, don't know how he died but some childhood disease I guess." Below is information compiled by Dial Snoddy Prim [sent to me by James Greer Lingle of Rogers, AR]:

Memories of Carrie Olive Renegar Darrow

Great-granddaughter of David Snoddy (grandson of Samuel Snoddy)

These are the recollections of Carrie Renegar Darrow. They were written for, and told to, her 4 sons in 1979, at the age of 80. There are a few differences in names and places; i.e., "came from Holland", was probably called Deutchland by her grandfather, other corrections have been made.

"My grandparents on my mother's side were named, Snoddy. They had 14 children and all lived to be grown. They lived on a farm in middle Tennessee, not far from Kelso. We lived a few miles from them when I lived in Tennessee. My grandfather Snoddy was named John. He died in 1905. My grandmother Snoddy was named Eliza. My grandmother died after we came to Oklahoma.

My grandfather Renegar was Dutch. He came from Holland when he was a small boy. His name was Wilbur.

He and my grandmother had 5 children, 4 girls and 1 boy. The girls were Christina Walker, Mary Route, Loretta Martin, and Fannie. The boy became my Daddy. His name was James Franklin Davidson Renegar. He and Elsie Snoddy married and had 4 children. 3 boys and 1 girl.

We lived in Tennessee near a little town called Kelso, which was not many miles from Fayetteville. Three of us children were born there and one was born in Cordell, Oklahoma about 1908 (LaVoy). He died when he was two or three weeks old.

We lived in Tennessee where 4 main traveled roads crossed and the community was called Crossroads. There was a school house and church. Also, my parents had the post office in their house. He was postmaster there for a few years. There was a big woods east of our house which extended for several miles. For recreation the people in that community had fish fries, taffy pulls, and played games. They also had log rollings. The community would get together, the men would cut trees and make logs out of them, and the women would all get together and fix big dinners for them. They would take these logs to a river and float them to a saw mill to make lumber out of them.

My grandfather and grandmother Renegar lived with us until we came to Oklahoma. He just had one eye, so they didn't take him into the Army. He stayed home and made shoes for the soldiers.

The James F. Renegar's came to Oklahoma in November 1905. We farmed in 1906, 2 miles west of Cordell. My daddy quit farming and we moved to Cordell. He worked in a lumber yard.

When my mother was growing up, they didn't have wash boards. They would take their wash to a spring which was on the farm. It was quite a ways down a hill from their house and they would beat the clothes with a board until they got clean. They used lye soap, which they made at home. My grandmother Snoddy spun the thread out of cotton which they raised, also wool they sheared from their sheep. After they got the thread spun, they wove material out of the thread and made them all their clothes out of it. They gathered some kind of berries out in the woods and dyed some of the material blue. They made the men's suits and their Sunday clothes out of the blue material. They made the sheets and underwear out of the white material. They made blankets and the men's Sunday suits out of the wool material.

The people grew sugar cane and made molasses and stored it in barrels to use all year. They grew a lot of apples in Tennessee. They would store them in a cellar and they would have apples all winter. People dried a lot of fruit in those days.

We left an old spinning wheel at our house in Tennessee when we came to Oklahoma. She never did use it after she and my Daddy married. My Mother was born September 8, 1870. My Daddy, James Franklin Renegar, was born September 10, 1862. He was 8 years older than my Mother. They were married September 8, 1890. My Daddy had 4 sisters, Loretta, Kristeen, Mary, and Fannie.

My Daddy was the only boy, and the youngest of 5 children. His Daddy's name was Wilber Renegar. He was Dutch. He came from overseas when he was a small boy. They settled in middle Tennessee near the small town of Kelso. Which isn't far from Fayetteville, Tennessee.

James Franklin married Ida Elsie Snoddy. She was 20 and he was 28. They moved to a farm near Kelso, Tennessee where 2 boys and a girl were born to them. Owen F., Carrie Olive, and Loris Afton. In 1905, we moved to Oklahoma. We lived on a farm one mile west of Cordell, for one year, then we moved into town. My Daddy worked at a lumber yard and my oldest brother, Owen worked at a printing office for a while then he started to school at the Cordell Academy, where he graduated. Then, he began to study law, and passed the bar exam. He taught school a few years, then he ran of county judge. He was defeated the first time, then he tried again 2 years later and got to be county judge of Washita County.

I was nearly 7 years younger than him. I, Carrie Renegar Darrow, finished high school at the Cordell High School in 1919. Then I got a teaching job at the Canute Consolidated School and taught the 4th and 5th grades for three years. My brother, Loris, was born May 1, 1905. He finished high school in Cordell. He taught school a few years, then in 1924 or 1925, he moved to Oklahoma City and got a string of service stations.

After James F. Renegar and Elsie Ida moved to Cordell, there was a little boy born to them. He died when he was only a few weeks old. His name was LaVoy.

When I was 4 or 5 years, and lived in Tennessee, my parents kept the post office for a few years. One day I was looking into things and I found a doll in one of the post office boxes. It was for Santa Claus to bring me for Christmas. That Christmas, a number of the community women went to the church building and trimmed the tree with popcorn and paper chains. I remember going with my Mother. She was going to help. That was the Christmas I got the doll.

We lived close to a forest when we lived in Tennessee. I had a swing in our yard. We had sheep, cow, hogs, and horses. My Mother would pick the ducks to make feather beds and pillows, and shear the sheep for wool to sell.

When I was a baby, I had [diarrhig]. All the babies that had it but me died. We left Tennessee in 1905 and never did go back until after Floyd and I married and had 2 children. In 1925, Floyd and I and Charles, 3 years, and Wayne, 9 months, also my brother Owen and family, 3 children, my brother Loris and 2 children, and my Mother and Daddy went back to our old home, and was gone 3 weeks. It took us a week to go, and a week to come back. Floyd and I, Charles and Iva Pearl went again. We went to a small Church of Christ that served as a school when we lived there. It was near our farm where we lived before we came to Oklahoma."

Notes for MAVIS BENTON PHILLIPS: Grandmother Snoddy suffered from pellagra. (Riboflavin nutrient deficiency is known as pellagra, usually found in those who do not consume a diet rich in organ meats, dairy, leafy greens and whole grains.) She also had "female problems" - from what I've been able to piece together, she basically had her menses cycle continuously. The only time she quit bleeding was when she was pregnant. She was so weak that she was in the bed most of the time.

Aunt Lela said that Granddaddy Snoddy told Lela to make sure Grandmother ate a biscuit and gravy every morning, but Grandmother didn't want the biscuit; so, she would have Aunt Lela go hide the biscuit, so Granddaddy wouldn't know she didn't eat it.

Daddy tells a story about he, Lela and Betty Faye loading Grandmother in a wheelbarrow and nearly losing control while rolling her downhill.

BLACK JACK, TEXAS (Robertson County). Black Jack is a small rural community located at the junction of Farm roads 2549 and 391 about four miles east of Hearne in south central Robertson County. The settlement probably began by the early 1900s. During the 1930s highway maps showed Black Jack School and a church in the community. The school closed sometime in the mid-1900s, and Black Jack remained a dispersed community. The population was forty-five in 2000.

Notes for EDNA IRENE SNODDY:

Obit: from The Florence Times of Florence, Alabama dated June 9, 1922. On June 5th the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde SNODDY and claimed their darling little babe. Little Irene was one year and six months of age. She had been sick for several months. All that loving hands could do was done for her, but the Lord knows best. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh. She had just learned to walk and talk when the Lord called her to join the little angels in heaven.

Weep not, dear parents, for we know she is sleeping in the arms of Jesus.

We had a little treasure once,
She was our joy and pride;
We loved her, oh, perhaps too well,
For soon she slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling,
Lonely are our hearts today,
For the one we loved so dearly,
Has forever passed away.

Mrs. Willie Trousdale.

352. CHARLES WADE⁹ HEMPHILL (*CUBA*⁸, *ELIZABETH MARGARET*⁷ SNODDY, *ADAM*⁶, *WILLIAM*⁵, *SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born Mar 16, 1881 in Hemphill Prairie, Bastrop Co, TX, and died Jan 25, 1968 in Coleman Co, TX. He married WAGIE ELLEN CARTER Aug 17, 1902. She died Nov 30, 1963 in Coleman Co, TX.

Notes for CHARLES WADE HEMPHILL:
C. W. HEMPHILL FAMILY
by Verna Marie Hemphill Kelley

From A History of Coleman County and Its People, 1985
edited by Judia and Ralph Terry, and Vena Bob Gates - used by permission

In order to escape religious persecution in Wales, the "Jamisons" fled to Ireland where they became hemp growers. Because they planted hemp in hills, contrary to the customary practice, the neighbors began to call them "hemp-hillers;" thus their name became "Hemphills."

