Generation No. 1

Notes for JOHN ARCHIE SNODDY:

Exerpt from Alta Snoddy Barnett's article from "The Heritage of Lauderdale County, Alabama", page 444. She has his name listed as Archie John Snoddy.

"Archie John and Ethel farmed south of Mt. Bethel Church in Lauderdale County on County Road 53 (Old Red Lane). He also had a general merchandise store at Toonersville. Their marriage was short lived, with his death in a freak accident at a cotton gin east of Toonersville. Ethel was grief stricken, but soon adjusted and began working to support her children. She worked on the farm, took in quilting, sewing, and did washing and ironing at night. Archie's sister, Julia A. Snoddy, was living with them when he died and continued to live with Ethel and the children until they were grown. After a few years, Ethel bought a farm near Anderson where she and the children continued to farm. She met and married Meredith Gentry "Bud" Moore. He is buried in the Romine Cemetery by his first wife, Lucy A. Romine."

Two Men Meet Sudden Death in East Lauderdale Boiler Explosion Kills Archie Snoddy and Ed Weather and Destroys Gin - from The Florence Times of Florence, Alabama dated Friday, November 22, 1907. (Provided by Marvin D. Snoddy).

On Friday afternoon last a disastrous accident occurred at the gin of Patrick WHITE, between Whitehead and Rogersville, which resulted in the death of two men, Archie SNODDY, engineer, and Ed WEATHERS, fireman. The boiler was torn into fragments, and its pieces almost disappeared from the fateful scene, A large cut stone, evidently a part of the foundation, cut Mr. SNODDY's body in two and his death was instantaneous. Mr. WEATHERS, who was badly injured on the head, lived until three o'clock Saturday morning, when death came to his release. Mr. WHITE was in the second story of the gin house, and besides a severe shock, was otherwise uninjured. Several other persons were standing around the house, and their escape was almost a miracle. The plant was made a complete wreck, and presented a scene of desolation. The two men killed were well and favorably known, and their sudden death cast a gloom over that entire community. My SNODDY was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. Mr. WEATHERS was about 18 or 20, and was unmarried.

Exerpt from Alta Snoddy Barnett's article from "The Heritage of Lauderdale County, Alabama", page 444. She has his name listed as Archie John Snoddy.