Charles Wade (C. W.) was the first child of W. C. Hemphill and his wife, Cuba, born March 16, 1881, in Bastrop County at Hemphill Prairie. He came to Trickham with his family when he was ten years old. While he was a sixteen-year old senior at Santa Anna High School, his father died; he dropped out of school to become the breadwinner for his mother and seven younger brothers and sisters. For a short time he operated his father's grocery store; then he purchased 1600 acres of ranch land near Trickham for his mother. After a period of hard times, he was in debt and just about at the end of his financial rope, when he decided to try growing cotton. The very day that he sold enough of his first cotton crop to have $1,100, he rode ten miles into Santa Anna where he paid off his debt. During the next few years he raised cattle only to find himself in difficult straits again, since the livestock market continued to drop.

Mr. Hemphill's fortune began to change from the time that he and Wagie Ellen Carter married on August 17, 1902. Wagie had graduated from Howard Payne College in 1901 and she was a school teacher in the neighborhood schools. At the age of two, she, along with her family, had come to Texas from Rockwood, Tennessee, where her family had moved, after the family tobacco farms in Virginia, had been ravaged by the "Yankees" during the Civil War.

In 1905, C. W. moved to Coleman where Charlie, as he was then called, obtained a job in the office of Sam Gilliland, County Tax Assessor-Collector. After a few months, Charlie decided that he could never reach his goal of being financially secure at what he was doing; he decided that he should be a banker. Mr. L. E. Collins, the town banker, gave him a job in the old First National Bank at $35 a month. Finally Mr. Hemphill got a break in his financial status when he and the cashier of the bank teamed up to speculate in livestock. The men bought the first load of cattle at $20 a head and in a short time were able to sell all the steers for $27 a head. As soon as he had accumulated a small amount of money, he made a down payment on some land. He was confident that the land would pay for itself. In 1916, Mr. Hemphill and several other residents organized the Central State Bank at Coleman and the directors selected Charlie as the president. The country was in World War I; the livestock market had fallen. Probably the deal that saved the bank, and Mr. Hemphill, was his leasing of 50 sections of land in West Texas, then released the land to West Texas Sportsmen.

During the Great Depression in 1932, the three banks of Coleman reorganized and reopened under the name of First Coleman National Bank. It was a source of great pride to Mr. Hemphill that not a depositor in any of the three banks lost a cent of money. Mr. Hemphill served the new bank as executive-president until he retired. On March 16, 1945, Charlie's 65th birthday, he announced his retirement. On that same day, the directors chose Wade Hemphill to be the new executive president of the bank and they made Mr. Hemphill an officer of the loan committee. Mr. Hemphill was often asked what he attributed his success to and he always would say: "I am not a self-made man. Mrs. Hemphill worked as hard or harder than I ever did. She was very astute in analyzing business deals, and I consulted with her about any venture that I was considering. Somehow her judgment was always correct about the integrity of people." They both sought two things from life: opportunities for their children and financial security for themselves. They both believed that happiness came from accomplishments, that it was sinful to be wasteful, that education made for more opportunities in life, and that an opportunity once neglected could never be reclaimed. Wagie was a very private person who spent most of her life at home, where she was doing house work, preparing meals, sewing shirts for the boys and dresses for the girls. She made sure that each of her children could read, write, and do arithmetic before he started to school. She insisted that each girl learn to play some musical instrument. She visited neighbors, invited women in for visits in the afternoon, and often in the evenings, she and Charlie played forty-two with other couples.

To this union of Charles Wade and Wagie Ellen, eight children were born, all at Coleman:

(1) Hays, Pharmacist, born February 9, 1904, never married, deceased December 27, 1928, buried at Coleman.

(2) Charles Wade, Jr., banker-rancher (see Charles Wade Hemphill, Jr.).

(3) Dr. Lee, Minister-educator, born November 2, 1907, married to Lunelle Nix. Children: Rosalee, married to Milford Prichard, Jr.; and Hilton, married to Carolyn Armstrong.

(4) Verna Marie, educator, born May 1, 1909. First marriage, Dr. E.W. Schmidt, child, Joanne Louise. Second marriage, Frank E. Kelley.

(5) Mary Louise, educator, born March 9, 1911. Married to J. D. Cobb. Children: David Carlton, married to Gail Martin; and Gary, married to Deborah Short.

(6) Ruth Ellen, educator, born May 20, 1916, married to James Wittenburg. Children: Jimmie Ruth, married to R. W. Evans, Jr., Mary Lee and Charlie Joe.

(7) Dorothy Belle, born April 4, 1919, married to Peter James McNee, Jr., deceased March 13, 1972, buried at Henderson. Children: Janet, married to Dr. John C. Newkirk; Marjorie, married to Rick Rike; and PeterJames, III, married to Sheryl Suzanne Smith.

(8) Zeno, rancher (see Zeno Hemphill Family).

When Charlie and Wagie became physically incapacitated, Wade assumed the sole responsibility for them. Wade and his father had a special kind of relationship, for they had worked together at the bank and the ranch all of Wade's life. It was Wade who carried them to the doctors, picked up their medicines, hired and fired the household help, bought the groceries, listened to their complaints, and tried to satisfy their whims. In June 1967, one Tuesday morning Wade, helped his father into the car so that they could attend a Directors Meeting at the bank. Wade helped him into his chair where he sat throughout the meeting perhaps without hearing a word that was said or recognizing anyone. On the way home, Mr. Hemphill turned to Wade and said, "Take me to the hospital." He was admitted to the Overall Memorial Hospital where he spent the remaining eight months of his life. In his sleep, he would often cry out, "where are my spurs" or "help me with my saddle" or "hold my horse," or "Wagie." Wagie Carter Hemphill had died from a heart attack on November 30, 1963. Charles Wade Hemphill died January 25, 1968. They are interred in the Coleman Cemetery.

HERMAN WALTER⁹ SNODDY (*DEWITT C.*⁸, *GREENBERRY T.*⁷, *GRAHAM*⁶, *WILLIAM*⁵, *SAMUEL*⁴, *?JOSEPH*³, *WILLIAM*², ?¹) was born Apr 09, 1888 in Crab Orchard, Williamson Co, IL, and died Feb 19, 1957 in Kansas City, Johnson Co, KS. He married ORA LEE OLIVER May 10, 1911 in Kansas City, Johnson Co, KS. She was born Dec 11, 1891 in Bates City, Lafayette Co, MO, and died Mar 14, 1985 in Joplin, Jasper Co, MO.

Notes for HERMAN WALTER SNODDY:

Not much of Herman life in Illinois is known at this time. After his father died in Illinois, we find Herman being a teenager in Arcadia, Ks., in 1905. We have a picture with the Arcadia City Band, as he was the bass drum player.

We know that he later lived with his mother and step father for several years and he could have worked in the mines and as a retail clerk for a period of time and then left Arcadia for life in the big city of Kansas City. In Kansas City he was working with his future brother-in-law in an enterprise of selling fruit and sandwiches to the train passengers as they stopped over in Kansas City of layovers etc. Archer was the surname of his partner and Archer was married to Jane Oliver of Bates City. Herman caught the eye of Jane's mother when she came to visit her daughter and son-in-law. Thus on her return to Bates City, she told her young daughter of the good looking fellow who was working with her brother-in-law. In the 1900's there was a trolley car line that ran between Bates City and Kansas City area. Thus it was easy for Herman and Ora to see each other for the relationship to progress to marriage. We know that upon the marriage that the couple moved to live on the farm of Ora Lee's father. Herman farmed the land and it is printed that he sent letters to Martha about his progress on the farm as he sent her proof that the crops were good. Martha made trips to Kansas City according to the newspaper in Arcadia to visit Herman and his new bride. Plus we know that Herman and Ora made visits to Arcadia to visit his sister and mother there in Arcadia. We find that after Dea was born the family moved to Arcadia, possibly due to the death of Ora's father, or the sale of the farm. We also know that Herman bought the hotel and cafe there in Arcadia shortly after returning to Arcadia.

Herman Restaurant featured Lunch at all hours of the day, Full Meals were .25 cents and for $4.50 one could purchase meals tickets worth $5.00.... the Restaurant phone number was #67 Arcadia Kansas. The chief cook at the cafe was Harry BORO.... beside full meals one could attain Short Orders and Tobacco, Candy and Cold Drinks.

Herman Cate located at the Commercial Hotel Stand, Motto was "GOOD EATS & QUICK SERVICE

In a few months after buying the Restaurant, Herman purchased the Hotel above the cafe. As the Hotel was on the second floor. Herman bought the Commercial Hotel from Mrs. E. B. JOHNSON who was retiring to her farm out by LeRoy, Mo.

The building is still standing that he owned. The hotel was on the second floor with the cafe was on the first floor. Catfish was a specialty of the cafe. Rosa Lee said that her father took pride in the Chili that he served in the cafe.

Sometime between the last visit to Arcadia, that Chris and Rosalie made the building has burned down. Much of the structure of the building is still standing. As the fire claimed the roof and much of the wall of the building supporting the second floor.

JOPLIN___ Herman and Ora SNODDY had two residences also they owned two grocery Stores in Joplin.. the last home residence was on Kentucky St that is still standing today.. and the store and property on the 200 block and 300 blocks of East 5th Street. The address for the store was 214 East 5th and this was located in the middle of the block. The store was a two story building. Apartments were on the 2nd floor and on the 1/3 of the lower part of the store was a laundry mat and wood working shop for grand dad that he used for maintenance of his houses and apartments.. he would make lawn furniture and furniture for the grandchildren. He bought a Sear Shop Craft Power saws, at table and band saws in the early 50's. He purchased all his tools from Sears.

In the early 50's the Meadow Gold Dairy was just across the alleyway and Herman would go over and purchase his ice cream for home on his own and let them make deliveries to the store.

Herman had a large floor console Philco Radio in his living room in the Kentucky house and he placed it in the southeast corner of the room and would have a chair next to the radio and listen to the radio broadcasts. Later when he purchased his first Television set the radio was moved into the family room in the south part of the house. The TV as I remember was a portable set that was on the west wall and Grandmother Ora had

On Herman's Death Certificate it states that he was born 4-9-1888 and was 68 years old and that he was born in Illinois, USA. and that his mother was Martha GOLD and his father was DeWitt SNODDY he was never in the USA Armed Services and that he had no Social Security number... the informant for the information was from Hospital Records and Relatives.

Herman had suffered 5 years with Ch. Lymphatic Leukemia and was a major cause of his death and Antecedent Causes was listed as 2040 and there was an autopsy performed on his body after death.

Doctor J. Harold Mams MD was his doctor and treated him from 1-23-1957 to 1-18-1957 and that his death was certified at 4:10 am on 2-18-1957.

D.W. Newcomers & Sons were in charge of making funeral arrangements out of Kansas City, Mo.

Herman died at the Kansas University Medical Hospital in Kansas City, Ks. is the reason the we have his Kansas Death Certificate, in Kansas.

An autobiographical note from John Hale Stutesman's book on Samuel Snoddy and Elizabeth Sloan:

"I was born in Washington, DC on December 16, 1920. My father was an officer of the U.S. Army, so I was raised on Army posts in Georgia, Kansas, and Massachusetts. I graduated from Princeton University in 1942 with honors in History, and promptly went to war. Four years later, a Captain of Artillery, decorated for bravery in the campaigns in Italy, I was commissioned in the U.S. Foreign Service, the corps which staffs the U.S. Embassies and Consulates abroad. After thirty years of that fascinating but arduous life, I retired to the pleasant peninsula of San Francisco."

Notes for MARGARET ANNE CHADWELL:

Margaret Ann Chadwell
Added by PGreenwood on 3 Mar 2008

"Margaret Anne Chadwell was the elder child and only daughter of Dr. Harris Marshall Chadwell and Margaret Curtis. She was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts on 7 January 1925. Margaret graduated from Swarthmore College in 1945. Her yearbook entry says: Margaret Anne Chadwell ..easy going, gentle Margie has an enviably creamy complexion and just as enviable an outlook.. she takes things seriously but keeps on the upswing... seems made for soft lights and music ... but she is an energetic Gwimper with unusual athletic ability... versatile interests... that mad urge to knit.. cherishes old friends.. a passion for Pan Americanism, but still loyal to New England. Following graduation Margaret was employed in the Department of State in Washington, D.C. In 1953 she is with the U.S. Department of Education in Washington. Source: The Chadwell Family, 1983, pg 88.

She followed Walt Howe to Jakarta and got him to marry her there. They were married for 24 years and had 4 children in 4 different countries. She divorced him in 1971 and married another man who had also been in the Foreign Service. In fact, they had been stationed in several different countries at the same time. Source: son, Richard Howe

From Swarthmore August 9, 2006: Margaret Anne Chadwell, was, indeed, Swarthmore, class of 1945, and according to the last information we have, as of 1999, she was Margaret Chadwell Stutesman, wife of John Hale Stutesman, living at the San Francisco Towers, Apt. 626; 1661 Pine St.; San Francisco, CA 94109-4524; phone: 415-447-5397.

Her son remembers the horror of her slow death with multiple systems atrophy. The disease would attack one system and then would all of a sudden attack another system. He says it took 5 years and in the end she didn't remember anyone in the family. Never the less, her second husband stood by her. She was in a new assisted living center in downtown San Francisco when she died. Source: son, Richard Marshall Howe, May 2006.

The only one of my father's relatives I met as child was his sister Sallie who married a man named Ray Purdue and lived in St. Louis. Based on a one page letter she sent me when I asked about her family, and the names she gave me for her brothers and sisters, and that grew up in Hunington WV, I believe I found them in the 1900 and 1910 census in Huntington WV. Although my father's name is given as James Willard Snoddy on his degrees and WWI papers in the census he is listed as Willard J Snoddy. I do have some court related papers on his name change to Docteux Jaimes DeFalaise in Kenton Co. KY. He was stationed in Normandy and I assume he took Falaise from that area. He went by Doc (as a name although he was also a pharmacist) DeFalaise. Comparing my Aunt's note to the Hunington Census his family would be:

Father William Snoddy b. June 1858 d. 1946 Mother Margaret Murphy b. April 1865 d. 1934 (born in KY says my Aunt) Children and birthdays John V August 1886 Willard J August 19, 1889 later James W. Snoddy then Doc DeFalaise my father Sarah A January 1891 Leo R April 1894 Ethel R April 1896 Loretta 1901 Sallie 1902

My Aunt wrote that her mother Mary Murphy was the daughter of John Murphy and Mary Cleary of Ireland. She also referred to my dad as Willard James so I assume sometime in his youth he inverted his middle and first name.

My father's father listed his parents as from KY in the 1900 census but from unknown in 1910. Loretta and Sallie's name were not listed in the 1910 but seemed to be generically lumped into a statement that they had seven children with five living.

"U.S. team thinks it has found CIA plane from 1952 crash in China" Posted on Mon, Jul. 29, 2002 by Michael Dorgan, Knight Ridder Newspapers:

"BEIJING - The members of a U.S. Army search team in the foothills of China's Jilin province reported Monday that they think they have found the wreckage of a CIA plane that crashed there while trying to pick up a Chinese spy the night of Nov. 29, 1952.

Chinese and U.S. troops were killing each other in Korea in 1952, and America was working hard to destabilize China's 3-year-old communist government. The mission that cold night in the region of northeastern China then known as Manchuria would not advance that cause, however. It was cut short by a burst of heavy-caliber machine-gun fire from the ground. The twin engine C-47 crashed, killing its two pilots and dooming two CIA agents on board to be captured and spend two decades in a Chinese prison.

Fifty years later, China's government finally is ready to put the matter to rest by allowing the United States to recover the remains of its two pilots, ROBERT C. SNODDY of Eugene, Ore., and Norman A. Schwartz of Louisville, Ky. [Snoddy and Schwartz were pilots for Civil Air Transport, a CIA proprietary airline that supported clandestine missions in the Far East.]

The pilots are believed to have been buried at the crash site. But their remains haven't been found, said Franklin Damann, a civilian member of the search team. Damann said the team, in a walking search with metal detectors, identified "a relatively concise pattern of debris" in an area of about 70 by 100 feet that came from a small aircraft. But he said none of the debris had identifying names or numbers, so the team would have to investigate further to be certain it had found the crash site. It was led to the site by a 78-year-old Chinese farmer who said he had helped bury the pilots.

Maj. James Becker, who led the eight-member team from the U.S. Army's Central Identification Laboratory, did not seem disappointed that the search hadn't produced concrete results so far. He emphasized that the team had made an initial investigation of the site that probably will be followed by a thorough excavation.

A Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman said earlier this month that China had allowed the search for the 1952 wreckage to promote "friendship between the two peoples and in a humanitarian spirit."

"50 years later, remains of pilot are closer to recovery" - By Andrew Kramer, Associated Press

PORTLAND, Ore. The sister of a Cold War-era spy pilot is a step closer to burying the remains of Robert C. Snoddy, who vanished 50 years ago in a covert mission over northeastern China. Ruth Boss, 78, of Creswell, said her brother never told her he worked for the CIA.

He told me, "Sis, I know you mean well, and I know you're nosey as heck. But don't ask me what I'm doing. If anything should happen, leave me be, "" she said in a phone interview. He was a big tease. You know how brothers are with sisters. I loved him dearly," Boss said.

On Tuesday, China agreed to allow forensic anthropologists from the U.S. Army Central Identification Laboratory in Hawaii to examine the site of the 1952 crash, the first time China has cooperated with the United States in looking for a Cold War-era soldier missing in action in that country. The news could not only bring peace of mind to the family, but close a decades-old mystery.

Foreign Ministry spokesman Liu Jianchao said China decided to permit the search based on the position of promoting friendship between the two peoples and in a humanitarian spirit. Chinese authorities told the U.S. military a few years ago they had buried the badly burnt bodies of Snoddy and fellow pilot Norman A. Schwartz of Louisville, Ky., in unmarked graves near the crash.

They are among 124 soldiers the U.S. military lists as missing in action from 10 separate covert operations during the Cold War. That compares with a total of about 88,000 U.S. servicemen listed as missing in action in foreign wars since 1941, when the United States entered World War II, according to the Defense Department's POW/MIA office in Washington.

The forensics team will visit the site July 15, although it isn't clear if the bodies can be found or identified, said Larry Greer, a spokesman for the office. "We owe it to the families, who waited 50 years to get answers in this case," he said.

Snoddy grew up in Roseburg. He had a paper-route, went to Oregon State University and learned to fly airplanes in the civil air patrol in Madras. He married a girl from California when he was a Navy lieutenant during World War II, and later lived with her in Japan, where he worked as a pilot. He was 6-foot-2, skinny and had sandy hair. And then, on Nov. 29, 1952, Snoddy's C-47 plane crashed over Manchuria and he vanished.

Snoddy worked for Civil Air Transport, a clandestine CIA airline — wholly without his family's knowledge. Boss said her family was first told the plane went down in the Sea of Japan on a routine flight, and an incorrect date was given, Dec. 3. In a sad coincidence, that happened to be the wedding anniversary of Robert's parents. In truth, the C-47 was shot down five days earlier.

Snoddy was flying the plane. It was stripped down for the dangerous mission — flying low over snowy foothills in Manchuria to pick up a Chinese spy working for the CIA, according to Greer. The C-47 was carrying a crew of four.

Boss said CIA officials told her privately years later that the spy had double-crossed the United States. As the plane approached, Chinese soldiers threw back white tarps camouflaging machine guns in the snow at the meeting point, and shot down the plane, Boss said she was told. Greer said the United States does not know why the plane went down. Snoddy and Schwartz died in the crash, he said.

The CIA has dedicated a star to Snoddy in the agency's headquarters in Langley, Va., along with 79 other employees who have died in the line of duty. Boss attended the unveiling ceremony. The latest star belongs to Michael Span, the CIA agent killed in Afghanistan last fall.

Snoddy's family learned few details of the crash and stealthy mission over the years. His mother, Myrtle, never accepted her son was dead, Boss said. She said, "It can't be. I know my son, wherever he is, he'll be coming home. He'll find an airplane and come," Boss said.

When Myrtle died, Boss didn't put a headstone on her grave; she said she wanted to wait and bury her brother in the same plot with his mother. "I'll put his name on the headstone. I want to feel that I have brought him back to her," Boss said. Copyright 2002 The Associated Press. "

[Snoddy and Schwartz were pilots for Claire Chennault's civil airline, CAT, which by 1952 was partly owned by the CIA. They were on a mission to snatch a CIA agent--literally: he would wear a harness attached to a wire suspended from two poles, and their C-47 would snare the wire with a hook. The mission was compromised, the plane was shot down, the pilots were killed instantly, and two CIA agents aboard--Fecteau and Downey--were taken prisoner and used as Cold War pawns for several years. -- Dan Ford]

BEIJING (Reuters) - U.S. army investigators said Monday they may have found the crash site of a CIA plane shot down over northeastern China nearly 50 years ago, but did not find the remains of two pilots who died in the crash. A team from the U.S. Army Central Identification Laboratory in Hawaii located a "debris pattern" of wreckage in a forest in Jilin province near where an elderly witness said the plane crashed about 50 km (30 miles) from the North Korean border.

"We identified a relatively concise pattern of debris within about a 20 to 30 (square) meter area of concentrated small aircraft parts. I can't say if it's specific to that aircraft," said Franklin Damann, the team's anthropologist. The investigators had also searched a larger area and did not find any other debris, he said. "So, to me, I think that we have identified the area where the aircraft crashed," Damann added. None of the aircraft pieces could be identified as belonging to the unmarked C-47, piloted by Robert C. Snoddy and Norman A. Schwartz on a failed mission to extract people on the ground on the night of November 29, 1952. And the team did not find any evidence of the two pilots, despite the accounts of where their bodies were by a 78-year-old farmer who witnessed the crash and helped bury them. "We did not find any remains on this investigation," Damann told a news conference. Two other crew members survived the plane crash and were imprisoned in China until the early 1970s.

HINGING ON MEMORIES

The Jilin investigation was the first by a U.S. team looking into Cold War-era American servicemen missing in action in China. Similar teams have searched for the remains Americans lost in China during World War II. Its success hinged largely on the fading memories of the elderly farmer, the only known living Chinese witness to the crash. The man had watched from his doorway that cold night as the plane circled once and then went down in the woods, said James Becker, an army major who led the investigation. Six hours after the crash, the witness and four others, who have since died, found the plane and attempted to bury the two dead Americans in the frozen ground.

"Since he did go to the site, he could provide first-hand knowledge of the way the aircraft crashed," Becker said, adding the witness, who he did not name, also described the direction from which the plane came in. "He did provide first-hand knowledge as to how the pilots were in the aircraft wreckage," he said. Aaron Lehl, an analyst on the investigation team, said the two Americans who survived the crash had also been helpful, but did not give details. The team would present photographs, a sketch of the crash site and other findings to headquarters in Hawaii to determine if more information was needed or if it should return to excavate the site, Becker said. "This was an investigation. We do investigations, we do excavations. The two are distinctly different," he said. One member of the team estimated that "in the neighborhood of about 20 something" Americans were missing from the Cold War, but declined to estimate how many were in China.

(6) Robert C. Snoddy and Norman A. Schwartz, accompanied by two CIA officers, were about to pick up an anti-communist Chinese spy in the Manchurian foothills when their C-47 was shot down on Nov. 29, 1952. The CIA operatives, John Downey and Richard Fecteau, were captured alive, imprisoned by China for two decades and released only after Washington acknowledged their spy mission.

The U.S. government initially told family members the men went down in the Sea of Japan on a routine flight to Tokyo, maintaining a cover story in order to keep a lid on the CIA's covert actions in China.

China says the charred bodies of Snoddy and Schwartz were buried at the snow-covered crash site. It is not certain that, five decades later, the remains can be found, recovered and identified.

The two were pilots for Civil Air Transport, a CIA proprietary airline that supported clandestine missions in the Far East. They were considered contract employees rather than CIA staff officers, but in December 1998 their names were added to the Book of Honor at CIA headquarters. That marked the government's first public acknowledgment of the men's agency connection.

Snoddy, of Eugene, Oregon, and Schwartz, of Louisville, Kentucky, both flew in World War II, Snoddy for the Navy and Schwartz for the Marine Corps. "These two boys were excellent pilots," said Bob Rousselot of Okay, Oklahoma, who was Civil Air Transport's chief pilot and its liaison with the CIA. He recalled that Snoddy and Schwartz had trained hard for their mission but were "sitting ducks" because the Chinese had been tipped off and laid an ambush. "We were aware of what could happen" on such missions, "so it was not a big shock," said Eddie Sims of Melbourne, Florida, a former Civil Air Transport pilot who knew Schwartz and Snoddy well — so well, in fact, that he later named his son Robert Norman Sims after the lost pilots.

Recovery of the pilots' remains would bring to a close one of the more sensitive Cold War-era espionage cases involving China, whose then-fledgling communist government was under covert assault from the CIA at the same time its army was fighting a war against U.S. forces in Korea.

(7) Search for spy pilots conjures up spooks of a Cold War past, July 27 2002:

A United States Army recovery team has begun combing a site in northern China looking for the remains of two US pilots whose aircraft was shot down during a spy mission in 1952.

The recovery mission, the first allowed by Chinese authorities to look for remains from the Korean War era, reached the remote crash site on Tuesday.

Captain Robert Snoddy and Captain Norman Schwartz crashed during a night mission over the north-eastern province of Jilin at the height of the Cold War.

Although US and Chinese authorities have glossed over the CIA connection, China's granting permission to search for the men's remains is seen as a significant gesture of goodwill in often fragile Sino-US relations.

The US Defence POW/Missing Personnel Office has confirmed the two men disappeared when their unmarked C-47 aircraft crashed on November 29, 1952. They were accompanied by two CIA officers on a mission to extract an anti-communist Chinese agent when the aircraft was shot down.

It went down in the foothills of the Changbai mountains, close to the China-North Korea border 270 kilometres south-west of Yanji.

After being hampered by bad weather, an eight-member team from the US Army's Central Identification Laboratory in Hawaii has cleared a 50 square metre area identified as the likely crash site by a 78-year-old peasant who saw the crash. An initial sweep with metal detectors and a pedestrian survey have also been made, along with test excavations, according to a statement issued by the US embassy in Beijing.

"The US Government is hopeful that this search will yield results that bring comfort and closure to the families of these two brave Americans," the embassy said, describing the recovery of remains as an "important bilateral issue". The pilots are thought to have been buried at the crash site.

The US originally denied the mission had even taken place. The men's families were told they had crashed into the sea during a routine flight to Tokyo.

In a letter to a US newspaper last week, Captain Snoddy's daughter, Roberta Cox, said she was "saying my prayers that the search team will find them". "I also am very grateful to the Chinese Government for allowing US searchers to locate their remains. It has been a long time coming."

The two CIA operatives, John Downey, then 22, and Richard Fecteau, 25, survived. Both were imprisoned by the Chinese. Mr Fecteau, sentenced to 20 years, was released in 1971, and Mr Downey, who received a life sentence, was released in 1973, after the US acknowledged their CIA operation.

The two were finally feted as CIA heroes in 1998, when they were awarded the agency's Director's Medal during the agency's 50th anniversary celebrations.

(8) Article published June 8, 2004, The New Review, Douglas Co, Oregon. U.S. seeks former Roseburg pilot's remains. China crash site: Team will dig to find CIA pilots, including a former Roseburg man, shot down during Cold War spy mission.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) -- An eight-member team of American investigators is traveling to China to search for the remains of two pilots, including a Roseburg native, who were killed in a secret mission 50 years ago.

Two years ago, the U.S. military announced that it had found wreckage at a site where a villager said he'd seen Norman A. Schwartz's C-47 plane go down from enemy fire.

Also on board was CIA pilot Robert C. Snoddy, a 1939 graduate of Roseburg High School who delivered papers for The News-Review as a youngster.

The American team is returning this week to the site to look for the remains of Schwartz, of Louisville, and Snoddy, officials said.

Schwartz's relatives say it may be their last chance to find his remains and return them to the United States.

"If there are remains to be found, they'll be found," said Erik Kirzinger, Schwartz's 52-year-old nephew who lives in Madison, N.C.

At the time of Schwartz's death, he was flying for Civil Air Transport, an organization that used surplus military aircraft in secret anti-communist missions in Asia.

He flew passenger and cargo missions by day and clandestine CIA missions by night, Kirzinger said. In November 1952, Schwartz was flying near the North Korean border in the region formerly known as Manchuria in an attempt to pick up a Chinese agent believed to be in peril.

The plan was for Schwartz to fly low to the ground. Snoddy and two CIA officers were also aboard the plane, but Schwartz and Snoddy were killed after the plane drew enemy fire and crash-landed.

It was apparently an ambush, Kirzinger said. The two CIA officers aboard, Richard Fecteau and Jack Downey, survived and were captured. The two agents were convicted of spying and spent two decades in Chinese prisons.

It wasn't until they were released that Washington acknowledged the United States had carried out spy missions in China.

Schwartz's family initially was told the plane crashed in the Sea of Japan, but soon doubted it after hearing foreign news reports.

Two years ago, after finally getting Chinese permission, a villager led U.S. investigators to a spot where he said he'd helped bury two men from a downed plane in shallow graves. The group found airplane parts and decided to investigate further.

The Joint POW-MIA Accounting Command, located in Hawaii, is sending the excavation team to the site near the town of Antu, China, in the Jilin province. Work should begin this week and take about 30 days, said Ginger Couden, a spokeswoman for the group.

Notes for THEODORE "TED" RAYMOND (SHRADER) SNODDY:

Email from Dennis Honaker:

"According to my wife (Kathy)'s aunt Nelita, Ted thought he was illegitimate, according to Kathy's mother, Mary Ted, this is not true. My mother-in-law's (Mary Ted) recollection is that both of Theodore Raymond's parents died when he was 10 or 11 years old, Theodore Raymond went to live with an Uncle and/or his Grandmother (Snoddy). When he was a young man, he legally changed his name to that of his Grandmother's, becoming Theodore Raymond Snoddy. I will go through what information I have obtained recently from Mary Ted and if there is anything else I will forward it to you, if that's o.k.

I am attaching what I have listed for Enoch Strader, please advise if you think this is incorrect.

Thanks for all your help, I'm new at this and have lots to learn."

Sincerely,

Dennis Honaker

Email from Dennis Honaker: "Ted Raymond Snoddy and Mary Kathryn Stringfellow are my wife's (Katryn Dee Jones) grandparents. I recieved an e-mail from Mr. Melvin Snoddy last week who led me in the right direction and have now obtained some of my wife's, aunt's (Nelita Snow) research. Any information that you might have about Ted Raymond Snoddy's Father's line would be helpful to verify what I have obtained. I know now that Ted Raymond Snoddy's father was actually Enoch Strader and Ted changed his name to Snoddy apparently after his parents died and he went to live with his Grandmother Snoddy. If this is incorrect, please let me know."

Notes for CLYDE EDWARD SNODDY:

Obit: from The Kokomo Tribune of Kokomo, Indiana dated December 14, 1948.

Clyde Edward SNODDY 12 Dec 1896 – 13 Dec 1948

Clyde SNODDY, 54, former Kokomo resident, died suddenly Monday at Bloomington, where he was a prominent business man. Mr. SNODDY was co-owner of the Quality Ice Cream Company and a member of the Hillsdale Real Estate Corporation, which is building two large apartment houses and a business building there.

He was born in Monroe County, attended Indiana University, and fought with the Rainbow Division in France in World War I. While in France he attended the University of Grenoble, where he met and married his wife.

Mr. SNODDY brought his bride to Kokomo. She was a talented singer and appeared on numerous programs. Later they moved to Bloomington, where they had since resided.

Survivors besides the widow are his mother, Mrs. Maude SNODDY; a son James and a brother Carl, all of Bloomington. (Obituary provided by Marvin D. Snoddy)

Clyde brought home a "war bride" from France. According to the passenger list (below), he was taking his wife and son back to France to visit. His passport number is: 241692.

Bloomington (Indiana) Daily Telephone, November 30, 1917, p. 1. (Provided by Randi Richardson)

Clyde Snoddy writes: "I am in the best of health and army life sure is agreeing with me. My clothes are getting too tight for me as I am gaining weight all the time. I was granted liberty yesterday and McAfee and I took in the sights. I sure like the French ways. They are very polite and think we Americans are the thing. I got $3 changed into their money and had a fist full. Every other door there is a café. They sell ale, wines, sandwiches and the women run the cafes and are very polite. The people here don't have any sidewalks, they simply walk in the street."

470. LOLA LOETA¹⁰ SNODDY (*JAMES MOTEN⁹, DAVID ANDREW⁸, JOHN ALBERT⁷, DAVID⁶, WILLIAM⁵, SAMUEL⁴,
?JOSEPH³, WILLIAM², ?¹*) was born Private. She married WILLIAM VERLAND WHITING Private, son of CHARLES
WHITING and ANNA JACOBSON. He was born Aug 12, 1909 in Colonia Diaz, Chihuahua, Mexico, and died Jul 14, 1981 in Ft Whipple, AZ.

Notes for WILLIAM VERLAND WHITING:
From webpage: <http://oscox.org/mecwhiting/williamvwhiting.html>

After 13 years of yearning for more children, a sweet little boy was born in Colonia Diaz, Chihuahua, Mexico,

August 12th, 1909. He was so welcome. He was his family's delight and his name was to be William Verland Whiting. His father, Charles Whiting, and his mother, Anna Eliza Jacobson, had not had children for so long, because of Eliza's developing an illness which was not understood very well in those days. Having lost another wife, and other children in death, gave them greater concern for her health and well being.

Soon after "Bill's" older sister, Iris, was born, his mother Eliza began to experience "blackouts", where she would not be aware for a few seconds. She would not fall down, but only stand motionless. These were seizures of a petit mall type, better understood and controlled in these later days, under medical awareness. Some thought she had an injury, but it can also be brought on from various illness'. With no doctors in their area, they did the best they could. Eventually a medication was found to control the seizures, but it caused blemishes on her beautiful complexion.

His older brother, John, was 19 years old, his older sister, Myrtle, 17, Iris, 13. John was only to stay in Mexico two years of Bill's babyhood. Myrtle taught school, so was away sometimes.

With the injury and death of his older brother, John, August 12th, 1911, began shock after shock for the family to endure.

The death of his grandmother, Mary Elizabeth Cox, in St. Johns, Arizona, July 5th, 1912, came just days before the exodus from Mexico July 28th, 1912. With only 6 hours to prepare, in the middle of the night, they had to leave by 10 AM, taking only the barest essentials.

His mother was expecting another baby. Across the border, at Hachita, New Mexico, USA, they stayed as exiles in tents for awhile, where a little sister for 3 year old Bill, Mary Estelle was born on September 10th, 1912. With no place to call their own, Bill's father Charles, 59 years old, his mother Eliza, 41 years old, poor as paupers, they had to start from scratch. They had their lives and the Gospel. The family finished out the year working to provide the few essentials needed for living, then travelled on. Just before they were to leave, while the family was away working, the small house they were renting burned. Again, they lost all.

In the spring of 1913 they arrived at St. Johns, Arizona, to join other members of the family, who had gone on ahead. Charles, his father, and older sons gathered lumber from uncle Eddie's sawmill, and two houses were built for his mother and aunt Verona.

His two sisters, Myrtle and Iris were married, Myrtle to Archibald Isaacson from St. Johns, September 26th, 1913; and Iris to George Albert Brown from St. Johns, July 18th, 1917.

When Bill was only 8 years of age, he experienced the loss of his beloved father, Charles, in a tragic accident, while hauling grain by wagon from Nutrioso, to St. Johns on December 20th, 1917. Charles and uncle Bernard, were each driving two wagons with four horses. Just outside of St. Johns, the horses shied at the sight of a dead horse by the side of the road and swung widely, throwing Charles off and under the wheels, where he was killed instantly.

World War I was on. Several family members were called to serve. Those Bill had just begun to know were now gone from St. Johns.

During the influenza epidemic following the war, several people of the town died. Weakened also by her illness as well as the struggles since exile, his mother Eliza, died of influenza at age 46, when Bill was 10 years old, on January 23rd, 1919. They were all living with Iris while she took care of her ailing mother. Bill and Estelle stayed on with her and her family for some time, then Bill went to live with his sister, Myrtle and her husband, Arch Isaacson.

Bill and Estelle loved each other. They often went to "grandmother" Thurza Brown's yard, where they climbed the tall trees and played with all their cousins. Grateful for sisters to love them, still these little children had little emotional security, with so many recent shocks of life. Sisters are good. Mothers and fathers are better. They did the best they could for each other.

Bill attended school at St. Johns Academy. He was often an actor in plays sponsored by the community, sometimes with Iris.

At a young age, he looked for and found a father figure in Carl Hamblin. He left and went to live at Carl's home.

At age 20, in Red Mesa, La Plata, Colorado, Bill met and married Vira May Hamblin, born at Nutrioso, Arizona, daughter of John Dudley Hamblin and Emma Celestia Willden, on September 22, 1929, during the time of the great depression. They had one child born there, a son Wallace Dean, on June 20th, 1930. Bill was a hard worker. He had a steady job in spite of the depression. Vira's family was having a struggle and they all came to live with them. This was a burden for young Bill. He could not carry it longer. He asked his wife, Vira to leave her family, bring their baby and go away with him, but she would not. They were later divorced. Bill had little contact with his son from that time on.

After the divorce, Bill decided to see the country, so without much money, he hitch-hiked and rode the rails, across the United States and back.

When he met and was dating a girl from Globe, Arizona, he would come to Iris' home in Phoenix to have her iron a special shirt for him to wear. He was working near Globe, helping to build roads. December 3, 1937, at Globe, Arizona, he married Lola Loeta Snoddy. She was born at Hilton, Texas, June 12, 1914, daughter of James Moten Snoddy and Alice Jane Lynn.

Their life was centered around Bill's work, which was highway construction with Arizona State Highway Department. They owned a trailer home and moved it to various locations as needed. When they worked near Phoenix, he and Lola would park it in the back field, near George and Iris' home. He always drove a good truck and pulled a nice trailer.

Bill had a nice collection of guns as a hobby. He was a gunsmith and designed his own gunstocks. He loved to own and display them.

He was very friendly and loved to visit his family whenever he could. He would tell them of his experiences. The children climbed upon his knee and loved him. He was remembered with fondness as a person with a kind heart by his nieces and nephews. He was a hard worker and a good provider for his family.

A new baby, William Verland Whiting, Jr. was born at Phoenix, Arizona, January 18, 1943. He lived only two days. Services for the baby were held at Greenwood Memorial Park, buried in the area "For Babies Only", behind the mausoleum. Bishop David O. Stohl conducted the services and dedicated the grave. B.H. Alexander, counselor in the Phoenix Third Ward Bishopric, gave a prayer. A song was sung by Marlin Jarman, Bill's brother-in-law. A few remarks were given by a friend of Bill and Lola', Harless Smithson.

Now, World War II was under way. He was inducted into the Army and left for Fort McArthur, California, January 28, 1944. Later he was stationed at Camp Abbott, Oregon, then Camp Bowie, Texas, then he sailed for Europe with Company F, 333rd S.S. Engineers Regiment, serving under General George W. Patton. During the war he was involved in constructing air runways and roads as a heavy construction operator. On two separate occasions he had tractors blown out from under him.

After the war he returned home. Lola had saved all his money for him, but had not waited for him. They were divorced in 1946 at Phoenix. Bill was very upset at this time in his life. He tried as best he could to fill his time with work and family. It was at this time that Bill decided to see other parts of the United States. He travelled by hitch-hiking through most of the country.

While his nephew, George A Brown, was still overseas in the war, he took George's wife, Alice Pritchard Brown, to dinner a few times. She said he was a very nice person.

He later re-married, this time to a widow, Faye Nielson, from Utah. She was raising two grand-children at the time of her marriage. Because of Bill's need to move with his work, it was difficult for the children to get their schooling. A boarding-school was the solution for a period of time.

The family later settled in Cornville, Arizona, where they built a home by their own efforts. Bill ingeniously used surplus World War II ammunition boxes for the construction of the walls. It had a lovely garden, including a small greenhouse, where Faye raised African Violets, which she sold in the Flagstaff market.

Iris, Estelle and Barbara visited Bill and Faye at Cornville quite often and they corresponded regularly.

When his wife Faye died of diabetes in February of 1979, Bill asked her children to stay on with him and take care of him in his ill health, with the agreement they could have the property when he died. He suffered with emphysema and needed an oxygen tank in his home during the latter part of his life. They cared for him until his death, two years after hers, July 14th, 1981. The funeral was held in Cornville, Arizona. Some of those attending his services were his only living son, Wallace Dean Whiting and his wife, Ethel; Elva Shumway, Barbara Brown Lee, Beverly Brown Killpack, Raymond and Leonard Isaacson, Estelle Whiting Jarman, several of his wife Faye's family. He was buried at the cemetery in St. Johns, Arizona, near his mother and father... together at last.

Bill's son, Wallace Dean Whiting, lived with his mother, Vira May Hamblin, and her second husband, W.R. Brakey. Dean filled a Church mission to Tahiti, has served as a bishop and as a temple guide in Salt Lake City, and at this date, 1990, is an ordinance worker at the Jordan River Temple as well as branch president of the Tahitian Branch at the Mission Training Center, in Provo, Utah. Dean married Ethel Jensen, daughter of Leo Lorenzo Jensen and Lydia Ceril Jones from Bountiful and they have 6 daughters, Christine Whiting Carroll with 4 children, Mary Ann Whiting Forgie with 3 children, Teresa Whiting, Nina Sue Whiting Amott, Jeanette Whiting Ballamis with 4 sons, and Denise Yvonne Whiting at this time, 1990. (11 grand-children).

From The Huntsville Times - Sunday, June 18, 2006

'Tince' was a sweetheart but could 'crack that whip' (Son fondly recalls last meeting with 'board of education'), Sunday, June 18, 2006 - By BRIAN LAWSON, Times Staff Writer brianl@htimes.com

Martha "Tince" Hurn Snoddy carried a mischievous twinkle in her eye, made sure things were done just right and was still "sweetheart" 63 years after she and her husband, Henry, eloped.

Snoddy, a native of Rogersville and former legal librarian for NASA's chief counsel in Huntsville, died last Sunday after a brief illness. She was 83.

A valedictorian at Lauderdale County High School, she and Henry, her high school sweetheart, dashed off to Mississippi to marry in 1942.

On the way back home from the wedding in Iuka, the groom had to return to his bride's family's home to fetch her clothes and face the wrath of his mother-in-law, their daughter, Carol S. Byler, recalled.

"The only problem was Daddy forgot to get her bathing suit, and she never let him forget it," Byler said. "Daddy and Mother dearly loved each other. He would do anything for her."

The couple had two children and moved in 1960 to Huntsville, where Henry Snoddy helped start Technical Support Services, a mechanical contracting business.

Martha Snoddy, a diminutive, occasionally fiery redhead, was nicknamed Tince in high school, a shortening of an endearment from Henry. Everybody her knew her by the nickname, her daughter said.

"Mama was a very gentle lady, but she definitely had the temper to go with her red hair," Carol said. "She was extremely clever in getting her family to do exactly what she wanted us to do. She could crack that whip, but she did it in such a way it was OK with us."

Snoddy was precise and organized and insisted that things were done properly. But that sense of order didn't conflict with her good humor.

The couple's son, Charles "Toot" Snoddy, recalled returning home one night much too late after playing with his band in high school.

His mother met him at the door with an old fraternity paddle known as the "board of education." She chased him inside and finally cornered him. He managed to hold her back by putting a hand on her forehead, while she kept swinging and missing.

The two of them eventually fell to the floor laughing and agreed it was time to retire the paddle, her son said.

The Snoddys have four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, to whom Tince Snoddy was devoted.

A fall several years ago left her in a good deal of pain, but she never complained to her family and was always kind despite the discomfort, her daughter said.

Among her mother's great pleasures, Byler said, was a weekly trip to the beauty shop, where she could tease and laugh with her friends. When it was time to sit under the hair dryer, Henry would be there, holding her hand.

Notes for CHARLES WADE HEMPHILL, JR.:
CHARLES WADE HEMPHILL, JR. FAMILY
by Mrs. Elizabeth Weatherred Hemphill

From A History of Coleman County and Its People, 1985
edited by Judia and Ralph Terry, and Vena Bob Gates - used by permission

Charles Wade Hemphill, Jr., was born at Trickham on March 26, 1905. He was the second child of Wagie and Charles Hemphill (see C. W. Hemphill). When Wade was about six months old, the family moved to Coleman in a wagon.

Both Wade and Elizabeth Weatherred were active in school affairs. Wade won honors in debate and declamation. He was active in sports and worked on the school paper, "The Roundup." Elizabeth also worked on the school paper and was valedictorian of the class of 1924. The high school was the upper floor of West Ward, which was from grade one through grade eleven. The twelfth grade was added later. The auditorium was divided by rows of desks. The north end of the room were freshmen rows. The next group of desks were the sophomores, the next the juniors, and the last group of desks by the south windows were the senior rows. The library was a former cloak room with shelves built in it for books. A stage was at the front of the auditorium with a large wall clock beside it. Sometimes eyes were on the clock more than the books.

Wade worked for Mr. John Henderson in Henderson Grocery Store and helped his father with ranch work. In 1923, after graduation, Wade went to work at the Central State Bank. He joined the National Guard.

Wade and Elizabeth were married July 24, 1929, the beginning of the Great Depression. Their first child, Charles James, was born December 20, 1930. They had their first real Christmas at home in 1931. They cut a huge cedar out in the country, decorated it with strings of popped corn and 'splurged' by buying a string of lights. They made James (Jimmy's) little chair from an apple box. It was a beautiful happy Christmas.

Jimmy graduated from Coleman High in 1948. While in school, he was active in sports, was a member of 4-H and F.F.A., and showed calves. He was awarded Lone Star Farmer and American Farmer. He was a delegate to Boys' State. During his senior year, he joined the National Guard. On February 16, 1952, he and Retha Sue Wilson, daughter of Herman Olan and Grace (Thomason) Wilson, were married at Leaday. Jimmy and Sue have three children, all of whom graduated from Coleman High School. These children are: Sandra Sue, born February 11, 1953, at Coleman. She is a graduate of Howard Payne and married to Jimmy Dan Edington. They have a son, Jim Bob, born February 28, 1975. Jamie Elaine, born October 6, 1956; a graduate of Texas Tech; and married December 29, 1979, to James Nelson Pool, Jr.; they have a son, James Nelson III, (Tres) born April 6, 1982, in Brownwood; and Charles James Jr., born September 18, 1957; graduate of Texas Tech. He is ranching with his father and Grandfather Wade.

Ruth Ann, the second child of Wade and Elizabeth was born March 15, 1941. She graduated from Coleman High School in 1959. During her high school days, she played basketball, was Rodeo Queen, and school favorite. She received a degree from Baylor University, in 1963, and was listed as one of the outstanding women graduates for Who's Who in American Universities. She taught school in Dallas, Coleman, Cuero, and San Perlita. On June 6, 1964, she and Jerry King Taylor (born November 6, 1939, son of Joseph Kyle and Karen Ruth (Sullivan) Taylor) were married in Coleman. Ruth Ann and Jerry have two daughters. The older daughter is Elizabeth Karen, born November 25, 1966. In 1982, she was listed in math in Who's Who in American High Schools. The second daughter, Josaphine, was born October 12, 1970. She and her older sister are active in 4H, sports, and various school activities. They live at Westoff, Texas.

Banking became Wade's career with ranching on the side. In 1970, after 47 years of banking, Wade retired from the presidency of the First Coleman National Bank and he and Elizabeth moved to the ranch, making it their home. Wade served twelve more years as a bank director and loan committee officer of the bank. He is a deacon of the First Baptist Church of Coleman. He was chairman of the Sixth District Meeting in San Angelo, and was president of the National Association of Bank Controllers and Auditors in Abilene. He is also a Paul Harris Fellow in Rotary. In 1979, Wade and Elizabeth celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Notes for DEA EDWARD SNODDY:

Dea was a glider pilot during WWII and also held a pilot license for light planes. Dea took all of Rosile's grandchildren for rides in his airplane when he was in Topeka. We have a High School graduation picture it appears of Dea. It is said that Dea learned the meat cutting trade before the war. We have a picture taken of him cutting meat with another young man and not sure of the date on this picture. War years: we find Dea and Audry married and she accompanied Dea to the many various Army training bases throughout the U.S.. Not sure if Terry Ray accompanied the family? We have some picture of the young couple and also have pictures of Dea overseas in England location in his service uniforms and saved messages that he sent home for the Holidays. I think that I have enough information to acquire his service records of share with the family. I seem to remember that Grandfather had a airplane propeller hanging in the BBQ Pit on the patio from one of Dea 's plane after the war years. Dea helped his father run the grocery store upon returning from the war as he and Audry work on building a house for the family... As Herman health became problem, Dea took over the store.. This was before the large retail stores. Small neighborhood grocery stores. Enabled the customers and owner to establish a bond for each other. Credit was given before plastic cards and the local store made deliveries for their customers. In the mid 50' the various government agencies came up from their think tanks on how to improve and revitalize the downtown locations for expansion for building districts... Joplin is a good example of how well Urban Renewal progressed.... Dea handled the loss of his store by establishing a rug and carpet cleaning business with the sons helping him. Dea offered quality services for fair service charge fees. During this time his interest in flying renewed and he would fly his mother to and from Topeka, Ks. and he would give Chris and Rosa Lee's grandchildren rides in his plane around Topeka. The kids have never forgotten the experience of flying with Dea's plane.

Notes for DENMON C. WALKER:

Obit: from The Press Gazette of Hillsboro, Ohio dated August 28, 1959.
Denmon WALKER 1 Oct 1905 11 Aug 1959

And so it was at the end of another day that Denmon WALKER ceased his earthly pilgrimage at the Clinton Memorial Hospital among all that medical skill and loving hands could do.

Denmon, the son of Lee and Flora WEST WALKER, both deceased, was born near Taylorsville, Ohio, October 1, 1905 and departed from this life August 11, 1959, age 53 years, 10 months and 11 days. He was one of a family of seven children, one brother and two sisters having preceded him in death. Two sisters survive, Mrs. Ruth CAMPBELL and Mrs. Gladys ROLET, near WINKLE, and one brother, Elwood, near Danville.

He was united in marriage June 18, 1929, to Bertha SNODDY. To this union five children were born. One daughter passed away in 1958.

Surviving are three sons, Alton D., Grandon, Calvert, at home; one daughter, Henrietta, of near Hillsboro, and his faithful widow to mourn the departure of their loved one.

His span of life was spent farming in the community in which he lived. He was industrious and endeared to his loved ones; also he operated a school bus route for the Hillsboro public schools for twenty years. The contacts and associations as a bus driver with many children was one of closeness and pleasant memories.

In recent years he was stricken with a severe heart condition and although limited in physical activity he continued to enjoy kindly interest and fellowship with people. For many years he had been a member of the I.O.O.F. Lodge at East Danville, Ohio.

Notes for LOIS MARIE LYNCH:

Obit: from The World of Coos Bay, Oregon dated January 31, 2007. Lois Marie LYNCH SNODDY
14 Dec 1921 - 20 Jan 2007

A celebration of the life of Lois Marie (LYNCH) SNODDY, 85, of North Bend, will be held at a later date at the Bay Area Church of the Nazarene, in order to enable all of her extended family and friends to attend. Lois was born Dec. 14, 1921, in Mejia, Texas, to Robert Frank and Martha (Mattie) LYNCH. She died Jan. 20, 2007, in North Bend.

She was born into a generation that made America great. When child labor laws were enacted in 1937, Lois was turning 16 and had been going to school and working in factories for five years. It was a generation that knew how much sweat went into a dollar. As a young woman, Lois became a city girl with great style, living in Berkeley, Calif., and the San Francisco Bay Area. She played a valued role during World War II as a telephone operator in San Francisco. Communication systems were vital and San Francisco was a key port. Lois and her colleagues were provided housing and many amenities.

Then along came a skinny U.S. Navy man, thin from malaria with a twinkle in his eye. They met at a dance - she tried to ignore him - but he had charm and persistence. Kenneth SNODDY Sr. married his beautiful bride, Lois, on July 21, 1944, a marriage that lasted for 56 years. Kenneth has been waiting to reunite with his bride since his death on March 6, 2001.

Shortly after the war and the birth of their son, Ken Jr., they moved to Oklahoma to be near Kenneth's family. Then, in June 1956, now a family of five with the addition of Bonnie and Martha, they moved to Coquille, where Ken began teaching. Lois soon took a job with the phone company. In 1962, the family moved to North Bend. Lois worked for the phone company in Coos Bay for many years. She and her husband were deeply involved with the Bay Area Church of the Nazarene. Ken and Lois wanted the fruits of their life labor to live on through a bequeathment to the Kingsview Christian School. They believed in education and saw the children as an investment in the future of a bruised world.

She was preceded in death by her parents, an infant brother, two much-loved younger brothers and her husband. Arrangements are under the direction of Nelson's Bay Area Mortuary, 267-4216. Sign the guestbook at <http://www.theworldlink.com>. (Obituary provided by Marvin D. Snoddy)

Another one of our South Carolina Heroes has passed.

Gary Snoddy, 69, a career Air Force Veteran of 22 years, died 26 Mar 08, at Piedmont Medical Center after not waking up from a nap at his home in York, South Carolina. His wife, Sandy, said that was the way he wanted to go, quickly, without lingering, pain, or suffering. She told me Gary "Loved every minute he served in the Air Force" and "would go back in, if they would let him"

In addition to Missions in South East Asia, he served in the Presidential Support Service at Andrews AFB in Maryland, and ran Missions with Presidents Johnson and Nixon.

Gary and Sandy had two children; a son, William R. Snoddy of Belmont, N.C.; and a daughter, Vickie Smoot of Fort Mill ; a brother, Philip L. Sandy took care of the children and home while Gary was deployed around the world, carrying Freedom's mantle and the Flag of the United States with him.

Gary was a member of Grace Presbyterian Church in Fort Mill, the Philanthropic Masonic Lodge #32, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and was a Shriner.

The funeral service will be 2 p.m., Saturday, March 29, 2008, at Greene Funeral Home Northwest Chapel, with burial will follow the service at Grandview Memorial Park.

The Patriot Guard will stand for this Hero at the Funeral Home and the Memorial Park, and provide a Motor Escort for Gary as he attends his last formation.

Tim Snoddy: Voice of reason in business, great father, friend By Linda B. Blackford HERALD-LEADER STAFF WRITER. Tim Snoddy had energy, the kind of energy it takes to run businesses in three cities, consult on numerous cases, go horseback riding every weekend, look after nearby parents, children and grandchildren, and keep a close circle of friends. Snoddy, 51, was headed to his Snoddy Consulting offices in Stuart, Fla., on Sunday when he boarded Flight 5191. "He usually took that flight on Mondays, I don't know why he picked Sunday," said his close friend, Gil Johnson. "Maybe he just wanted a day in Florida."

The two friends often worked together. Johnson, a lawyer, often called upon Snoddy's expertise as a forensic accountant — someone who investigates financial problems, including fraud. Snoddy had expanded his business beyond Lexington into Florida and North Carolina. "He was the consummate professional," Johnson said. "We used him all the time, and he was the voice of reason. He had the ability to tell you where the weak places in a case were." But he was also the ultimate father and friend, Johnson said. "Every decision he made as a professional, he always had his family in mind."

Snoddy was originally from Greenup County and graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1976. He remained an ardent UK sports fan, said his son, Matthew. "He was very warm and generous and very caring," Matthew Snoddy said. "He loved people, loved talking and telling stories." The Friday before he left, he attended Picnic With the Pops, Snoddy said. Snoddy is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Snoddy of Lexington; his sister, Terrie Stuart of Louisville; his three children, Matthew Snoddy of Lexington, Joshua Snoddy of Catlettsburg and Jocelynn Morgan of Sierra Madre, Calif.; and three grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are pending. Inquiries may be directed to the family spokesman, Matthew Snoddy, at (859) 619-5045. (matthew@networktherapists.com)

Son sues plane-crash victim's estranged wife in next-of-kin dispute By Michelle Ku HERALD-LEADER STAFF WRITER By Michelle Ku Herald-leader Staff Writer Matthew Snoddy, the oldest son of Comair Flight 5191 victim Tim Snoddy, filed a lawsuit in Fayette Circuit Court on Tuesday to determine who should be named next of kin -- Matthew Snoddy or his father's estranged wife, Connie Elise Buckley.

Snoddy also filed a motion for a temporary restraining order to stop Fayette County Coroner Gary Ginn from releasing his father's body to Buckley, restrain Buckley from making funeral and/or memorial arrangements, prevent Buckley from receiving any type of a settlement of any value related to his father's death, and direct that the body be released to Snoddy as next of kin so he and his siblings can make arrangements for funeral and/or memorial services. Fayette Circuit Judge Sheila Isaac granted Snoddy's request for a temporary restraining order on Tuesday. Snoddy's suit is the first one filed related to Sunday's crash at Blue Grass Airport that killed 49 people. First Officer James Polehinke was the lone survivor.

Matthew Snoddy should be named next of kin because Tim Snoddy, 51, had been in the process of divorcing Buckley, 53, when he died, the suit said. "Buckley had no personal relationship with the decedent, but only the legal relationships of a soon-to-be-ex-wife and debtor," according to court documents. Charles Curry, Snoddy's attorney, said, "Matthew, the son, wanted to have the right to deal with his father's estate, the burial and whatever memorialization he may feel appropriate."

Tim Snoddy married Buckley on July 31, 2004. He moved out on Oct. 1, 2005. He filed for divorce on Aug. 24, just days before he died on Comair Flight 5191, the suit said. During the marriage, Buckley incurred more than $350,000 in debts to Tim Snoddy, the suit said. Buckley is the owner of Storybook Inn, a bed and breakfast, in Versailles. The inn opened on April 8, 2005, following an extensive renovation which included professional landscaping, according to the inn's Web site. Prior to opening the inn, Buckley was a Realtor. After Snoddy's death, Comair informed his three children that "Buckley had called and told the airline that she was the next of kin and that they were to deal with her regarding the accident," the suit said. Buckley did not attempt to contact Snoddy's children until Tuesday afternoon, the suit said.

"Timothy K. Snoddy would want his children and grandchildren to be able to choose his final rest, and to arrange a fitting memorial that would express their feelings of love, grief and loss at his passing," according to court documents. "Buckley has no interest, no claim on his affections and no right to claim as a spouse when the marriage had ended." Tim Snoddy was a forensic accountant, someone who investigated financial problems, including fraud. He owned Snoddy Consulting, Inc. which has offices in Lexington and Florida. In addition to Buckley, Ginn and Comair were named as defendants in the suit.
